PROGRESS is for sale at Amberst by Maxter A. D. Campbell.<sup>3</sup> Man. 13.—Considering the many attractions on Wednesday erening, Miss Jone's benefit concert received a fair share of patronage. The programme was admirably carried out, the tablesse being ex-ceptionally pretty. The music was in charge of Prof. Sterne; who sang a pleasing duette with Mrs. Sterne; Miss Mains, Mass Hillion and Mr. J. Carry also gave vocal selections that were well received. Miss Jones is a very clever elocationist and promptly managed her portion of the evening's work. She was assisted in the tableanx by Misses Brown, Archibaid, who certainly deserved the ges-erous share of praise bestowed on their work. The members of By lodge I. O. O.
