

"2615b. Every child between seven and thirteen years of age shall attend school for the full term during which the school of the district in which he resides is open each year, unless excused for a reason hereinafter mentioned.

" 2615c. A person who has received into his house another person's child who is at least of the age of seven years and is under the age of thirteen, who is resident with him or is in his care or legal custody shall be subject to the same duty with respect to the instruction of such child during such residence as is a parent, and shall be liable to be proceeded against as in the case of a parent, if he fails to cause such child to be instructed as required by this section ; but the duty of the parent under this section shall not be thereby affected.

" 2615d. A parent, guardian or other person shall not be liable to any penalty imposed by this section in respect of a child if :

(a) The child is under efficient instruction at home or elsewhere ; or if

(b) The child is unable to attend school by reason of sickness or other unavoidable cause ; or if

(c) No conveyance is provided at the expense of the school board and there is no public school which the child has the right to attend within two miles measured by the nearest highway from such child's
