At last night's meeting of the board of education a handsome case of silver ware was presented to Trustee W. Dineen, in recognition of Mr. Houston's past services. In making the presenta tion Trustee Dineen paid a high tribute to Mr. Houston, saying that he did no: know of any chairman who had paid greater attention to the business of the board, or who had shown greate: courtesy to the members.

In returning thanks, Mr. Houston said he had only tried to do his duty, which had always been to facilitate the duties of the board, in every possible manner. "There are very few people in Toronto," said Mr. Houston, "who appreciate the magnitute of this board or our great trust. We have the most important trust in the city, even the

Mr. Castle requested that Chief In-spector Cowley be allowed to act on the board of directors of the bank. He also asked that a circular, a copy of which had been sent on to the board, be placed before all the children. Mr. Angus MacMurchy, K.C., one of the directors, stated that the bank has now deposited $350,000 with the govroment, $200,000 of which comes from Toronto, and that it is the intention to cottain, if possible, deposits of one million dollars before the war is over from the school children of Toronto. The circular asks the children to save, pointing out that the money will be used to help in the great war. A resolution moved by Trust, Edmunds was adopted to the effect that the board places itself on record as approving of Inspector Cowley's acting as director ernment, $200,000 of which comes from Inspector Cowley's acting as director for the Penny Bank.

penetrating the German trenches in the Champagne and in taking back prisoners. A French operation of the same sort at a point fifteen miles northwest of Soissons, penetrated deep into the German second line. The attackers did heavy damage to the enemy defensive system. The German artillery heavily shelled the French in the Champagne and on the Meuse. In the regions of Hardaumont and Vaux the artillery of both sides fought quite an active engagement.

In the air the machines of the allies harassed the Carman machines. By night the British squadrons dropped bombs on many places of military mportance behind the front of the enemy. In air fighting their aeroplanes destroyed one German machine and drove down two others damaged to the ground, but the British had one of their craft brought down. Two British machines are also missing. French special guns fired on and brought down German machine near Beaumont on the Meuse.

Major-General Maurice on his return from a visit to the British front, yesterday said that in raids since the first of this year, the British have captured ground on the Ancre front of a depth of three-quarters of a mile and a breadth of more than five miles. The carrying out of these successful raids had an important bearing on the morale of both the British and the Germans. The British became more confident, more dashing, or as a Canadian colonel described his men, quite chesty. The Germans became more depressed, more disposed to avoid the constant worry of their front

On the Rumanian front the coming of milder weather is permitting patrol activity. Imitating their frightfulness at Rheims, Arras and Dunkirk, the Germans have brought up heavy guns to within range of Galatz and they are firing shells in the direction of the town. Berlin officially describes this action as the shelling of the fort and military establishments

On the front north of Salonica the Italians decided the action begun by a German attack on Hill 1050, east of Paralovo, entirely in their favor, by recapturing all their lost trenches. The Germans later delivered counter-attack, but the Italians repulsed it. The fighting inflicted large losses on the enemy. Artillery activity prevails on the remainder of the front north of Salonica.

In an attack on the Russian lines, near Tarnopol, in Galicia. east of Lemberg, the Germans claim that they advanced 100 yards and took 281 prisoners. The Russians also record this combat and when their report is considered, the fight appears as a draw. The significant fact is that of the enemy only Germans nowadays do the attacking that proceeds at almost any point of the 3,000 miles front. The Austrians, Bulgarians and Turks, it seems, have little fight left in them, especially of the offensive variety. Austria-Hungary, Bulgaria and Turkey, in fact, have already advanced far on the road to exhaustion.

The chief item of interest was the clection of officers for the ensuing year, which resulted as follows: Pres., Jas. Torrance, vice-pres., A. M. Milne, Harry Wright, R. A. Fleming; secy.-treas R.

Among the speakers of the evening were George S. Henry, M.L.A., and J. R. MacNichol and W. A. Robinson. The first named speaker eulogized the work of the Hearst government and declared that there was a great deal to do at the coming session to prepare plans for the placing of soidiers on the land. Mr. MacNichol in his remarks declared that he was strongly opposed to national government, and he was corroborated by W. A. Robinson who went even further and said that in the event of a national government being formed it should include Dr. Michael Clark. A resolution was passed by the meeting declaring that they were of patent medicines as well as many diseases of the vital organs, were directly traccable to a deranged condition of the stomach which in turn was due nine times out of ten to excessive ccidity, commonly termed sour stomach or heartburn, which not only irritated and inflamed the delicate lining of the stomach, but also set up gastritis and efomach ulcers. Dr. Sugden's Lecture Proves Illuminating Description of Land of the North.

Perhaps the most interesting and instructive address, Illustrated by moving pictures, that has been delivered in Toronto, was presented to a fairl ylarge audience by Dr. Leonard S. Sister-in-Law Receives Joyful Sugden, in his "Lure of Alaska," at Massey Hall last night. Many of the old ideas that we of southern Canada have always associated with the great northlands of the Yukon and Aleskan wilds, were dispelled by Dr. Sugden, who has lived 17 years in those regions that have jured hundreds of adventures to feature and dreds of adventurers to fortune and death. The pictures represent the highest form of the photographic art and the many scenes, particularly artistic beauty. The auditor is taken along the great stretch of the mainland, on the coast to over one thousand miles north from to over one thousand miles north from Seattle. In this are seem great shoals of salmon leaping and throwing themselves over the cascades. Huge mountains of ice are met, which part and form icebergs. The flourishing town of Skagway is next met, where the only jitney is the dog-drawn sleigh. From this city runs the narrow gauge railway from which the row gauge railway, from which the finest scenery in the world, in the opinion of the lecturer, is seen. Thru Klondyke and the gold sources of the Yukon River, one is impressed with the advanced habitation and the methods employed to obtain gold.

W. S. Wickham, a former resident of Earlscourt, who purchased a one hundred acre farm at Dunnville, Ont., about two years ago, has returned to the district, having sold his property. His brother, Ptc. E. L. Wickham, Canadian Overseas Forces, is now on his way to France.

| Belief that there was nothing but bizzards to be met with in the horthern region. "Why," he declared; "we have sometimes a temperature of more than 90 degrees in the shade in the summer. I have seen more furs in the city of New York in June and July than I have all of my 17 years in Alastic France. I walked for fifteen miles on a meadow and every time I lay down my foot I crushed a strawberry. We have all varieties of fruits, flowers and regetables." The scenes of the wild gold rush to Klondyke were described by the speaker, and the hardships experienced in a mad desire for gold graphically told. Inland over the glaciers. ### ACID STOMACHS ARE DANGEROUS

Nine-tenths of Ali Stomach Trouble Said to Be Due to Acidity.

Physician's Advice on Cause and Cure A famous physician whose successful of patent medicines as well as medical treatment for the stomach, stating that of patent medicines as woll as medical treatment for the stomach, stating that he and his colleagues have secured remerkable restits by the use of ordinary obsurated magnesia, which by neutralizing the acidity of the food, removes the source of the trouble. He contends that it is as foolish to treat the stomach itself as it would be for a man who stepped on a tack to rub liminent on the foot without first removing the tack. Remove the tack and the foot will heal itself—neutralize the acid and the stomach troubles will disappear. Irritating medicines and medical treatments are useless, so long as the contents of the stomach remain acid; remove the acidity, and there will be no need for medicine—the inflamed lining of the stomach will then heal itself. Sufferers from acidity, sour stomach or heartburn should get a small bottle of bisurated magnesia from their drargist, and take a traspocnful in a quarter of a glass of hot or cold water after meals, repeating in fifteen minutes, if necessary, this being the dose which the doctor has found most efficacious in all cases.
