SPREAD OF REVOLT IN MACEDONIA

THE SULTAN CALLS OUT ADDITIONAL TROOPS

Russian Fleet for Turkish Waters Includes Five Battleships and Four Torpedo Boat Destroyers.

London, Aug. 15.-Letters received here from Monastir dated August 6th add some information regarding the situation then prevailing to the brief reports that the censor allows to leak out The letters say the insurrectionary bands have nearly their full complement of men, and that those revolutionists who were delayed by the harvesting are hastening to join the colors. The rebels have a large depot in a strong position in the mountains held by six hundred revolutionists. Many women are baking bread day and night for those in the field, and large supplies of clothing, shoes, rifles and ammunition are kept there. A spy informed the Turkish authorities of the depot, and they sent a thousand troops on August 4th to cap-ture the place. The fight which ensued lasted 20 hours. Many soldiers were killed, but the rebels repulsed the attack without loss.
On August 5th sixty Turkish soldiers were found dead at Karamani, apparent ly killed in a hard fight.

The insurgents still hold Smilievo. Many Turkish soldiers with seven cannons are only five miles off, but they dare not attack the village. Before the bands reached Smilievo, a hundred sol-diers occupying the village killed many of the Christian inhabitants and burned a large part of the place. The bands on their arrival wiped out the garrison

A Surprise.

Vienna, Aug. 15.-The publication here of the announcement that Russia intends to send a fleet to the Black Sea has caused general surprise. It is impossible to secure an official statement. DOUBLE MURDER NEAR NANAIMO

JAP KILLED TWO FELLOW COUNTRYMEN

One of Victims Was Literally Chopped to Pieces-The Murderer in Custody.

Nanalmo, Aug. 17 .- One of the bloodest murders in the history of Nanaimo was committed on Sunday morning about 1 o'clock in a cabin occupied by a number of Japanese near Quennel's lake, Cedar district, the victims being two Japanese farmers who were killed with double-bladed axe by a countryman named Kiro Matta.
From what could be learned, it appears that Matta arrived at the cabin nder the influence of liquor some time n Saturday night with the intention of not only murdering the two unfortunates who now lie at the morgue, but also of illing a woman with whom he was sperately in love, and who was also in inmate of the same shack. Jealousy Matta arrived in the dead of night. In eir bunks near the door were the two rictims known by the names of Tom and oe. Without a moment's warning Matta decended upon Tom with a ouble-headed axe, splitting open his kull from forehead to chin and scatterng his brains in every direction. The an had also one of his hands almost evered. Joe, who nad by this time been awakened by the noise, leaped from the unk, and attempted to escape, but be ore he reached the threshold. The woman, who had been awakened by the shrieks in the outer room, made her ape through the window. Her husand was about to follow when a cry ainded him of a child on the bed which he returned to get, and was just about to leap through the window when onfronted by Matta, who was evidently after the life of the woman. Finding he had fled, he turned upon her husbend, who dropped upon his knees and begged for mercy. "All right," responded the assassin, "if you will not tell Policeman McIndoo what I have done, I will let you go." After threatening to kill the man if he divulged what he had seen to the police, Matta left the cabin and fled to the bush.

In the meantime, the woman had ran across the field to a nearby neighbor, Mr. Bowater, who immediately notified the police here by long distance telephone. Constables McIndoo, Stephenson and Hodgsop were dispatched to the
