

Into the Dark Corners

Let the spirit of cleanliness—which means Sunlight Soap—penetrate everywhere with its magical powers for making everything clean and sweet. There is no cleanser so universally used—so well liked—so completely trusted as with its $5,000 guarantee of purity.

Sunlight Soap

Made by
Lever Brothers, Limited,
in Canada.

COBOURG.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. C. Coe came down from Toronto to visit Mrs. Coe's sister, Miss Harve.

Dr. and Mrs. Carveth, Toronto, spent a few days with friends here.

Miss Ethel MacNorton, New York City, is holding at the home of her father, Lieut.-Col. Neil F. MacNorton, C.V.O.

Mrs. R. Robinson and son have returned to Toronto after spending six weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Roberts, Graton.

Miss Morden, Toronto, is visiting her sister, Mrs. W. L. Corbett.

Mr. Hector Henderson, Hamilton, is spending his holidays at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Henderson, Toronto. He is accompanied by his daughter, Miss Muriel Henderson, who is a student at the Metropolitan College, Toronto. He is also accompanied by his sister, Miss Muriel Henderson, who is a student at the Metropolitan College, Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Oiler have returned after a pleasant holiday at Lake George.

Mrs. A. M. Davis and Miss Davis, Toronto, visited the former's son, who is a patient at the military hospital here.

Crown Attorney W. P. Kerr is enjoying a pleasant holiday at Boston and other cities.

Miss Beattie Twine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Twine, Toronto, is spending a few weeks' holidays with friends here.

Miss Ella Smith, Toronto, is staying with friends here.

Senator Clive Pringle of Ottawa is spending a few days with his family at their summer home.

About thirty-five of the boy scouts of St. Peter's Church, accompanied by the rector, Mr. P. J. Savers, Mr. John Dick and Mr. W. S. Johnston have been camping near Cobourg.

VICTORIA BEACH.

Mrs. W. Colling, Belleville, and Mrs. E. Colling and little son, Toronto, are staying with Mrs. E. Cox at Lakeside Farm.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacques and Mr. and Mrs. Kelly of Toronto and a party from Dundonald were guests during the week of Mr. and Mrs. Levi Dudgey.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Grass and party have opened up J. C. Oyle's cottage.

Mrs. Jas. Yonson and son Paul, Toronto, are staying with Mr. and Mrs. J. Lemon.

Mrs. J. W. Langmuir, Toronto, is visiting her aunt, Miss McTavish, at Belleville.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. M. Christie of Winnipeg were with Mrs. McTavish for a few days also.

Dr. and Mrs. J. H. C. Willoughby, Misses Helen and Clarice Willoughby, and Master Harold, Toronto, were guests recently of Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Webb at Longprence.

Niagara-on-the-Lake. Mr. and Mrs. Moseow Boyd are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Thomas.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hughes spent the week-end at the Queen's Royal.

Mrs. William Sizer entertained a few friends at tea on Saturday afternoon at her country house. The guests included Mrs. George Mitchell, Mrs. Coffin Van Rensselaer, Mrs. Alfred Wignmore, Mrs. A. J. Wright, Mrs. S. H. Thompson, Mrs. D. Croton, Mrs. Thomas Forwood, Miss Helen White.

Mrs. C. S. Schofield and Miss Schofield spent the week-end here.

Mrs. George Mitchell was in town on Monday.

Miss Hoskin and Miss Maud Gagen are the guests of Mrs. S. H. Thompson at the Queen's Royal. Mrs. Thompson and her guests and Mrs. Coffin Van Rensselaer motored to Buffalo on Monday to play golf at the Country Club.

Mrs. Thomas Forwood was in Toronto on Monday.

Mr. Leo Sullivan was entertained by the Cheltenham Musical Club (Philadelphia) last week in Atlantic City. The evening commenced with a bath-party. Hawaiian music was furnished for dancing on the strand. The president, Mrs. Nan Altmeir, was

Society—Conducted by Mrs. Edmund Phillips

His Excellency the Duke of Devonshire, attended by Col. the Hon. Harold Henderson and two of his A.D.C.'s, will arrive at Government House on Monday morning and will be the guest of His Honor the Lt.-Gov. and Lady Hendrie during his stay in Toronto. He will honor the president and directors of the Canadian National Exhibition by lunching with them at the Exhibition at 1:30 o'clock, and will open the Exhibition at 2:30 o'clock, afterwards inspecting some of the buildings, and will present the Victoria Cross for His Majesty the King to Mr. J. J. Sifton on behalf of his son, the late Sergeant Sifton, and also the Carnegie medal to Mrs. Allen Fraser, Paris, Ont., in front of the grand stand. In the evening there will be a dinner at Government House. On Tuesday afternoon his excellency will visit the art gallery to see the French and Italian pictures, afterwards inspecting the Boy Scouts in front of the grand stand, and will be present at the performance in the evening.

General MacDoughall, Ottawa, spent a few days in Toronto.

Lieutenant-Colonel D. King Smith and Mr. George C. Follows were in Halifax en route to England.

Miss Helen Fotheringham, daughter of General Fotheringham, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Acland in Ottawa.

The Earl of Airlie, who was recently married to the Lady Bridget Coke, rode to his wedding on horseback, the first instance of this at a fashionable wedding in London for over a century.

M. Poincaré, French minister of war, gave a luncheon in Paris in honor of Brig.-General Lord Brooke and the members of the Canadian Mission. M. Ribot, the prime minister, was also present.

Sir George Bury, vice-president of the O.P.R., was accompanied by his wife and daughter on his inspection trip to Detroit. They also inspected the Royal Flying Corps at Leaside and Armour Heights and visited the Davielville Military Hospital for Wounded Soldiers.

Lord Leconfield some time ago placed his beautiful London house, 3 Chesterfield Gardens, Mayfair, W., at the disposal of the government. This is to be fitted up as a club for American military and naval officers now that the United States has entered the war.

Col. Levesconte has returned from Rochester, where he was assisting the officers of the New York staff with its mobilization. He has now left for Huntsville to join his family.

Miss Mildred MacKinnon is visiting her sister, Mrs. J. H. Coleman, in Naperville, and will be the guest of Mrs. S. F. Kirkpatrick in Kingston.

Lady Rose and her sister, Miss Daisy Peel, are in California.

A party composed of Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Reid, Mr. and Mrs. James Bain, Miss Bain and Miss MacDoughall, have been in Ottawa and have left for the Nikobu Club, near Pembroke.

Miss Kathleen Burke, representative of the Scottish Women's Hospital, has returned to Ottawa after a successful campaign through western Canada. She is accompanied by Miss Florence Harvey, secretary of the Ladies' Guild Union of Canada, who assisted her on her recent trip. It is expected that Miss Burke will return to Ottawa this autumn and address the Women's Canadian Club on the Scottish Women's Hospitals.

Mrs. R. S. Wilson returned last week from a holiday spent at the Caledon Club.

Mr. and Mrs. Ian Bond and their family are spending the summer in Muskoka, having taken a house there.

Miss Margaret De Costa is visiting Mrs. Turner at her house on Lake Rousseau.

The engagement is announced in England of Mr. W. E. O. Leitch, P.A.M.C., son of Mr. and Mrs. Craven O'Leitch, Toronto, to Miss Vera De Perinetti, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. De Perinetti, Baslow, Derby.

Mr. R. McEwen, Lanark, Ont. (recently City View), announces the engagement of his youngest daughter, Olive Sinkler, to Mr. Victor S. Livingston, Toronto, second son of Mr. and Mrs. John Livingston, Ottawa. The marriage will take place in September.

Mrs. Charles O'Connor, Ottawa, and her son, Mr. Charles O'Connor, C.E.F., are spending the summer at the Wa-Hotel, Lake of Bays.

Mr. W. J. Hammond has arrived from Winnipeg to join Mrs. Hammond. After spending a few weeks in town, they will return to their home in California.

Mrs. Darley Livingstone, the American wife of a British officer, was the only woman among the six official representatives of Great Britain at a recent Anglo-German conference at the Hague. Her task was to assist Sir Robert Younger, the chairman of the committee, with information re British prisoners of war in German camps. She has been for two years secretary of the government committee on the treatment of the enemy's prisoners, and personal interviews with exchanged sick, wounded and escaped men have given her considerable insight and a volume of facts. A commentator of the proceedings at which that, including the Dutch diplomat, who presided, there were exactly thirteen round the conference table.

Mrs. W. A. MacLachlan, Ottawa, is expected in town tomorrow to join Miss Maida MacLachlan, who has been spending some weeks in town.

Lady Moss is visiting Mr. E. A. Lash, K.C., at his country house on the Georgian Bay.

Mrs. Foster and Miss Foster, Montreal, have arrived in town and are visiting Mrs. W. W. Pope in Bedford road.

The engagement is announced of Mrs. Stoen, widow of the late Mr. Charles Stoen, to Major H. St. John Montisambert, Vancouver, son of Dr. and Mrs. Montisambert, Ottawa.

Miss Nan Huston, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Wm. Theodore Carrington, Santa Barbara, California, for the last six months, has returned home.

Col. and Mrs. Ward and the Misses Ward, Coburg, will spend the week-end with Gen. Sir Henry and Lady Pellatt at their country house at Lake Marie, where they have also spent a party. They will be at Casa Loma for the Boyd-Morrison wedding.

Mrs. Burrows and her children are with the former's mother, Mrs. Leacock, on Lake Simcoe.

Mrs. Letecque Des Brisay and Miss Des Brisay are visiting Mrs. Des Brisay at the Grange, Jackson's Point.

Mrs. MacDoughall, Sussex Court, is visiting Mrs. Young, at Chemong Park.

Mrs. Stanley Banks is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Robert Gay.

Mr. and Mrs. Fane Sewell, who have been staying with friends at Eagle's Cross, after having spent part of their holiday at the Royal Muskoka, have returned to town.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Daniel have rented their house in South Parkdale to Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Murdoch (formerly Hamilton), and have taken an apartment at 324 St. George street (telephone Hillcrest 1715). Mr. Murdoch, R.F.C., is at Camp Mohawk, Deseronto.

Mrs. A. G. Garner and Mrs. H. H. MacFadyen are at the Queen's Royal, Niagara-on-the-Lake.

Miss Marion Towers, Midland, is visiting Miss Phyllis Phipps, and will accompany her to Niagara, where they will spend the week-end.

Mr. Hartley Dewar, K.C., left for Ottawa on Wednesday.

Mrs. William Macpherson, Niagara-on-the-Lake, gave a dinner party in honor of her guests, Mr. and Mrs. Duncan Coulson (Toronto) and Mr. and Mrs. MacLaren, who are returning to Toronto after having spent a few days at the Hotel Robson, Niagara.

Miss Chaucery Toque was in town yesterday from Jackson's Point on university business.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Lynde are in New York, and will return to town the beginning of the week.

Miss Sidney Pepler is staying with Mrs. Wadsworth on Lake Rosseau.

Mr. Allan, the Rectory, Whitby, and his young daughter, are staying with Miss Sibbald at the Briars, Jackson's Point.

A very enjoyable evening was spent at Morinus on Aug. 10, when the Morinus House entertained its guests and those from Thorold House at an informal dance and euchre party. The rounds, where were played, also the large ball-cards, were beautiful with ferns and flowers. A feature of the evening was the recitation by Miss Hynes of the same play. A vote of thanks was tendered to the management of the Morinus House for the very happy evening.

Mrs. Fred R. Pike, wife of Pay-Sergt. Fred Pike, now overseas, arranged a very large and successful dance, which was held at Vanant Point Hotel, Sparrow Lake, in aid of the Red Cross Society. The amount realized was the sum of $50.

After a six weeks' holiday and business trip in New York, Mrs. M. A. Trevelick, director of dramatic art at the Canadian Academy of Music, has returned to Toronto full of plans for the coming season, and enthusiastic over the outlook.

The engagement is announced of Marion MacLaren, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Stevenson, 574 Queen street, to Mr. Henry Pratt, of Toronto. The marriage is to take place in September.

Mr. and Mrs. William Eastbury, 189 Dupont street, announce the engagement of their only daughter, Edith May, to Mr. George John Koudits, a student of the law, who will be married in September.

The choir of Timothy Eaton Memorial Church, which is reorganizing for the fall and winter months, has vacancies for a few more choristers in each of the four parts, male voices being particularly required. The membership now stands at 85, and the 100 mark is aimed at. The choir is under the direction of Mr. Dalton Baker, who was formerly organist and choristmaster of St. Mary Magdalene's, Munster square, and of His Majesty's Guards' Chapel, both of London, Eng. Applications should be made by letter to Timothy Eaton Memorial Church, St. Clair avenue, or the choirmaster, who will be interviewed after either of the Sunday services.

TURCOTT-THOMPSON.

Recently a pretty marriage took place in the Church of the Sacred Heart, when Lillian, only daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Thompson, Dan Turcotte, was married to Mr. and Mrs. Thompson. The bride wore a charming frock of white satin and lace, with a large white hat of silk. She carried a bouquet of white roses. The bridesmaids wore white dresses and carried bouquets of white roses. The ceremony was conducted by Rev. Father O'Riordan. A reception was held at the bride's home, near the west-end point, the bride wearing a suit of Belgian blue poplin and Panama hat. They will reside near Tweed.

Recently a pretty marriage took place in the Church of the Sacred Heart, when Lillian, only daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Thompson, Dan Turcotte, was married to Mr. and Mrs. Thompson. The bride wore a charming frock of white satin and lace, with a large white hat of silk. She carried a bouquet of white roses. The bridesmaids wore white dresses and carried bouquets of white roses. The ceremony was conducted by Rev. Father O'Riordan. A reception was held at the bride's home, near the west-end point, the bride wearing a suit of Belgian blue poplin and Panama hat. They will reside near Tweed.

Recently a pretty marriage took place in the Church of the Sacred Heart, when Lillian, only daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Thompson, Dan Turcotte, was married to Mr. and Mrs. Thompson. The bride wore a charming frock of white satin and lace, with a large white hat of silk. She carried a bouquet of white roses. The bridesmaids wore white dresses and carried bouquets of white roses. The ceremony was conducted by Rev. Father O'Riordan. A reception was held at the bride's home, near the west-end point, the bride wearing a suit of Belgian blue poplin and Panama hat. They will reside near Tweed.

Recently a pretty marriage took place in the Church of the Sacred Heart, when Lillian, only daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Thompson, Dan Turcotte, was married to Mr. and Mrs. Thompson. The bride wore a charming frock of white satin and lace, with a large white hat of silk. She carried a bouquet of white roses. The bridesmaids wore white dresses and carried bouquets of white roses. The ceremony was conducted by Rev. Father O'Riordan. A reception was held at the bride's home, near the west-end point, the bride wearing a suit of Belgian blue poplin and Panama hat. They will reside near Tweed.

Recently a pretty marriage took place in the Church of the Sacred Heart, when Lillian, only daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Thompson, Dan Turcotte, was married to Mr. and Mrs. Thompson. The bride wore a charming frock of white satin and lace, with a large white hat of silk. She carried a bouquet of white roses. The bridesmaids wore white dresses and carried bouquets of white roses. The ceremony was conducted by Rev. Father O'Riordan. A reception was held at the bride's home, near the west-end point, the bride wearing a suit of Belgian blue poplin and Panama hat. They will reside near Tweed.

Recently a pretty marriage took place in the Church of the Sacred Heart, when Lillian, only daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Thompson, Dan Turcotte, was married to Mr. and Mrs. Thompson. The bride wore a charming frock of white satin and lace, with a large white hat of silk. She carried a bouquet of white roses. The bridesmaids wore white dresses and carried bouquets of white roses. The ceremony was conducted by Rev. Father O'Riordan. A reception was held at the bride's home, near the west-end point, the bride wearing a suit of Belgian blue poplin and Panama hat. They will reside near Tweed.

Recently a pretty marriage took place in the Church of the Sacred Heart, when Lillian, only daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Thompson, Dan Turcotte, was married to Mr. and Mrs. Thompson. The bride wore a charming frock of white satin and lace, with a large white hat of silk. She carried a bouquet of white roses. The bridesmaids wore white dresses and carried bouquets of white roses. The ceremony was conducted by Rev. Father O'Riordan. A reception was held at the bride's home, near the west-end point, the bride wearing a suit of Belgian blue poplin and Panama hat. They will reside near Tweed.

Recently a pretty marriage took place in the Church of the Sacred Heart, when Lillian, only daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Thompson, Dan Turcotte, was married to Mr. and Mrs. Thompson. The bride wore a charming frock of white satin and lace, with a large white hat of silk. She carried a bouquet of white roses. The bridesmaids wore white dresses and carried bouquets of white roses. The ceremony was conducted by Rev. Father O'Riordan. A reception was held at the bride's home, near the west-end point, the bride wearing a suit of Belgian blue poplin and Panama hat. They will reside near Tweed.

Recently a pretty marriage took place in the Church of the Sacred Heart, when Lillian, only daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Thompson, Dan Turcotte, was married to Mr. and Mrs. Thompson. The bride wore a charming frock of white satin and lace, with a large white hat of silk. She carried a bouquet of white roses. The bridesmaids wore white dresses and carried bouquets of white roses. The ceremony was conducted by Rev. Father O'Riordan. A reception was held at the bride's home, near the west-end point, the bride wearing a suit of Belgian blue poplin and Panama hat. They will reside near Tweed.

Recently a pretty marriage took place in the Church of the Sacred Heart, when Lillian, only daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Thompson, Dan Turcotte, was married to Mr. and Mrs. Thompson. The bride wore a charming frock of white satin and lace, with a large white hat of silk. She carried a bouquet of white roses. The bridesmaids wore white dresses and carried bouquets of white roses. The ceremony was conducted by Rev. Father O'Riordan. A reception was held at the bride's home, near the west-end point, the bride wearing a suit of Belgian blue poplin and Panama hat. They will reside near Tweed.

Recently a pretty marriage took place in the Church of the Sacred Heart, when Lillian, only daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Thompson, Dan Turcotte, was married to Mr. and Mrs. Thompson. The bride wore a charming frock of white satin and lace, with a large white hat of silk. She carried a bouquet of white roses. The bridesmaids wore white dresses and carried bouquets of white roses. The ceremony was conducted by Rev. Father O'Riordan. A reception was held at the bride's home, near the west-end point, the bride wearing a suit of Belgian blue poplin and Panama hat. They will reside near Tweed.

Recently a pretty marriage took place in the Church of the Sacred Heart, when Lillian, only daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Thompson, Dan Turcotte, was married to Mr. and Mrs. Thompson. The bride wore a charming frock of white satin and lace, with a large white hat of silk. She carried a bouquet of white roses. The bridesmaids wore white dresses and carried bouquets of white roses. The ceremony was conducted by Rev. Father O'Riordan. A reception was held at the bride's home, near the west-end point, the bride wearing a suit of Belgian blue poplin and Panama hat. They will reside near Tweed.

Recently a pretty marriage took place in the Church of the Sacred Heart, when Lillian, only daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Thompson, Dan Turcotte, was married to Mr. and Mrs. Thompson. The bride wore a charming frock of white satin and lace, with a large white hat of silk. She carried a bouquet of white roses. The bridesmaids wore white dresses and carried bouquets of white roses. The ceremony was conducted by Rev. Father O'Riordan. A reception was held at the bride's home, near the west-end point, the bride wearing a suit of Belgian blue poplin and Panama hat. They will reside near Tweed.

Recently a pretty marriage took place in the Church of the Sacred Heart, when Lillian, only daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Thompson, Dan Turcotte, was married to Mr. and Mrs. Thompson. The bride wore a charming frock of white satin and lace, with a large white hat of silk. She carried a bouquet of white roses. The bridesmaids wore white dresses and carried bouquets of white roses. The ceremony was conducted by Rev. Father O'Riordan. A reception was held at the bride's home, near the west-end point, the bride wearing a suit of Belgian blue poplin and Panama hat. They will reside near Tweed.

Recently a pretty marriage took place in the Church of the Sacred Heart, when Lillian, only daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Thompson, Dan Turcotte, was married to Mr. and Mrs. Thompson. The bride wore a charming frock of white satin and lace, with a large white hat of silk. She carried a bouquet of white roses. The bridesmaids wore white dresses and carried bouquets of white roses. The ceremony was conducted by Rev. Father O'Riordan. A reception was held at the bride's home, near the west-end point, the bride wearing a suit of Belgian blue poplin and Panama hat. They will reside near Tweed.

Recently a pretty marriage took place in the Church of the Sacred Heart, when Lillian, only daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Thompson, Dan Turcotte, was married to Mr. and Mrs. Thompson. The bride wore a charming frock of white satin and lace, with a large white hat of silk. She carried a bouquet of white roses. The bridesmaids wore white dresses and carried bouquets of white roses. The ceremony was conducted by Rev. Father O'Riordan. A reception was held at the bride's home, near the west-end point, the bride wearing a suit of Belgian blue poplin and Panama hat. They will reside near Tweed.

Recently a pretty marriage took place in the Church of the Sacred Heart, when Lillian, only daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Thompson, Dan Turcotte, was married to Mr. and Mrs. Thompson. The bride wore a charming frock of white satin and lace, with a large white hat of silk. She carried a bouquet of white roses. The bridesmaids wore white dresses and carried bouquets of white roses. The ceremony was conducted by Rev. Father O'Riordan. A reception was held at the bride's home, near the west-end point, the bride wearing a suit of Belgian blue poplin and Panama hat. They will reside near Tweed.

Recently a pretty marriage took place in the Church of the Sacred Heart, when Lillian, only daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Thompson, Dan Turcotte, was married to Mr. and Mrs. Thompson. The bride wore a charming frock of white satin and lace, with a large white hat of silk. She carried a bouquet of white roses. The bridesmaids wore white dresses and carried bouquets of white roses. The ceremony was conducted by Rev. Father O'Riordan. A reception was held at the bride's home, near the west-end point, the bride wearing a suit of Belgian blue poplin and Panama hat. They will reside near Tweed.

Recently a pretty marriage took place in the Church of the Sacred Heart, when Lillian, only daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Thompson, Dan Turcotte, was married to Mr. and Mrs. Thompson. The bride wore a charming frock of white satin and lace, with a large white hat of silk. She carried a bouquet of white roses. The bridesmaids wore white dresses and carried bouquets of white roses. The ceremony was conducted by Rev. Father O'Riordan. A reception was held at the bride's home, near the west-end point, the bride wearing a suit of Belgian blue poplin and Panama hat. They will reside near Tweed.

The New Fall Suits for Ladies

We are presenting today early displays of the vogue of the season in new fall suits—representing the style creations of the cleverest fashioners—the world over.

$25 to $150

Coats—Dresses—Blouses—Millinery.

Fairweathers Limited

84-86 Yonge St., Toronto

Montreal.

Winnipeg.

131 YONGE ST.

It'll pay you to get our new address fixed in your mind for Scheuer's values are consistently better than the ordinary.

SCHEUER'S

DIAMONDS—WATCHES—JEWELRY

131 YONGE ST.

SCHEUER'S

DIAMONDS—WATCHES—JEWELRY

131 YONGE ST.

SCHEUER'S

DIAMONDS—WATCHES—JEWELRY

131 YONGE ST.

SCHEUER'S

DIAMONDS—WATCHES—JEWELRY

131 YONGE ST.

SCHEUER'S

DIAMONDS—WATCHES—JEWELRY

131 YONGE ST.

SCHEUER'S

DIAMONDS—WATCHES—JEWELRY

131 YONGE ST.

SCHEUER'S

DIAMONDS—WATCHES—JEWELRY

131 YONGE ST.

SCHEUER'S

DIAMONDS—WATCHES—JEWELRY

131 YONGE ST.

SCHEUER'S

DIAMONDS—WATCHES—JEWELRY

131 YONGE ST.

SCHEUER'S

DIAMONDS—WATCHES—JEWELRY

131 YONGE ST.

SCHEUER'S

DIAMONDS—WATCHES—JEWELRY

131 YONGE ST.

131 YONGE ST.

It'll pay you to get our new address fixed in your mind for Scheuer's values are consistently better than the ordinary.

SCHEUER'S

DIAMONDS—WATCHES—JEWELRY

131 YONGE ST.

SCHEUER'S

DIAMONDS—WATCHES—JEWELRY

131 YONGE ST.

SCHEUER'S

DIAMONDS—WATCHES—JEWELRY

131 YONGE ST.

SCHEUER'S

DIAMONDS—WATCHES—JEWELRY