PHYSICIANS MUST NOW OBTAIN 'PER' BLANKS, TORONTO

Procedure in Line With New Policy of O. T. A. Officials.

New orders issued by the Government respecting the issue by Ontario physicians of liquor prescriptions took effect Tuesday, whereby no more prescription blanks can be obtained from local Government dispensaries, but will have to be procured by each doctor upon application for same at the head office in Toronto.

This procedure is in line with the new policy of strict checking up which the authorities have determined upon with regard to those medical men specializing in the issue of "pers." A receipt in the front of the new book must be returned to Toronto acknowledging the issue, and a careful check will be kept on every sheet, with forgery reduced to a minimum by the change.

It is also announced that a new form of prescription book, containing blanks to be filled in by the medico when he issues scripts to patients, has been printed, the drugists of the province being instructed to honor and fill these. These forms are to be used when the prescription is for a small quantity, both new types of forms, and their use has been sanctioned from Tuesday onwards.

FARMERS HELP

Middlesex Not Getting Fair Share is Claim Made.

For some reason the farmers of Middlesex are not getting their share of the experienced farm labor which is continually arriving in Toronto from the British Isles for distribution throughout Ontario, according to R. A. Finn, the local department of agriculture. The department in Toronto claims that no applications have been made by the farmers in this county for help.

Mr. Finn believes that no applications have been made, not because the farmers are not in need of help, but because they are ignorant of the fact that these men are continually arriving in Canada. There are some experienced men among them who are accepting the wages of $50 a month for the summer months, or less, if hired by the year.

COFFEE PRICES SLUMP

Paris, June 17.—Prices of various commodities in every day use continue to decline in this city, and newspapers state that coffee prices are less in Paris than in Havre, and less in Havre than in Brazil. Cotton, which for several days was firm, has again an important decline in Havre.

MAGISTRATE WILL INCREASE ALL FINES UNLESS SPEEDING STOPPED

Pedestrians Have Some Rights on Streets, Says A. H. M. Graydon—The Penalty Will Be Severe On Flagrant Violations.

Unless speeding is stopped in this city, Magistrate A. H. M. Graydon will increase the fine, he announced in the police court this morning.

He later stated that pedestrians had some rights on the streets as well as motorists. Of late there had been many cases of reckless driving, and something had to be done to stop it. The magistrate said that he had not yet decided what the increase in the penalty would be. However, in a flagrant violation of the motor vehicles act, the penalty will be very severe. The maximum fine for speeding is $5 and costs.

Exceptions to Rule.

There are exceptions to the rule that "talk is cheap." Too much talking cost Melville Onn about $1 per word. P. C. George Tomlin stated that at 5:30 p.m. on Sunday on Askin street, Onn drove a block in 19 seconds. This was figured out to be the rate of 26 miles an hour. The defendant swore that he was not there at that time, although he had come at that time during the afternoon.

The court imposed a fine of $5 and costs.

Onn passed a hot remark.

"Don't you think you ought to apologize to the magistrate?"

Onn did not say anything.

Had Good Alibi.

R. M. Berry was charged with speeding on Dundas street between Wellington and Waterloo streets. He said that he had come up York street and had not been on the other stretch of pavement at any time on Saturday, the day the offence was alleged to have been committed. His wife corroborated his statement. He was dismissed.

Following are convictions secured today under the motor vehicles act: P. Larson, Fred Jones, Thomas Pieschke, J. Young, A. Dundas, Richard Hill, Alex. Girvatt, P. Fulcher, J. Phillips, J. Carmichael, W. G. Hunt, G. Hunt, Charles O'Brien, D. Thomas, T. W. Scandrett, J. W. Miller, R. S. Grindley and Charles Tindley, each $5 and costs; W. J. Wilkey, $2 and costs. For breaking city bylaws John Baratta and C. Praeger were fined $2.

Pearl Lampana, charged with vagrancy, was remanded a week.

COMMITTED TO JAIL, CONTEMPT OF COURT

Judge J. C. Judd Gives Disturber Chance To Cool Off.

During the progress of the county court here today, M. Kew of this city created a disturbance by talking loudly and when asked to leave the courtroom by Judge J. C. Judd, who was presiding, refused to do so. Constables duty at the time were ordered by the court to remove him bodily, and as they proceeded to do so Kew fought violently to resist ejection.

Judge Judd then committed the disturber to jail until 6 o'clock tonight for contempt of court. As he was being hustled to a cell in the depths of "Castle Kew" remarked, "I am only out today to celebrate."

"Well, you are through for the day," replied the constable as he closed the door shut on the vociferous prisoner.

DEATHS AND FUNERALS

DEATH OF MISS I. MCINTOSH.
East Williams, June 17.—The death of Miss Isabel McIntosh, of Centre road, East Williams, occurred Tuesday evening after an illness of many years. Deceased was a daughter of the late Donald and Mary McIntosh. She is survived by two brothers, William, with whom she lived, and Alexander, also deceased. Mrs. Andrew Hysman of London. The funeral was held Wednesday to Naim Cemetery.

YOUTH WHO SHOT YEO IS ALLOWED OUT ON SUSPENDED SENTENCE

Father of Alfred Frank Makes
Restitution to G. T. R.
Employee.

Alfred Frank, a local youth, who recently pleaded guilty in the county court to a charge of wounding Joseph Yeo with a bullet near the head, was allowed his freedom on suspended sentence today after having been sentenced to a term of 15 months to the victim of the shooting. Yeo ordered Frank and a companion to leave the railway property, which he was patrolling one Sunday morning last summer, and the youth was arrested and taken to the county police on information furnished by Yeo as to their description.

"I am very glad you have agreed to make compensation to poor Yeo," said Judge Talbot Macbeth to Frank. "You did him a great deal of harm, and a deal of pain and suffering, and have had a narrow escape from a more serious charge. I do not intend to make you a violent man on the part of a boy of your age to fire on a human being with so direct aim as to hit him in the head. You are very young, and not much good will be accomplished by shutting you up in jail. Therefore, suspend sentence," continued the court, "and advise you to keep away from firearms in the future. You are not absolutely discharged, because at any time at all I choose you may be arrested and brought here to be sentenced. If you conduct yourself properly in future you will hear no more of this case through my law office. You are intelligent, and not the class of boy who would be sent to jail. Your explanation of the crime is very inadequate, but I will let you go on your father's recognition of $400 for your good behavior and delivery for sentence if called upon."

Harry Frank, father of the culprit, was present in court, and gave the $400 bond as directed. Frank, who has been in jail on remand for about a month, was represented at his trial by M. P. McDonagh.

AN ERROR.—Through an error in the report of Wednesday's parade of the Odd Fellows, mention was omitted of the Detroit Oddfellows, who accompanied the Detroit Oddfellows, and Patriarchs Militant of Canton Enterprise, 5 to London. The Detroit Pipe Band was the band that headed the procession and the other bands in line were Sergt. Macdonald's Juvenile Highland Pipes and the G. W. V. A. Band. An excellent program of musical selections was provided at Queen's Park. Sergt. Macdonald's Band and the Detroit Pipes playing before the grandstand, and the war veterans' band providing the music between the various athletic and track events.

RAINS IN ALBERTA.
Calgary, June 17.—General rains all over Southern Alberta during yesterday afternoon greatly relieved the anxiety beginning to be felt by the farmers. In some districts where rain was needed the showers were quite heavy. The crops are in excellent condition.

TOO LATE TO CLASSIFY
WHITLAW-PARSONS.—On Thursday, June 3, 1920, by Rev. H. T. Parsons, Evelyn Florence, only daughter of the late Robert Parsons and Mrs. Parsons, 825 Dundas street, to Albert Henry Whitlaw, manager of Huron and Erie Mortgage Corporation, East London branch.

BRAKES ON RIDOUT CAR FAIL TO HOLD

Jump Tracks At Foot of Horton Street Hill Wednesday Night.

Loaded to capacity, Ridout car No. 44, in charge of Motorman William Hudd, left the rails at the corner of Horton and Ridout street at 11 o'clock Wednesday night, and crashed into the southwest curbing. The cement was broken by the force of the blow. As the night was a wet one, and therefore, the rails were slippery, Hudd was driving slowly as he started down the hill he tried to apply the brakes. Owing to the tracks being wet his efforts to control the speed of the car were unavailing.

Before the bottom of the grade was reached the car had gained considerable speed, and refused to make the turn on to Ridout street. The crowded condition of the car saved all of the 60 passengers from injury. During the whole affair the motorman kept his head.
