ANOTHER STEAMER

Seized by The Russians in The Red Sea.

She is the Hamburg American Liner Scandia—British Ship Fired On.

SUEZ, July 23.—The Hamburg Line steamer Scandia, seized by the Russians in the Red Sea, has just arrived here. She flies the Russian flag, is commanded by a Russian naval officer and is manned by a naval crew. She will enter the canal. Her destination is not known.

The Scandia belongs to the East Indian service of the Hamburg-American line.

SUEZ, July 23.—The steamer Scandia, in charge of a Russian prize crew, has entered the canal.

HAMBURG, July 23.—The officials of the Hamburg-American line declare that the seizure of the steamer Scandia by the Russians in the Red Sea is inexplicable. The company has shown she did not carry any kind of war material for Japan. The company has asked the foreign office to take up the matter and secure an explanation. The company has made the following statement:

"The capture of the Scandia appears to be inexplicable. Her manifests show that she was in the Red Sea in any form on board. The Hamburg-American line at the beginning of the war instructed their agents to make their special duty not to accept contracts of war or transmission. The Hamburg-American Company has asked the foreign office to initiate the steps necessary to clear up the disagreeable incident."

WASHINGTON, July 23.—The German embassy to this hour has received no instructions from Germany regarding the reported seizure of the German steamer Scandia in the Red Sea, and in view of the assurance given by the German government, can scarcely credit the report. It is pointed out, however, that the Scandia may have been seized by the Russians before the orders of the Russian government were received.

SAD DROWNING.

Randolph Smith of Amherst Lost His Life.

Went Swimming with His Brother and was Seized with a Cramp.

(Special to the Sun.)

AMHERST, July 24.—Randolph Smith, twenty-seven years of age, was drowned in Embree's pond, two miles east of Amherst, today. With his brother Stanley, two years younger, he went into the pond for a swim. Both boys were good swimmers, and had turned back from the shore, when Stanley was behind, but he did not see his brother, though he soon became conscious of his struggling in the water.

On Randolph rising the second time, his brother had released his grasp, but by this time Stanley was so nearly exhausted that it was with great difficulty he afterwards reached the bank. He had, however, called for help, when a young man named McKay ran to his assistance and plunged in with his clothing on. Thinking Stanley was the drowning man, he seized him by the hair. Stanley told McKay to look after his brother, but he had sunk to rise no more. They were in the water one and a quarter hours.

Meantime the pond was drained and the bodies of the boys were telephoned for. They used every means for restoration, but without avail.

Deceased came here from his home at Petticoote over a year ago, and was first employed by Rhodes, Curry & Co., but was lately with the Robb Eng. Co. He belonged to the order of Macabees.

Burial will take place at Petticoote, where his stepmother lives, and where his father, a merchant tailor, died a year ago. No inquest was considered necessary. The young man is believed to have taken cramps, though both had sat on the bank a half hour before entering the water.
