OF INTEREST TO WOMEN

ALL HOLLAND REJOICES AT BIRTH OF PRINCESS

THE HAGUE, April 30.—Wilhelmina, Queen of the Netherlands, gave birth to a daughter this morning. The condition of her majesty is most satisfactory. The infant princess is doing well, and Holland is celebrating the happy event from one end of the country to the other, with expressions of joy and gratification such as seldom before have been witnessed on the part of this placid people.

The political significance of the occurrence lies in the fact that there is now an heir to the throne of the Netherlands, a circumstance that very greatly enhances the chances of the country for continued independence.

The queen was married to Prince Henry of Mecklenburg-Schwerin on Feb. 7, 1901. On two previous occasions she has borne a child, but in each case the hopes of the people for an heir to the throne have been disappointed.

Here in the capital, in spite of the heavy downpour of rain, the streets are gaily decorated and great crowds are passing to and fro showing their

SCHOOLS FOR CHURCH USES

Trustee Simpson Objects—Site of Northwest High School.

The property committee of the board of education finally decided yesterday to locate the new northwest high school on top of the hill above the C.P.R. tracks in the neighborhood of St. Clair-avenue.

A communication from Boustead-avenue Presbyterian Church asking that they be allowed to hold services in the old Howard school, excited the indignation of Trustee Simpson. He didn't like the idea of public schools being used as mission houses to build up congregations. The privilege, however, was granted for a consideration of six months.

Nobody has yet made an offer for the technical school site on East Bloor-street. There was only one offer of $10,000 for the purchase of John-street school. It was from A. & L. D. Bartley, architects, and it was refused. The midsummer repairs this year will amount to $2138 for high schools, and $25,726 for public schools.

Don't blame the child, the chances are it can't help it. This treatment also cures adults and aged people troubled with urine difficulties by day or night.

The fire was so rapid that nothing was saved. A small insurance policy was carried. Loss about $3000.

I shan't charge you one penny for the demonstration. I will ask you, if you buy a Chatham, if I prove to you that you need one, and that it will save work and promote cleanliness in your home.

TWO DROWN AT SOUTHAMPTON

Fall From Bridge Into Fast-Flowing Saugeen.

SOUTHAMPTON, April 30.—Samuel Cairns, engineer of the Saugeen Electric Light and Power Co. of Southampton, and Andrew Ruxton of Chippewa Hill, were drowned in the Saugeen River, two miles east of here, this afternoon.

The two men were working on Denny's bridge, and slipped off. The recent rains have made the river very high and the current is very rapid.

Cairns leaves a wife and four children, and Ruxton leaves two sisters, Belle in Berlin, and Annie at Chippewa Hill.

DAMAGE AT THE ISLAND

Not Nearly as Serious as Was Reported Yesterday.

Considering that it was one of the worst storms on the lake in twenty-five years, said J. G. Sting, government engineer, last night, "the damage at the island has been very slight and I am very well satisfied. Only a small crib is really damaged and this was only a temporary construction."

"Miller and Cummings have suffered some, but not to the extent of $100,000 as reported. Such an amount as that is absurd, for their contract is only for $25,000 and it was only a small portion of their breakwater that suffered."

"Our work will be proceeded with as soon as the weather moderates."

The storm hit the eastern portion of the province on Thursday night. Ottawa yesterday had several inches of snow.

As to the proper owner of a blue grey Great Dane dog was a dispute on which Judge Morson reserved judgment. Wm. Fountain, tailor on Adelaide-street, entered action for replevin against Dr. Ogden Winter, a dentist at the corner of Portland and Queen-streets. Mr. Fountain claimed he bought the dog from Dr. D. Scott of Listowel and Whitehead said in the box that while out for a stroll with the dog, Dr. Winter laid a claim to the dog and would not let him go.

Judge Morson finally placed the dog's history to its birth and brought another dog in the court to compare them as brothers. The dog in dispute had names, but would not respond to either.

OTTAWA, April 30.—R. H. Campbell, superintendent of forestry, suggested to the committee on forests and waterways this morning that a belt of land from the Crow's Nest line to the international boundary, and from the British Columbia line fifty miles eastward should be reserved and the cut governed. ## SLAUGHTER AT ADANA TOLD OF BY EYE-WITNESS Missionary Who Saw Outbreak of Massacres Declares That Officials Were Cowardly.

The following account of the disorders at Adana is given by the Rev. Herbert Adams Gibbons, a missionary: "The entire vilayet of Adana has been visited during the past five days by a terrible massacre of Armenians, the worst ever known in the history of the district."

"Conditions have been unsettled for some time and there has been animosity between Turks and Armenians owing to the political activity of the latter and their open purchasing of arms."

"Early last Wednesday morning, while I was in the market, I noticed that the Armenians were closing their shops and hurrying to their homes. An Armenian and Turk had been killed during the night and the two corpses were paraded thru their respective churches as the signs of the dead inflamed the inhabitants and crowds at once began to gather in the streets, armed with sticks, axes and knives. A few young Armenians assembled in the centre of the covered market and began firing revolver shots into the air. By 10 o'clock in the morning the crowd had begun to disperse from the shops."

Cowardly Officials.

"The military commander of Adana was by my side when the firing commenced. He had not the courage to endeavor to disperse the mob; he returned to his residence and did not venture out for two days."

"William Chambers, field secretary of the Young Men's Christian Association, and myself proceeded to the Konak and found a howling mob demanding arms with which to live the Glorious. We then went to the Turkish office to summon the British consul. On the steps of the building we saw three Armenians who had been massacred."

"While we were in the telegraph office a mob burst into the room where we were and killed two Armenians before our eyes. The unfortunate were supplicating the protection of the Vail when they were struck down."

"We managed to make our way into the next room, where we made representations to the Vail. The official said he could do nothing. He was afraid even of his own life and he made no attempt to protect us."

Adana a Hell.

"Adana became a hell. The bazaars were looted and set on fire. There was continuous shooting and killing in every part of the town, and fires raged in many quarters."

"Moslems from the neighborhood began pouring into the city and notwithstanding our vehement protests, the Vail distributed arms to these men, alleging that they were Turkish reserves."

"On Friday the Armenians yielded, since when there has been little murdering."

"Adana is in a pitiable condition. The town has been pillaged and destroyed, and there are thousands of homeless people here without means of livelihood. The corpses lie scattered thru the streets.
