

six p.m., and for study from seven till nine p.m. All lights in the bed-rooms are extinguished at 9.45 p.m., except in cases where special permission has been granted.

5. Boarders are not permitted to leave the College unless with one of the governesses, or their parents or friends, or by special permission of the Principal, with the consent of their parents.

6. One of the governesses accompanies the boarders each Friday afternoon, when they have opportunity of purchasing such articles as are necessary.

7. On Saturday permission is granted to boarders to visit such friends as their guardians may desire; they are required to return not later than 9.30 p.m.

8. No visitors are permitted to see the boarders unless they bring letters of introduction to the Principal, and no visitor is allowed to go to a private room without special permission from the governess in charge.

9. All correspondence shall pass through the hands of the Principal, and parents are requested to furnish the addresses of those to whom their daughters may write.

10. Boarders are required to keep their rooms in order, under the supervision of the governesses.

11. In cases of sickness, the best medical advice will be procured at the expense of the parents of the invalid.

12. All the boarders are required to attend church regularly, and may not absent themselves without permission. Arrangements are made for their going to their several places of worship as parents and guardians may desire, under the direction of the governesses.

All boarders are required to attend the bible classes which are held in the College, unless permitted by the Principal to be absent.

13. The charges for board are payable in advance; all other charges are payable at the end of each quarter.

14. Special arrangements made for the accommodation of parlor boarders. Terms made known on application.

*The College opens on Wednesday, September 3rd, at which time it is hoped that those purposing to attend will be forward.

Applications for rooms will be attended to in the order in which they are received, and should be addressed to the College Box 562 P. O., Ottawa, or to C. R. Cunningham, Esq., Assist. Secretary.
