The Queen's Own Rifles' annual match was held at Long Branch rifle range on Saturday, starting at 8 a.m. The scores were not as high as usual, owing to the changing light and a tricky wind which blew all day from the right front. The shooting men of the regiment in many cases did not shoot up to form, but this was accounted for by the fact that they ad to use the short Ross rifle as issued to the regiment, while they had been practising all season with the long match rifle. The attendance was good, about three hundred taking part. The match was under control of Lieut. Col. Mercer, who acted as executive officer, and was run off without a hitch.

Ruptured People-Try This for Relief and Cure

Here is something you can try sixty days without having to risk a single cent of your money.

Something which has cured—in the last twenty-four years—thousands of ruptured people—

Something so strengthening to the ruptured parts that you can work right along while being cured—

If you don't find yourself getting better after trying a Cluthe Truss or Cluthe Automatic Massager—

If you don't think it's doing you a lot of good—making a new man of you.

So that you can judge for yourself, we want to send you a free book we have written—a cloth-bound hour of the character.

For your protection we guarantee in writing that a Cluthe Truss will keep your rupture from coming out—when you are working, exercising, taking a bath (this truss is waterproof)—every minute of the day. If a 60 days trial doesn't prove it, the truss won't cost you a cent.

You see this truss—unlike all others—is self-adjusting, self-regulating.

Corp. G. Mortimer of Quebec, using a Ross Rifle and Ross Ammunition, wins the Hopton Grand Aggregate with record score.

The Hopton Grand Aggregate is the total of the Bass, the Edge, the Waldegrave, the Wimbledon, the Halford Memorial, and the Albert, all long-range matches, the distances varying from 900

Corp. Mortimer's score of 792 out of 825 is seven points better than last year's record, which also was made with a Ross Rifle. The next five places in this aggregate were also won by marksmen using Ross Rifles and Ross Ammunition.

In 1911 the Hopton Grand Aggregate, as well as first place in the Bass, the Edge, the Halford Memorial and the Wimbledon, were also captured with Ross Rifles.

This triumph at Bisley, confirming previous years' results, classes the Ross Match Rifle as the champion of all longrange rifles in the British Empire-and probably, therefore,

Sportsmen who seek an accurate and high power arm will be glad to know that the Ross 280 High Velocity Rifle has the same barrel and breech as the military match rifle, which only differs from it in the sights and style of stock. Its low trajectory and reliability have made the Ross a favorite in India with big game hunters. Illustrated catalogue and full information sent on request.
