

HE MAKES A FOE, WHO MAKES A JEST.

A SUMMER EXCURSION.

The early apple catches the small boy.

Man proposes but—he is not always accepted.

An important suit—the first jacket and trousers.

The breath of scandal is beyond the control of cardamon seeds.

Salt fish for breakfast and a rubber outfit will keep a man dry all day.

A patch on the seat of a boy's trousers is "something new under the son."

Money is slow about circulating. We saw a dime loaf in a bake shop yesterday afternoon.

Dog days is the season of the year when our shirts fit us "yuhst like der bapper on der wall."
