

|  |  |  |  |  |  |
| :---: | :---: | :---: | :---: | :---: | :---: |
|  | DR. LA'MERT Just Published, and may he hat in frrench and Eugelish, in | Notice to Mariners.  NEW EIGTHT-HOUSES.  Messrs. H. Ciubse & Co.: I ain directed by the Commissioners of Light.  Houses for the Bay of Fundy to request you will publish, for the information of Mariners, the en- closed list of Light Honses erected and lighted by the P Provinee of Novas Seotial last year, and re-inseit Grand Passage, published in your journal and Other City papers in I850. I. WOODWARD. RL. Jophectfull yours, N. B., March 11, 1852 S. John, N. B., March 11, 1852. | LONDON HIOUSE, Market square, APRIL, 1852.  Receivel per Stecmer "CANADA"-  A a assortment or London-made Visites, Mantles, de.  il Gth. [F] New Struls. $=0$ T. W. DANIEL |  | Iso strong, are now in a very ruinous state, an some parts of the Golden Horn, have entirely appeared. But on the land side, where the fences of art were more called for, Constantin |
|  | self-Preservation:     freble the natural feelings, and exhaust the energies of Manhood. Wiuh practical observations on the 'reatment Ihose causes, close study, or the influence of Tropical cli- then ture, and all Diseases and Derangements resulting from |  | SPRING SUPPLY of new and beautiful Paper Hangings and Borders. | A wandering orphan child was I-  But meanly, at the best, attired ;  For oh, my mother scarce conld buy The common food each week required ;  But when the anxious day had fled,  It seemed to be her dearest joy, To press her pale hand on my head,  To pross her palc hand ou my nead, her boy. And pray that God would gnide her |  |
| LI |  | Eddy or Sandpoint Light, |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  | severai miles, we may arrive perhaps at the numTurks, Greeks, Armenians, Jews, and Franks. |
|  |  |  |  | The prayer I ne'er shotild hear again  -  Such paths as unto sin decoy, rue felt her fond hand press my head,  And that soft touch hath saved her boy. |  |
|  |  |  |  | Though hard thes mockery to recenve,Who ne'er themselves 'gainst sin hath striven, Her, who on earth I dared not grieve, I could not-woud not-grieve in IAnd thus from many an action dread ; | the foreign policy of washington. As attempts have been recently made to pat a |
|  |  |  |  |  | As attempts have been recently mado to pat asnev: construction upon the Foreign Policy of Waslington, it may be woll to to rccill what was the impressin producead sy that policy nipon hes con-" recortly published, amony the spocimens of theoratory of Charles Jumes Fox, wo find the following pronounced inthe British Houss of Commonsin 17\%4, on the Forcign Policy of the United |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  | The ground it occupies is marked out by nature as the site of a great city. A gently declining promontory, secured by 1 | (tiole |
|  |  |  |  | Europe, strecthes out to meet the continent of Asin, from which its extreme point is separated by |  |
|  |  |  |  |  | of hentrality in her favor. Having once laid down the line of conduct most proper to be pursued, notall the insults and provocations of the French |
|  |  |  |  | phorus, running about fifteen miles from the Black |  |
|  |  |  |  |  | Minister, Genet, could at all put him out of his way or bend him from his purpose. It must indeed |
|  |  |  |  | Asia, looks like a stately river, until it sweeps by the angle of Constantinople and enters the sea of |  |
|  |  |  |  | Marmora. But just before it is lost in that sea, it makes a deep elbow to the right, flowing between | so critical and filling a station so conspicuons, the character of Washington should never once have |
|  |  |  |  |  | solence, or of mean submission in his transact |
| give further infornation, W. H. HATHEWAY, Bavrister at Lav. Si.Jolin,  Oh Deee Agent For New-Brunswick. |  |  |  | most convenient as well as the most beautiful harbour in the world |  |
|  |  |  |  | about a century after the foundation of Rome; but this city only occupied the apex of the triangle, or precisely that space nuw within the enclostres of |  |
|  |  |  |  |  | mont uidid the unparalloled fate of this illustrions  ". "How din he act wlenen insulted by Genet? Did |
|  |  |  |  | present immense city, | "How dw he act when insulted by Genet? Didhe consider it as necessary to avenge himself forthe misconduct or madness of an Indivituat, byinvolviar the whole continent in the horrors of war? |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  liabilities of the Company. |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
| loss or d |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  | fonnders of Constantinople called thess "the seven fills," thougi, in fact, if the principal chain only were counted there would be less, and if the minor hills or spurs were taken into the account, there |  |
|  |  |  |  | hills or spurs were taken into the account, therewould be more than seven. On these hills the city stands, presenting on each of the three sidesof the triangle the aspect of a stately amplitheatre. of the triangle the aspect of a stately amphitheatre |  |
|  |  |  |  |  | Le compelied tatake pratit in the present unhappy |
|  |  |  |  | or vast palace of the Sultan, behind which, a little on the reverse of the hill, the dome of Santa Sophia shows itself. The second hill is crowned by the | to the equity of your sentiments and the modera-tion of your views; and the success of your arms will, no doubt, be proportioned to the justice of your cause." |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  | Pipes of Rav and foied Panst oil. Kegs of lieer wol WHTEE LEAD; |  |  |  | Of all the anusaments that can posibily be |
| $\begin{aligned} & \text { out referring to the head Office at Liverpol. } \\ & \text { Dated at St. John, N. B. ARD ALLISON. } \\ & \text { 4th August, 1851. } \end{aligned}$ |  |  |  |  | much. It relieves his home of dullness and same- ness. Nay, it accompanies him to his next day's |
|  |  |  |  | built chiet? of wood. Few things are more cal-culated to make an impression on the mind of thestranerer than when and accitent of this sort occurs |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  | at the dead of nirght, and the immense drun is beaten it the top of the fower, and the voice of the | every variety of cireumstances, and be a source |
|  |  |  |  |  | and a slichd agrainst its ille, however things might go aniss, und the world frown upon me, it woild |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  | copies will find thitir way to this coumty, as wer wer   | The situntion of Constantinople upon lills is not only the cause of its beauty, but of its salubrity and comparative cleanliness. It catches all the |  henvenly to worldly things. |
|  |  |  |  | pleasant breezes from the bosphorus, the marmora, and the adjoining plains of Thrace; and the dirt that miont accumulate naturally descends the |  |
| are quitit new sylyee, and much  wiil be sold at low mites. |  |  |    Its original articles are ably written, and the se-ness,-[Eastern Chronicle, Pictou, N. S. It has a handsome appearance, and commends itself to the | hills' sides to the port or the open sea, in both of which it is carried off by a strong eurrent. To this advantage must be added the inmonse number of fountains and the quantity of flowing water Which is always carrying off parts of the the heavy rains which, when they fall, sides of the hills, that nothing can well $b$  sles or the hils, that mothe ear well be cleaner | much hooiling milk. Bant the yolks of four eggs,aud add them to thic breal and milk, beat it very and add thecा we the whites of the eggs and stir ingentiy with as mden iour  Friit many bo added it prefereel, but the pudding will br lighter withont. Rinse your pudding bag, flourly, leaving room for it to swell. Boil it twolours. |
| es' Fashionable Shoe St |  |  |  |  | Thic discovery of Gold in Queen Charlotte's sland, one of the British possessions northi of $V$ nna ouvcr's siland, has been satisfactorily established. |
|  |  |  |  |  | 1 report to that erfeed wa A merican papers, and is accuracy is confirmed by |
|  |  |  |  |  certain! service.  Allowing for the emply spaces, which colleederabio, Constantinople ocecupies the whole of the natural tringle, whose outtine is finged by old walls flanked by towers. These walls and towere on the sid of the sea of Marmora and the porth Whiere in oid times they were not required to to | ous, and from the similarity of their formation, it   London Times.  Give your chilidren ciducation, and no tyrant will trample on your liberies. There is nothing purer than lionesty ; nothing sweeter than charity: nothing warner than love;   |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |

