

PREFACE.

—o—

In presenting this work to the public the compiler wishes to state that the object which he trusts he has attained is to provide a work which will prove not only useful but interesting, and that every exertion in his power has been made to render it full, complete and reliable; and though, from the variety of sources from which it was necessary to obtain the required information, and the impossibility of avoiding all errors in a work of this description, inaccuracies may be found, especially in the orthography of surnames. The Publisher trusts that as few mistakes will be discovered in this work as in any other of the same character, and that it will deserve the approbation of its patrons.

The publisher deems it his duty to return his sincere thanks to those who have so liberally patronized the undertaking, not only in a pecuniary sense, but also by providing information of the greatest value, and for the universal courtesy and kindness experienced during the canvas of the County. A deep sense prompts him to particularize H. J. Macdonell, Esq., Whitby; A Horsman, Esq., Uxbridge: the Clerks of the various municipalities, and the Editors throughout the County.
