WATER RATES

Special Committee Instruct Treasurer Coady to Make a Report—Disagree as to Deficit.

TO-DAY AT THE CITY HALL.

11 a.m.—Board of Control.

The principle of a frontage tax on all property to meet the expense of laying water mains, instead of having them dealt with as local improvements and bonds required in advance, was adopted at the meeting of the special committee on water rates yesterday afternoon. Further action was deferred pending a report on what, per foot is necessary to cover the cost.

The spending of City Treasurer Coady that the waterworks is not on a paying basis, no provision being made for depreciation of interest on investment, did not satisfy the mayor, who claimed that the present rates were wiping out the deficit of the past. Ald. Hilton complained of the delay in supplying water services to seventy houses on Mortier, Applegrove and Hiawatha-avenues. The people had put up the bonds of $100 asked for the city, but now they were asked to give bonds of $200 more. Ald. Christolm, chairman of the works committee, explained that there had been exceptionally heavy demands for water mains throughout the city, and that no additional ones could be laid this year.

George Mitchell, chief rating clerk in the waterworks department, stated that the frontages amounted to about 2,200,000 feet, and that, at the proposed rate of 3 cents per foot, the nearly revenue would come to $165,000. Allowing for crossings and flankages, Controller Spence estimated the revenue at $150,000.

City Treasurer Coady thought it should be made a straight tax, to be collected with the other taxes. Water bonds were a hardship on poor people, he thought. The frontage tax would be less inducement to build land for speculative purposes.

City Has the Power.

City Solicitor Johnston reported that under the Waterworks Act of 1872 the College-Bred Man Sent Down For Five Years—Beyond Redemption, Says Woman.

NEW YORK, Nov. 17.—Lee P. Woodward, 49 years old, a college graduate, and a member of an old and honorable Pennsylvania family, was sentenced to five years at Sing Sing, and to-day to five years at least a section of it, into the limelight of a low tariff party.

For years the government has pressed before the west particularly for a reduction of the duties on agricultural implements. For four years this resolution has been on the order paper, yet not a sound has been uttered regarding it. It has had its effect, however, of preventing the opposition from discussing the question.
