One more was secured in the fourth. Jordan singled, and was forced at second by Bradley, the latter 'scoring when Mulen hit over the left fielder's head for two bases.

Delahanty was the first man up in the eighth, and singled. Jordan flew out to right. Bradley doubled to centre, the ball going over the outfielder's head, and on dry grounds would easily have been a home run, Delahanty scoring. Mullen flew to centre. Bobby Vaughn, whose work at the bat this spring has been a decided feature, hit over second, scoring Bradley.

Richmond scored in the third on a double by the pitcher. Keating beat out a bunt, and Howedell sacrificed cleverly. Wells hit over Delahanty's head for three bases, scoring two runs, and the other came in the sixth on two singles and an error by Bradley.

The teams played with considerable snap, considering the condition of the day and the field. Delahanty and Bradley both hit well, and Vaughn's single was the kind that games are won on. Cathers and Backman both worked well another game will be played here tomorrow, Mueller and Winter doing

St. Louis Wins Again.

ST. LOUIS, Mo. April 12.—A cyclonic wind and hail storm, during which the flag pole broke and crashed into the bleachers and the players were driven from the diamond by the bombardment from the sky, brought the Cleveland-St. Louis American League game to an abrupt ending in the first half of the ninth inning.

Spectators in the grand stand, newspapermen and the official scorer in the press box were obliged to take refuge under the seats, and many were severely bruised by hail stones. The scorer's record was ruined and he was obliged to make up a new one from borrowed notes.

Blair Gets a Double.

PHILADELPHIA. April 12—New York again defeated Philadelphia this aftermoon by a rally in the eighth, when four hits, including a double by Blair, and a triple by Wolter, were made off Coombs.
