REPORT.

The Managing Committee are thankful in being able to Report, that the Seminary at Fredericton has been favoured with an encouraging measure of success during the past year. The attendance has been well sustained, the number, for the year, being sixty-four; but as changes are continually occurring, and those who enter do not all remain the whole year, the weekly attendance has not been so large; according to a record kept of those who are actually present every week, the average number has been forty.

The Principal also reports favourably of the diligence manifested by the Pupils generally, and especially by the young men under his instruction; and the hope may be cherished, that, in addition to the acquisition of secular knowledge, religious impressions of a very salutary kind have been received by some of the youths, both in connection with our own and other denominations. Sickiness, however, in some instances has been permitted to interrupt study; one valued young brother, who is preparing for the Ministry of the Gospel, has been compelled to suspend his studies for several weeks, in consequence of ill health, and seek restoration by entire relaxation and change of air, but hitherto without success. The winter half year has closed by public recitation, and the summer term by a general
