

From R. V. Jones, M.A., Ph.D., Professor of Classics, Acadia.

"His ardor, his fine perception of thought and its expression, his enthusiasm in the study of the Ancient Classics, I cannot soon forget. The life and culture thus gained he put into the subject in which he himself gave instruction. He has clearly shown us what instruments of culture Elocution and Music are when effectively and thoroughly taught."

From C. W. Roscoe, M.A., Inspector of Schools and Member of Board of Governors, Acadia University.

"I have had abundant opportunity to become acquainted with the work of Mr. Shaw. The results of his work I regard as invaluable. He thoroughly understands the subjects, and his methods of teaching are such as produce the best results. Several teachers whom he instructed have done excellent work in the schools under my inspection. As one of the Board of Governors, I fear it will be almost impossible to fill the place made vacant by Mr. Shaw's resignation. He possesses the power to control young people so as to secure their attention and respect, and he leaves the college generally beloved by the students."
