RECENT WEDDINGS

A quiet wedding took place at the Church of the Assumption, Carleton Place, Monday, January 19, when Rev. Father O'Neill united in marriage with a nuptial mass, John Carmichael to Kathryn Condon, of Kingston (N. S.). The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Vera, while James Shanley supported the groom. The bride received many useful and valuable presents.

Mr. and Mrs. Carmichael will reside in Kingston (N. S.).

RECENT DEATHS

James E. Bryant, of Fairville, died yesterday morning after an illness lasting several months. For many years he had taken a prominent part in the municipal affairs of the parish of Lancaster, and on several occasions led the polls over all his opponents. He was also secretary of the board of school trustees. A man of very devout character, he was formerly superintendent of the St. Columba Presbyterian Sunday school and also acted as the clerk of the church session. He leaves a son and a daughter in Fairville. The late Mr. Bryant had friends everywhere throughout the parish of Lancaster and he will be most sincerely mourned.

Ernest Palmer, of Houlton, died on January 16 of typhoid fever. He was a son of Mrs. Alice Palmer of that town and was forty-one years of age. He is survived by a wife, formerly Miss Viola Colwell, of St. John.

The death occurred last evening of an aged and respected citizen of this city when Mrs. Cordelia Rawlin Christian died at the home of her son, Thomas R. Christian, 55 Wright street. Mrs. Christian, who was a well known resident of St. John for many years, was the widow of the late John Venner Christian, of Vanderhoof (B. C.), and a daughter, Miss Cordelia Elizabeth Christian at home.

Notice of the funeral will be announced later.

The death occurred yesterday at his residence Millidgeville avenue, of Peter O'Connor, one of the oldest and best known residents of the north end. Mr. O'Connor was in his eighty-third year and was the first child to be baptized in the old St. Peter's church in the north end. He lived all his life in Millidgeville avenue and leaves to mourn two brothers, Edward, of Millidgeville avenue, and Joseph, of Somerville (Mass.). He also leaves one sister, Miss Katherine, of Millidgeville avenue.

The date of the funeral will be announced later.

John M. Fripp, a well known citizen of Woodstock, passed away yesterday morning at his home. He was proprietor of the Meduskaque grist mill, which business he has conducted since he came from England when a young man. He leaves his wife and two children, including one daughter, Mrs. James M. Queen of this city.

Samuel Mooney died suddenly in Toronto while selling stock at the Union Stock Yards yesterday. He was sixty years of age.

The death of Miss Estella G. Boyd took place Tuesday, January 19, at her home in Gagetown, after being in failing health for some time. She was a graduate of the provincial Normal School and taught school in the province for several years, her last school being in Campobello. She leaves her father, Jarvis Boyd, four sisters and four brothers.

The death of Mrs. William Rockefeller was announced as having taken place recently at her winter home on Jekyll Island, near Brunswick, Ga. She was formerly Miss Edith Gertrude Goodsell of Cleveland, Ohio. Her New York home is in 689 Fifth avenue. She leaves her husband and four children.

The death of Daniel Ferguson occurred at his home in Chatham yesterday, after a short illness. Had he lived a few days longer he would have celebrated his ninety-fourth birthday. He leaves two daughters.

TWO MEMBERS OF FIRING PARTY GAVE OUT.

Montreal, Jan. 20.—At a military funeral here yesterday, the extreme cold, coupled with the long slow march to the cemetery and the parade there, proved too much for two members of the firing party. They were overcome by exposure and dropped. They recovered quickly after first aid.

GROCER'S CART AS HEARSE.

London, Eng., Jan. 20.—At the funeral of William Dicker, an Essex green grocer, the coffin, in accordance with his wish, was conveyed to the church in his grocer's cart, drawn by a white pony, with which he used to make the rounds of the village.

SOME CHRISTMAS PUDDING.

London, Eng., Jan. 20.—A Christmas pudding, eaten by the inmates of Kingston Workhouse, weighed 800 pounds. Included in it were thirty pounds of raisins, suitcases, currants, flour and sugar, ninety eggs, and the usual other ingredients in proportion.

AN HONOR.

London, Eng., Jan. 20.—"Joining the army is an honor, not a punishment," said the clerk to the Wood Green bench, when answering a request of a woman that her son should be allowed to become a soldier. The boy was sentenced to six months' imprisonment for stealing £2 10s. from his employer.

GIRLS ARE ACQUITTED.

Toronto, Jan. 20.—Coral Shay and Dolly Wells were acquitted by a jury yesterday on a charge of having set fire to some straw in the cellar of the Belmont Industrial Refuge so that the two girls might make their escape from the institution in the ensuing excitement. One of the girls admitted setting the fire. Both girls were discharged from custody by Judge Coatsworth.

Coral Shay is twenty-nine years of age, and has been in the Belmont institution for fifteen years.

SILVER WEDDING.
Last Friday evening about forty friends met at the residence of Capt. and Mrs. J. A. Mowry, 219 Newman street, to be the twenty-fifth anniversary of their wedding. Arthur Henderson, in a neat speech on behalf of those present, presented to them a large number of beautiful pieces of silver. The captain responded in genial manner. After music and games refreshments were served and the guests departed after wishing them many more years of married life.
