A Rainy Afternoon and Only a Small Crowd for the Opening Game Over the Don. Other Games in the Eastern and National Leagues—Many Matches Arranged for the Coming Season.

Rochester, N. Y., May 14.—Rochester tried three pitchers to-day and all of them were hit freely by the Canadians. The home team played poor ball, too, nearly every error resulting in a run or two, and the visitors were easy winners. McFate's work was a feature. Score:

HAMS WIN BY 4 TO 1.

The Canadian League season was opened rather inauspiciously over the Don yesterday afternoon. A heavy shower between 3 and 4 made it look like no game, and what might have been a big crowd dwindled down to seven or eight hundred. They survived through a game that seemed to drag after the first innings. Cochrane handed up nasty curves with plenty of speed. He was well supported by Sherry.

You can see for yourself—if you take the trouble to notice it, that a jority of the bicycles in use are equipped with

THE HAROLD A. WILSON CO.
85 King-st West, Toronto.

Conwell, Toronto's total stick work amounted to a brace of singles, both by the other trifier. Indeed, he made the locals look like a very poor lot of batsmen, and many were of the opinion that Charlie Madden must struggle up or his troubles will not end here.

The home set up the better game, both at the bat and in the field, and deserved their victory, although it looked at times as if the visitors were with them. The visitors seemed to enjoy the game more than the home team, and were particularly noticeable after old Mar Phillips sent in the first run with a long fly to right field.

It was a typical Hamilton team, and several of them resembled one of Mickey Jones, when he used to sport the old first-blue uniform of the Prins. They fielded sharply, and had a clean record up to the ninth, when H. T. Roberts got rattled in left field and let a couple of easy ones go by, and Harry got around on these misplays and his hit over Rodden's head.

Downs was replaced by Blakie at first owing to a sore hand. Gun was not hitting sufficiently hard, and McDermott batted for him in the eighth. There was lots of hitting at the defenceless-looking umpire, especially in the eighth, when he declared Shepherd out at third plate. Due rushed at the official in belligerent style, and only hustled him, leaving the blonde-headed Lyons to land slightly on Randall's chin, just to show that they were hitting a little. Score:

complain of the work of Umpire Jack Sheridan and asking that he be placed somewhere else. There was considerable dissatisfaction on both sides at his work in Monday's game with New York and President Freeman is also said to have complained to Young.

The 12 National League clubs have 83 pitchers under contract. New York and Washington have the most, with eight each. The Brooklyn, Philadelphia and Cleveland have eight each; Chicago and Louisville seven each; Pittsburgh and Baltimore six each, and Cincinnati and St. Louis five each.

Toronto has representative teams in the Eastern and Canadian leagues, and it is not true that they occupy the unenviable positions at the tail end of each. Rodden was presented with a magnificent basket of roses his first time at bat.

Capt. Strowger firmly believes that Randall is incapable, and will endeavor to have another official to-day. Rochester scored the three runs that won from Toronto on Thursday after two men were out and Lush was in the tying run.

President Hickey of the Western Association has given Umpire McLaughlin his release and has appointed Joe Vianer of Rockford, an old Eastern League player, to fill the vacancy.

The Toronto team is made up almost entirely of players strange to these parts. Billy Lush is trying to bat left-handed, but true that they occupy the unenviable positions at the tail end of each. Rodden was presented with a magnificent basket of roses his first time at bat.

He received a vigorous round of applause when he took his first turn at the bat yesterday afternoon—Rochester being the victor.
