DRILLING HARD FOR THE TRIP TO BOSTON

Knights of Pythias Working For the Boston Competition. As the time draws near for the big K. of P. convention in Boston in August, the local members of the order are displaying considerable enthusiasm. Last evening after a meeting of Victoria Company No. 1, Uniform Rank, the members held a drill. There was a good attendance and all entered heartily into the spirit of the work.

Arrangements have been made for members of both the local companies—Victoria and Cygnus—to meet for drill every Thursday evening. For the present the members will meet at the armory, Green street and later steps will be taken to secure a larger hall in which to execute the movements. Every member of the two companies should attend drill as it is important that St. John should not be deficient in this particular when the visit to Boston is made.

Reports from Fredericton, Moncton and St. Stephen are to the effect that the companies there are drilling regularly and the Fredericton company expects to enter the competitive drill for the big $600 prize.

A PARENT'S QUESTION

Editor Evening Times: Will some of the wise heads of the school board kindly explain why the pupils of the High school are on wet days, as a general rule, allowed the privilege of one session while the other schools where the majority of the scholars are much younger are forced to go home at noon and return many of them with wet clothes on. Today is a fair example of the way the rule works out.

In justice to the parents an explanation should be forthcoming and authority given to the principals of the different schools to regulate the sessions on days on which they consider the one session necessary. PARENT.

NEWFOUNDLAND SALMON FOR BOSTON.

During the past few days several large consignments of fresh salmon from Newfoundland have passed through the city en route for Boston. The big cases are opened here and the fish examined and rejected. Yesterday a big shipment missed connections and as it was necessary to dispose of the stock before the fish spoiled, they were sold very reasonably and a number of people secured bargains.
