The Torrington Testimonial.

For the present subscriptions to the musical festival and testimonial to Mr. Torrington, Oct. 24 and 25, may be sent to the Hon. Sec. of the committee, Mr. S. T. Church, 9 Pembroke-street. Seats will be selected in the order of subscription. Preference in selection will be given subscribers to the course. The list is now open and a splendid showing has already been made. The popularity of the event would indicate the exhaustion of the reserved seat plan at an early date.

The project is in the hands of a large and influential committee, of which Mr. 3. Herbert Mason is chairman.

Always Safe in Choosing a Christy. Twenty-five cases of new pearl hats were flumped on the sidewalk at J. & J. Lugsdin's, 122 Yonge-street, yesterday afternoon. To-day they are being opened out and marked off, and among them you will find a lot of Christy's celebrated 2-oz pearl hats, which are so widely and favorably known In. England and America. Besides these, there are other cases of Christy's new blocks in stiff hats in blacks and favorite shades of brown, and the popular prices are $2.50 and $3—the most quality for the least money you will get anywhere.

Modern Extraction.

Modern Extraction of teeth is very different from the old-time manner of torture. By applying a perfectly harmless anesthetic to the gums at the tooth roots, the nerves are temporarily deadened and the operation is made painless and easy. Boyle Starts Up New Issue.

His idea was contagious. Ald. Sheppard favored it and so did Mr. Boyle, but the latter introduced a resolution which side-tracked the dominant idea for a while. This motion was to add to the committee six members of the Merchants' Association of Canada. His idea was an edimational one. He believed that the merchants, being a business body, would be of invaluable service in helping the committee get the Government to build the road.

In the course of the discussion the Mayor left to fulfil another engagement. The general consensus seemed to be that there were other organizations by the dozen who were as justly entitled to membership as the merchants. It was this which led Ald. Sheppard to suggest one merchant delegate and Mr. Kemp to add their President Mr. W. B. Rogers and the President Mr. W. B. Rogers and the President Mr. W. B. Rogers and the President Mr. W. B. The Bricklayers' Union held their regular daily meeting yesterday morning in St. John's Hall, which was largely attended. Nothing of any importance was done and the situation remains about the same. The men still refuse to accept arbitration, as suggested by the employers, and will hold out for 40 cents an hour. The secretary of the International body has notified the local union to fight the issue.

The members of the Builders' Exchange will wait for several days to give the men time to consider their offer, before they make another move.

The stone-cutters' section of the Builders' Exchange were to have held their regular meeting yesterday, but not enough members turned up to form a quorum. A special meeting will likely be called to discuss the strike. Several of the men intend leaving the city unless the employers give in.
