MIRACULOUS ESCAPE OF KINGSTON PILOT

Lieut. L. Ermin is Testing Airplane When Drops Completely Out of the Machine.

Kingston, Ont., April 3.—Word has just reached this city of the miraculous escape of Second Lieut. L. Ermin of this city while testing a biplane in England. When he and passengers were 4000 feet in the air their engine dropped completely out of the machine. For a fraction of a second it seemed as if the machine must catch fire, but luckily the engine fell clear. Before the remains of the machine had fallen far, Lieut. Ermin gained control, and with remarkable presence of mind kept the plane moving spirally as the machine dropped to the earth, landing on one wing in the middle of a hedge.

CANADA TO RESUME TRADE WITH ALSACE

Ottawa, April 3.—Canada is to resume trading with Alsace-Lorraine. A proclamation, stating that resumption of such trading is permitted, will shortly be issued.

It is provided, however, that where licenses for export or import are necessary, they must first be obtained. It is also provided that any licenses granted will not permit trading for the benefit of any person comprised in the consolidated orders respecting trading with the enemy.

Build a Hydro-Airplane Garage on Waterfront at Montreal

Montreal, April 3.—An application has been made to the harbor commission for permission to establish a hydro-airplane garage on the water front.

At a meeting in the Windsor Hotel the aero clubs of the city were united under the title of Aeronautical Association of Montreal. Its purpose is to encourage flying and to provide suitable landing grounds in the vicinity of Montreal.

Will Continue to Land Troops at Halifax During the Summer

Halifax, N.S., April 3.—It is expected here that the disembarkation of returning Canadian troops at this port will continue during the summer months and that few of the troops which have been coming to Halifax this winter will be transferred to the St. Lawrence route.

CONSOLIDATED LIST EXPORTABLE GOODS

Canadian Trade Commission Announces List Adopted by the Associated Governments.

Ottawa, April 3.—The Canadian Trade Commission, Ottawa, wishes exporters to know that a consolidated list which has been adopted by the associated governments for such goods as may be exported without license or guarantee against their re-export from neutral countries has just been received. It defines permitted exports in 200 classifications with which certain trade is permitted.

The assurance is given that guarantee against a re-export in these particular cases will not be required. The main classification includes books, brushes, caps, china, glass, cutlery, drugs, earthenware, fancy goods, dressed or manufactured furs, building hardware, hats, household furnishings and fixtures, certain iron and steel manufactures, leather goods, office furniture, pianos, sanitary ware, toilet preparations, turners' woodenware and typewriters.

U. S. WITHDRAWS OFFER TO PURCHASE SHIPPING

New York, April 3.—The United States government has withdrawn its proposal to purchase the British shipyard and the International Mercantile Marine. This was announced today by P. A. S. Franklin, president of the International Mercantile Marine Company, who said that he had been informed by the government authorities that they "could not further consider possible acquisition of the ownership of the company."

The company's British tonnage and that we were free so far as they were concerned, to deal with the property as we may consider desirable.

The tonnage involved in the proposal now abandoned included such ships as the Baltic and the Olympic. They were to be sold to a British syndicate for $125,000,000 and the deal was in progress when the United States government stepped in last November, disapproving of the sale and offering to take over the vessels upon the terms of the British offer.

Mr. Franklin announced that the company was undecided whether to renew the negotiations with the British syndicate or to retain the ownership of the vessels.

Damages of Fifth of Million Claimed From Quebec Riots

Quebec, April 3.—A total of $220,000 damages was claimed from the city of Quebec today as a sequel to the Quebec riots last year. Avila Blouin claims $210,000 because he claims he got a rifle bullet in the leg, and suffered amputation, and E. Blouin, a relative of his, claims $10,000 because he claimed he was shoved with a bayonet in his back by a soldier. The city disowns any responsibility, saying that at the time, the city was under the guard of the militia.

Dr. Jas. Douglas Left $150,000 For Queen's Library College

Kingston, Ont., April 3.—The late Dr. Jas. Douglas, chancellor of Queen's University, left one hundred and fifty thousand dollars to Queen's for a library college. The authorities are negotiating for St. James' Church property adjoining the college as a site for a library.

WILL REBUKE GENERAL

Rome, April 3.—The interallied commission at Laibach, Jugoslavia. The Epoca says, has decided to rebuke the Jugoslav general who some time ago ordered the expulsion of an Italian mission from Laibach. The mission, it is added, will return to Laibach.

TOOK MOTOR ACCESSORIES.

Chatham, April 3.—Joseph Brennan was sentenced this morning to serve two years in Ontario Reformatory on each of three charges of stealing auto accessories from the Gray-Dort Motors and the Bowling Spring and Axle Works, the sentences to run concurrently.

LABOR OUTLOOK GOOD, SAYS OTTAWA MINISTER

Hon. Gideon Robertson Believes Canada Soon to Be Faced With Actual Shortage of Workmen.

Ottawa, April 3.—In connection with his announcement of the decision of the government to appoint a commission to study the question of joint control of industries by capital and labor yesterday, Hon. Gideon Robertson said that in all the provinces, with the exception of British Columbia, the unemployment situation was improving, and he felt confident that within six months Canada would be faced with an actual shortage of labor. The government had established 65 employment offices throughout the Dominion, and they were rendering excellent service.

MESSAGE FROM KING TO GEN. V. S. WILLIAMS

Kingston, Ont., April 3.—Brig.-Gen. V. S. Williams today received an autograph letter from King George, who expressed deep appreciation of the service rendered by the Canadian officers to the empire during the war.

He expressed his admiration of the courage shown, the sacrifices made and wished the general every success and a full measure of happiness in the future.

GERMANS MOBILIZE IN NORTH SILESIA

Geneva, April 3.—Field Marshal von Hindenburg, with a large staff, has arrived at Gliwice, northern Silesia, and, according to the terms of the armistice, has ordered a general mobilization in that region, according to despatches to The Journal de Geneve.

The Polish agency at Lausanne states that the Germans are systematically destroying the industries of upper Silesia and taking everything away from the factories. Owing to the seriousness of the situation, Jan Paderewski, the Polish premier, has postponed his visit to Paris, it is said.

Lithuanian troops, on retaking Mitau, are reported to have found 700 bodies of women and children in the streets when they entered the city.

Report a Division of Opinion In the Anti-Alcoholic League

Montreal, April 3.—A division of opinion has arisen in the ranks of the anti-alcoholic league over the wine and beer license system upon which a referendum is being submitted on April 10, in Quebec. The president of the league, Judge Lafontaine, says that such licenses would encourage drinking, and would not permit of law enforcement.

MARRIAGE OF BISHOP LOFT-HOUSE.

FREAKLES

Now is the Time to Get Rid of These Ugly Spots.

There's no longer the slightest need of feeling ashamed of your freckles, as Othine double strength is guaranteed to remove these blemishes. Simply get an ounce of Othine—double strength—from any druggist and apply a little of it night and morning and you should soon see that even the worst freckles have begun to disappear, while the lighter ones have vanished entirely. It is seldom that more than an ounce is needed to completely clear the skin and to remove these blemishes. Be sure to ask for the double strength Othine as this is sold under guarantee of money back if it fails to remove freckles.

WEST DEMANDING QUICK TARIFF ACTION

Council of Agriculture Declares Against Attempt to Shelve Question By Means of Commission.

Winnipeg, April 3.—Immediate government action to reduce the tariff rate advocated by the Council of Agriculture is asked in a resolution passed at today's session. The government is urged not to attempt to shelve the question by appointing a special commission. A copy has been forwarded to Ottawa.

TO REINFORCE TROOPS IN NORTHERN RUSSIA

London, April 3.—The situation in the Murmansk region of Northern Russia is giving the British military authorities considerable anxiety. Announcement was made today that British reinforcements will follow immediately the American troops now on the way to North Russia.

Regarding the Archangel front, it is pointed out that during the time the allied troops are isolated by the ice the Bolsheviks are likely to make a determined attempt to drive them into the sea. The Bolsheviks have superior forces, and as their section of the Dvina river thaws sooner than the part occupied by the allies they have an important advantage.

The allies, therefore, it is believed in military circles, are likely to have a hard time, and it is felt to be essential that the troops be reinforced at the earliest possible moment.

REVOLT OF PRETENDER TO ABYSSINIAN THRONE

Addis Ababa, Abyssinia, April 3.—A grandson of King Johannes II, who died in 1889, has revolted and declared himself King and the name of Theodor. The government has sent out a punitive expedition to put down the rebellion.

Allandale, R. R. No. 1.

March 20th, 1916.
Dear Sir—Would you kindly send me one package of "B.Well" as I have used it, and it has done me the world of good, and am feeling a lot better since I have taken it.
Enclosed you will find the price of one package. Please oblige me by sending it as soon as you can.
Yours truly,
Staples, April, 1916.

Prof. Mulveney:

Dear Sir—I received the package of "B.Well" you mailed me March 30, and it is all right. Please send me $5.00 worth as soon as convenient.
Sincerely yours,
Waterford, Nov. 16, 1917.

Dear Sir—You will find enclosed $1.00 for two packages of your "worm destroyer." I have used your medicine, and it did me so much good at the time I want some more.
Yours respectfully,
165 Perth Ave., Toronto,
May 9, 1916.

Dear Sir—Enclosed you will find one dollar and twenty-five cents for more of your "B.Well" powders. It is doing so much for my sons, we wish to try it a little longer.
Hoping to receive it at your earliest convenience, I am, yours truly,
Hamilton April 10th, 1916.

Dear Sir—Enclosed please find $1.25 for which send me another package of "B.Well" powders. They are just fine, and do all you claim for them. Kindly send as soon as possible.
Yours truly,
Hanover, May 2nd, 1916.

Dear Sir—Please find enclosed $1.25 for "B.Well." As two of my neighbors have got it lately, and think it is so good, I thought I would try it. Please send it soon.
Yours truly,
Fenelon Falls, June, 1916.

Prof. Mulveney:
Dear Sir—Please send me one dollar's worth of your Mother's Friend Worm Medicine. I have given my children some before, and would not be without it now for a good deal, as I have a little girl that took fits before I gave her your medicine. Now she is as healthy as any child could be. Am obliged for your good help.
Yours truly,
Pickington, Oct. 2nd, 1916.

Dear Sir—I am sending for some more of your "B.Well" medicine. It is the best that I have ever got yet. I have been doctoring for over six years. Please send it as soon as you can.
Yours truly,
Hanover, August, 1916.

Prof. R. L. Mulveney:
Dear Sir—We are giving your B.Well to our daughter for epilepsy, and since taking it she has not had one fit. Before, every month, she had from one to four fits at an attack.
I am enclosing $6.00 for six packages, $1.25 for same, and 22 stamps for postage.
Yours truly,
Montreal, Jan. 13rd, 1916.

Dear Sir—Will you kindly send me another bottle of your "B.Well"? I dare say you will remember me sending for a bottle on the 23rd of December. My boy, 13, passed a lot of stomach worms, some of them two inches, and some a little more. The third day after taking it he passed thirty-seven. No wonder the poor boy had such an appetite. I assure you I am very thankful I got your medicine, and am sending for another bottle for my boy of 11 years. I enclose $1.25 for same, and 22 stamps for postage.
Yours truly,
Ravenhill, Ont., Feb. 12, '16.

Dear Sir—Enclosed please find $1.25 for a package of "B.Well." I have used one package, and found it the best medicine I ever tried. I have been bothered with stomach trouble for years, and I am now about all right.
Thanking you for your medicine, I remain,
Yours truly,
