SPECTATORS WATCHING W. J. TRAVIS DRIVE.

New York, June 9.—Three was no mistake about the quality of golf displayed on the Apawamis links in the men's metropolitan championship. Of the eight survivors from the ordeal each had to put his best foot forward to shake off his opponent. This was

ST. JOHN'S ADVANCED THE EXPENSE OF F.A.O.H.; GAME WAS A FAIR ONE; SCORE 9-4

A good-sized crowd turned out last evening to see a struggle between the two teams at present in the rear division of the Inter-Society League standing and were rewarded for their faith by a very fair game of ball. St. John's won easily with a score of 9 to 4, but A. O. H. did not die easily, scoring two of their runs in the fourth inning.

Downing was in the box for the Fairville team and although he made it rather difficult for Jack O'Toole to hold his erratic hurl, he had three strikeouts.

O'Toole, after being given a pass by Downing, and reaching second on a passed ball, brought in the first score when Keefe proved a phantom at short and Breen, with the assistance of another passed ball, scored on Keefe's smashing two-bagger. Keefe was marooned after Doherty had sacrificed and Kelly had tipped a high foul which J. O'Toole held.

A. O. H. evened the score in their half. Downing drew balls, but was forced out at second by Joyce, who advanced one on J. O'Toole's sacrifice, and crossed the plate when Keefe smashed out the first of his two-baggers. Keenan arrived at third station when the ball got past Keefe, and made Fairville's second tally when Kelly hit. P. O'Toole reached first on a dropped throw. McKinnon put himself on first by Keefe swinging three times with nothing doing.

Hits by O'Toole and Breen in the third round with errors by P. O'Toole and McKinnon enabled these two players to add a score apiece. Ryan was let onto the bases when P. O'Toole dropped the fly, pitched in his section, and he and Murphy and McKinnon did the circuit on a mishandle by Downing, a passed ball by J. O'Toole, and McKinnon's safe single to right. Harrington, who has a hit at each time up, started A. O. H. on a little scoring burst in the fourth. Downing had a life on O'Toole's error, and was sacrificed, ahead by Joyce. Harrington got in on Conboy's slow handling of

J. O'Toole's grounder down the base line, and Downing arrived a little later on a boost furnished by a two-bagger from Keenan.

Each team went out in one-two-three order in the final inning of the game. McKinnon showed his ability as a quick stabber in his first appearance at second, and J. O'Toole making two pretty put-outs at second station.

RAIN STOPS ALL BUT TWO LEAGUE GAMES

The hope of Garden City, overcame all opposition. Mr. Herreshoff in the semi-final hurlycane golf disposed of Robert C. Watson, by 3 up on the sixteenth green, and W. J. Travis by consistency defeated Findlay Douglas by the same margin.

The Marathon management claims that on Monday last in the presence of the official umpire and scorer, Wm. Gillespie of the Clipper management entered into an agreement to play Thursday evening. In accordance with that agreement a game for Thursday night had been advertised. On the field, however, James McBride of the Clipper management repudiated the agreement and stated that he was managing the team.

The management of the two teams visited the Standard office last evening and made statements for publication. Mr. McBride showed a document signed by himself and Mr. Gillespie for the Clippers and Messrs. Tilley and Donald for the Marathons in which an agreement was made for a series of fifteen games to be played on Monday, Wednesday and Friday of each week and on five Saturdays to be agreed upon. Mr. McBride based his action of last evening on the terms of this agreement.

The management of the Marathons stated that the agreement mentioned was but temporary until a schedule could be arranged, and contained a clause to the effect that dates for games were to be fixed by mutual agreement. Further it was stated that a disagreement between Gillespie and McBride had caused the latter to repudiate Gillespie's agreement made Monday night.

Matters are muddled. At present matters are in a muddled condition. The Marathons say the agreement with the Clippers is null and void, also that the Clippers will be shut out of the Every Day Club grounds, and will have no practice privileges there. The Clippers on the other hand, claim that they will hold the Marathons to the agreement.

To Be Regretted. It is greatly to be regretted that the disagreement has occurred. St. John likes baseball, and will support it. It will be a great pity if games between the Clippers and Marathons are to be called off.

May Go to Woodstock. The Marathons may take a trip to Woodstock tomorrow. It is also possible that arrangements for games with other outside teams will be made next week.

Two Sides. As in every dispute, there are two sides to the question. The Clippers claim that no agreement had been entered into for a game Thursday night, the advertising of a game last night had been done by the Marathons on their own responsibility, the Clippers went to the grounds merely for their regular practice.

MARATHONS AND CLIPPERS DISAGREE; NO GAME LAST NIGHT

There was no baseball game on the Every Day Club grounds last evening. The Marathons were present and so were the Clippers, there was also a good-sized crowd in the grand stand and about the field, but no game was played. The Clippers went on the field and had a half hour's practice which they claim to be entitled to by agreement and then walked off. An attempt to have an exhibition game fell through and the money was refunded to the spectators.

VASSAR; AND

HE KNOWS

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., June 10.—Vassar girls make most amiable and lovable girls, according to Vice-Admiral Uriu of the Japanese navy, who married one of them.

"Your Vassar College is beautiful," said the Admiral to the students to night. "To me it represents America, for you hear of it everywhere. Vassar young women are so well educated, so refined that they have their influence in the world."

"Don't you think you were wise to marry a Vassar girl?" the Admiral was asked. He replied with a hearty laugh:

"Yes, for our home life has been very happy. Vassar girls are fitted to become the best wives. As such they are well to think of. And they are so very intelligent. Yes, I am very glad I married a Vassar girl. The Baroness and I can talk English and it is of great benefit to us."

In discussing Lord Rosebery's remark on the probability of war Admiral Uriu said:

"I can see no outlook for war. Lord Rosebery must have been talking politics. Men are too wise to go to war. They know what it costs and that peace is best. But it is well for a great nation, even in time of peace, to prepare for war. All the nations are peace now, but it is best to build big navies and be ready to fight should it be necessary."

"We in Japan are wise enough to want peace, for we know how many must be killed, and it is not good."

Admiral and Baroness Uriu are the guests of Prof. and Mrs. W. Bancroft Hill tonight. They attended President James Monroe Taylor's reception. They will remain over tomorrow that the Baroness may attend the reunion of the class of 1881, of which she was a member.

Rev. Dr. Borden left yesterday for Avonport. N. S. He expects to return to Sackville in about a week's time and will then spend a few days here on business connected with the erection of the new wing of the Ladies' College. Mrs. Harry Wilson, of St. John, is visiting her sister, Mrs. M. B. Tremblay. She will remain in Sackville for about three weeks.—Sackville Tribune.
