THE LONDON STRIKE.

INSTRUCTIONS AS TO THE SETTLEMENT OF THE STRIKE.

The strikers badly organized and hope they will return to work to-day.

By TELETYPE TO THE GAZETTE.

London, Sept. 4.—One hundred thousand and relief tickets of the value of one shilling each were issued yesterday.

It is suggested that the Lord Mayor, the Governor of the Bank of England and the President of the Chamber of Commerce might succeed in settling the dispute between the men and the employers. The dock directors have again issued a statement of the terms they are willing to concede.

The strike at Liverpool now only affects 500 men, formerly employed at the dock. The men at the North docks have resumed work at the old terms.

The strikers are badly organized and the companies hope that all will return to work to-day.

John Burns delivered an address to the strikers today at Tower Hill. He denounced arbitration through intermediaries and denied the report that the dockmen were going to work.

He said he expected strikes to be inaugurated at Glasgow today and in Southampton on Thursday.

FEARFUL PANIC ON A TRAIN

LOUISIANA NEGROES FIRED ON BY WHITE MEN.

Mysterious Shooting at Goldsboro, N. C., During Which Several Persons Are Injured.

New Orleans, Sept. 3.—Between 2 and 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon an oncoming train, composed entirely of colored people arrived at the Goldsboro depot near Baton Rouge. A large number of colored men and women were near the depot waiting for the train, which was due at 11 o'clock. As the train neared the depot one of the excursionists attempted to get off and fell to the ground. Some unknown person made a personal remark when the negro drew to a halt, and the train was stopped. A white man named William Miller, a brother of one of the Green police officers, in the nose and lodged itself in the back of the neck. Then the shooting became general, some 400 or 500 shots being fired in less than 15 minutes.

The foregoing account of the trouble is from the police officers. A parallel account is given by the colored people, who claim that the shooting was a part of the excursion party being interviewed at that time. When the train was near the Goldsboro depot it was fired on by men who were in the crowd. The shooting was a part of the excursion party being interviewed at that time. When the train was near the Goldsboro depot it was fired on by men who were in the crowd.

The last of casualties in the Goldsboro riot are as follows: William Miller, white, 321 Leroy, colored, shot in the left forearm; Elder Fleming, colored, shot through the shoulder and very seriously wounded; Ben Watkins, colored, shot through the chest and left hand and seriously wounded. About 450 shot this morning. James B. Fairweather, who has returned from New York.

SECOND EDITION.

THE ROARING FARGE.

OF HEARING SEA REALIZERS CONTINUED.

A Prize Crew Consisting of One "Able Seaman" Put Aboard a Retired Craft, Which Then Quietly Burns to Sea.

Verona, B. C., Sept. 4.—The schooner Missa, Capt. Jacobsen, arrived yesterday from the Bahama sea. The captain reports that early in the morning of July 15th, the ship, bound down to the Bahama sea, was discovered by a private party. The ship was then searched and discovered 450 fresh skins in the salt room. He took possession of them and transferred them to the Bahama sea. After an hour's waiting, he told Swenson, an able seaman to take her to Bitter. He
