YORK MASONIC HALL, EGLINTON.
—J. W. Siddall, Architect.

The above is a drawing of the new York Masonic Hall, corner of Eglinton-avenue and Yonge-street, which is to be formally opened on the evening of the 21st inst. It is the property of a company who are members of York lodge and is exclusively for Masonic purposes. The structural elements are red brick and Canadian art stone. A full basement underneath is adapted as a furnace room and kitchen. The first or ground floor has a large banquet room, ante rooms and lavatories. On the top floor is the lodge room proper, candidates' members' and cloak rooms. The lodge room is a parallelogram 33 x 41 feet, with high arched ceiling effected by supporting the roof on a series of semicircular ribs starting with the floor line, and thereby accomplishing a great economy of space. The furnishings of this room are as elaborate as any lodge room in Canada, not excepting the far-famed blue room in the Temple Building. In this, too, the color effect is blue, with finest imported English plush upholstery and carpets, and silk drapings for the windows to match. The banquet room beneath is the same size as the lodge room, and may occasionally be used as lodge rooms for kindred societies. Bare of the furnishings the building cost $20,000.

ATTRACTIVE SUBURBS DRAWING THE PEOPLE

Davisville and Eglinton and Riverdale Are Being Rapidly Peopled

There appears to be an exodus this spring to the suburbs. This phase of home-seeking plainly suggests that Toronto is growing. Its limits are broadening and there is no doubt about it that in a few years time the northern part of the city, more properly referred to as Davisville and Eglinton, will expand perceptibly. As is well known, this city is of oblong design, thru which Yonge-street runs north and south and also thru Davisville and Eglinton. In these districts, property is valued at $40 a foot and is worth it, but on streets running east and west across Yonge-street, in this same district, land can be bought at $5 a foot.

Distinct Advantage.
A distinct advantage is the easy access to the city on the Metropolitan cars.

People who live there say they can get to the city limits in five minutes, and if fortunate, can reach the downtown section in another ten. In all, fifteen minutes is a fair standard of the time it takes to get from Davisville or Eglinton into the heart of the city.

Riverdale Section.
Across the Don River is another section of the city that is attracting the people. Excellent locations are being sought there and a whole lot of building is being carried on.

FREIGHT WRECK AT SCHAW.

GALT, May 14.—(Special.)—There was a head-on collision at Schaw Station on the C.P.R. last night, between two freights, and both engines were badly damaged. The crews were unhurt.

The wreck is said to be the fault of the driver failing to deliver a train order. At London—Robert Kirkpatrick, a resident for half a century, aged 77.

NEW ROSEDALE CHURCH FOR PRESBYTERIANS

Carnegie Library at Dundas and Other Large Jobs by Chapman and McGiffin

Architects Chapman and McGiffin have in hand the following work just starting or about to start: Alterations to R. S. Williams Piano Company's store, Yonge-street; Rosedale Presbyterian Church, for which the foundations have been begun; the Carnegie public library, Dundas, Ont., $10,000; residence on Spadina-road for G. A. Chapman, manager of Grenadier Ice Company, $10,000; two semi-detached houses on Poplar Plains-road for G. Long, for $7,000 each; a brick residence for H. C. Schofield, manager of the Guelph branch of the Dominion Bank, Guelph, $2,000. Eustace G. Bird, architect, let the contract yesterday for a new bank and office building in Winnipeg, owned by the Royal Bank. It will be much the same style of building as the new Royal Bank on East King-street, with Italian marble exterior, gorgeously carved and fitted. The cost is about $200,000. Nucross Bros. of Boston have the general contract. The same architect designed and supervised the banking room of the new Dominion Bank at Hamilton, which has just been moved into. The interior finish of this building is considered as fine as anything of like proportion in Canada, displaying an abundance of foreign marbles, mahogany counters and bronze grill and metallic work, executed by the Canada Foundry Company of Toronto. The new Dominion branch bank in Windsor, which is just completed, is also one of Mr. Bird's creations and makes the finest corner in Windsor.

SON BORN IN STATION

Coming to Canada with her husband, his mother and father, who will take up a farm, Mrs. Emma Van Amburg of French River, Minnesota, gave birth to a bouncing 10-pound boy at one of the stations en route early yesterday morning. The urged to remain over, Mrs. Van Amburg pluckily continued her journey and reached Toronto. She was attended by a physician in the ladies' waiting room of the Union Station and was afterwards taken to a rooming house.

The husband, Charles Van Amburg, was delighted with the news, and he went into ecstasies over his future home. "People on the other side," he said, "talk about God's country, here it is. I never saw such fine farms before." He was glad his first son was Canadian born.

Socialists Show Strength.
WELLINGTON, N.Z., May 14.—(Special.)—The Socialists and single-taxers showed much bitter opposition at a large meeting, preventing the carrying of a resolution in favor of compulsory military training.

TRUE PROPHETIC POWER THAT LIFTS THOUSANDS

'Tis Gipsy Smith's Early Life That Binds Him to Galilean Gospel of Open Air.

Only the pure in heart can break up the bread of life as Gipsy Smith has broken it for the thronging thousands in Massey Hall during this week. Last night the depth of reverence, the profound earnestness, the fatherless tenderness of his appeal surpassed that of any previous evening, and the great audience, scarcely diminished by the wet weather, yielded its tithes to the garner of the Lord. No one can say just what it is that makes Gipsy Smith differ from all other modern evangelists. His early life has much to do with it. It binds him to the stern but sweet simplicity of the Galilean gospel of the open air. As you listen to him, by some strange magic, modern civilization loses its reality. It ceases to be necessary. Its pleasures and its ambitions, its toils and its achievements cease to possess importance. He commences with the eternal ages. He seeks, like Amos, Him who maketh the seven stars and Orion, and turneth the shadow of death into morning. It is the true prophetic power only that can lift these thousands of people out of their own age and circumstances and give them the vision of the Lamb slain from the foundation of the world. He is but a gipsy boy, but in the deep heart of him flows the mystic stream that joins him with the Faithful and True.

SON BORN IN STATION

Coming to Canada with her husband, his mother and father, who will take up a farm, Mrs. Emma Van Amburg of French River, Minnesota, gave birth to a bouncing 10-pound boy at one of the stations en route early yesterday morning. The urged to remain over, Mrs. Van Amburg pluckily continued her journey and reached Toronto. She was attended by a physician in the ladies' waiting room of the Union Station and was afterwards taken to a rooming house.

The husband, Charles Van Amburg, was delighted with the news, and he went into ecstasies over his future home. "People on the other side," he said, "talk about God's country, here it is. I never saw such fine farms before." He was glad his first son was Canadian born.

What soul of the souls has returned like Elijah from the realms of the sun to be the once more the herald of his Lord? Of the Christ who died for me, Sing it with the saints in glory Gathered by the crystal sea.

Yes, I'll sing the wondrous story, Of the Christ who died for me, Sing it with the saints in glory Gathered by the crystal sea.

Welsh Choir Assistants. So he sang last night while the Welsh choir of the Welsh Sunday School in Bathurst-street, joined in softest chorus. This was the hymn that meant so much in the Welsh revival, and they followed it with Bryan Calvars and the stirring "Aberystwith," all from Gipsy Smith's supplement to "Hallowed Hymns."

Then he sang as a solo "Over the River Faces I See," the hymn made familiar by C. M. Alexander. Nothing could excel the melting sweetness of his voice as he slowly repeated the verse of Wats' glorious hymn, "See From His love His hands, His feet, sorrow and low flow mingled down." The charm of his presence, his graceful and striking and uncountable gestures, added to his speech and song never pall. The emanations of an abounding charity visit every heart as he speaks and sings.

Last night he turned once more to the text of the previous evening, Mark v. 30. "I wish to talk about the woman who suffered many things of many physicians and who was nothing better and the growing worse, but then Luke leaves that bit out about the doctors and the growing worse, but then Luke was a doctor himself. Mark has no scruples."

In some such way Gipsy Smith always gets on good terms with his audience in the beginning, and before they know he has captured their sympathies.

Treatment of Sin. He went on to speak of the hellish and damning character of sin. "Your disease, my friend, sin-sin, can only be dealt with by infinite fingers. The sooner you face that truth and the sooner you believe it, the sooner you will get deliverance from it. "I can write your name down in a church register, but it takes the Holy Ghost to make you a child of God. This Book won't do it. You say, I've read it; I've gone thru it. "I wish you'd let it go thru you. It is not this moon or this Book that can heal you.—None but Jesus will do. "When you want to get rid of sin you must come God's way. That's a poor lost sinner at the foot of the cross. "You don't need me. Go into your own room. Turn the key and get down on your knees humbly before God and have a definite interview with Jesus."

pel gives another than hope," said Gipsy Smith. "Somebody's got to be a Jesus Christ to those poor creatures. They will believe in you as a little bit of Jesus Christ till they find Him. They hang on to you, is that irreverent? That's the power. That's the light that illumines. That's the salt that sweetens."

There will be no services to-day. This is Gipsy Smith's rest day. He will have three services to-morrow. At 2.30, women only will be admitted. At 3.30, men only will get entrance. In the evening the doors will be opened at 7.15. As soon as the hall is filled the service will begin. It is announced for 8 o'clock, but those who come after 7.15 are not likely to get in.

FELL FROM SCAFFOLD

Fatal Ending to the Recent Dupont Street Accident.

Donald McKay, the young carpenter, who fell twelve feet from a scaffold on Dupont-street, succumbed to internal injuries yesterday. At the time of the accident he was taken to the Western Hospital. He had no relatives in Canada, and boarded at Mrs. Dickson's, Simcoe-street. He came from Scotland two years ago. The funeral will take place this afternoon from D. B. Humphrey's to St. James' Cemetery.

I. P. B. S. Meeting.

At the monthly meeting of the Irish Protestant Benevolent Society last night, President George B. Sweetnam in the chair, the photo of the late S. E. Windrum, a former president of the society, was added to the collection of past presidents. Seven new members were elected.

One Fruit of Local Option.

GRIMSBY, May 14.—Summonses have been issued by Magistrate Kidd for the appearance of three men, who are believed to be selling liquor illegally. The wet stuff has been brought in here in such quantities lately by men who come down from Hamilton, that decent citizens are disgusted with the present state of affairs, and the fighting and nightly carousing on the streets.

Grace Fayne II's Homestead, a Holstein-Friesian cow valued at $800, is owned by Harvey A. Moyer's farm, just north of Syracuse, N.Y. The animal died from pneumonia. She was heavily insured.

The "devil car," propelled by a steel mannikin, in which President Grant and King Edward rode, and which scared western Indians into submission, is to contest with a modern automobile.

OMINOUS RESOLUTIONS BUT STRIKE COLLAPSING

Representatives of Workmen's Organizations Promise Postmen Support "to the Death"

PARIS, May 14.—The striking postal employees at a meeting this afternoon adopted resolutions appealing to the workmen's organizations to make common cause with them. The meeting was attended by M. Faudat, secretary of the electrical union; M. Guerdard of the railroad men's organization, and other representatives of the workmen, who delivered inflammatory speeches, promised the postal employees immediate support, and threatened, if necessary, to place themselves under the direction of the revolutionary general federation of labor.

The resolution as passed pledged that the postal employees and the workmen's organizations would unite for a battle to the death "in order to obtain liberty of thought and speech and the right for all employees of the state to form syndicates."

These threats produced a big scare, but there is a strong suspicion here that the leaders in the movement are bluffing. The strike of the postmen itself apparently has lost ground. The rank and file of the men seemingly are convinced that the agitators are acting for their personal ends and as the tools of revolutionary proletarian organization, and they hesitate to lose their permanent situations and pensions. At Chartres and Dijon today the strikers, in view of the attitude taken by parliament in connection with the strike, voted to return to work.

The government officials here continue to express confidence that the losing movement is collapsing. It is pointed out by them that only 48,000 out of the 300,000 railroad men whose support was pledged the strikers today by M. Guerdard belong to the union and that these members are mostly trackmen and artisans employed in the shops. It is reported to-night that the strikers in their desperation again are cutting the telegraph wires in Paris and the provinces.

A Pleasant Surprise.

NORTH BAY, May 14.—(Special.)—The quiet marriage on May 1 in Montreal of Duncan McIntyre Ferguson, son of John Ferguson, a leading citizen of North Bay, and Margaret Catherine Brady, eldest daughter of F. P. Brady, intercolonial railway commissioner, formerly general superintendent of Lake Superior division C.P.R., is announced.
