The Ciricago wheat market is becoming more of a puzzle, owing to the December manipulation. The shorts are mainly the elevator people, Armour and Weare. They have provided the cash wheat, or will have it to deliver before the end of December. Aside from this interest, there is evidently a good-sized speculative shortage that is becoming alarmed, and their efforts to cover during the cosing days of last week resulted in the strength in December that widened the premium over May from 2½c to 4¾c.

LOCAL LIVE STOCK.

The receipts of live stock on the cattle market to-day amounted to 44 car loads, composed of 1121 cattle, 594 sheep and lambs, 20 calves and 500 hogs. The bulk of the offerings in cattle were butchers, feeders and stockers, very few. exporters coming forward. Some offered as such were bought for feeders by farmers, who seemed to be ready and willing to pay more money for them than those engaged in the export trade. This fact alone shows that cattle being offered here for shipping purposes are not as good as they should be to command a high price. There was very little doing in the export trade, few being bought as such. Choice were worth from $3.75 to $4, medium $3.50 to $3.75 per cwt.

R. Ironsides bought one load extra good, weighing 1280 lbs. each, at $4 per cwt.

William Levack bought one load exporters, weighing 1150 lbs. each, at $3.45 per cwt.

Henry A. King & Co., 12 King-street east, received the following despatch to-day from New York:

The stock market opened slightly lower, in sympathy with London, but with no pressure to sell. Small purchases by room traders soon started a rally, and prices have held very firm during the eatire day. Among the granger stocks, R.I. was the strongest, and we have good reason to think that this stock will be made a leader on any upturn in the market. Its earnings are showing up very well, and this, with the probability of refunding a goodly portion of its bonds, has attracted an excellent class of buyers. Sugar was another strong feature, and, judging by the amount of bear talk on this stock, we should say that decline had extended as far as it is safe to follow on the short side. Pacific Mail directors meet to-morrow, and the dividend will probably be acted upon. Thirty is a low price for a stock that pays a 1 per cent. dividend as often as does Pacific Mail. There was no news of special interest to influence the market to-day, and the professional is still in full control, but the undertone seems to be better than for some days.
