were pronounced by horsemen to be the best ever decided over the Canton track. In the 2:27 trot won by Crown Jockey, Hugh Mac, the favorite, dropped dead on the track in the last quarter of the first heat. The animal was valued at $4,000. Hugh Mac was third at the time and had an excellent chance of winning the heat.
The purses were $400 each. Crown Jay by Jaybird won the 2:27 trot with 2:19, the best time; Major Mallow

POOR DAY FOR FAVORITES.

Harry Wilkes Only One to Get by in Pontiac Races.

Fontaine, Mich., July 7.—It was a poor day for favorites at the Short Ship circuit races this afternoon, only one of three making good. In the 2:30 trot Alto was picked as a winner, but she was beaten a nose by Roy Brook in the first two heats, and in the fourth she broke. Roy Brook being an easy winner.
Harry Wilkes had little difficulty in taking the 2:16 pace, although he was forced hard at the finish of each heat by Donline and Prince Onward. The 2:24 trot saw Queen Tulus the unan-mous choice of the pool makers, but

CRICKET CHIMPS.

Cricketing England is still full of "Test Talk." Looking at it from this distance it seems manifestly unfair to the man who did their best and failed; also extremely discourteous to the visiting Australians to belittle their victory. Old England seems to be losing its old-time balance. At the present time far from being an honor it seems an unenviable thing to be selected in a Test match. If a cricketer makes good no adulation is sufficient; if he fails, well—A. S. Glover has reconsidered his decision, and will once more captain Warwickshire in a second Test. The recent barracking on the Birmingham ground.
It is a rare tribute to the sportsmanship of the Kent supporters, for notwithstanding that Burrows had been the chief instrument of their discomfiture on the county ground at Tonbridge, they were the cheer-

THE LATEST ENGLISH CRICKET

NEWS—JESSOP'S FINE SCOR- ING—SURREY V. SUSSEX

Northants Defeats Notts.
After six defeats Northamptonshire played a splendid victory to their credit, beating Notts by 159 runs. Northants, with three exceptions, are a team of youngsters, G.A.T. Walls and W. J.
Denton being but 17 years of age; in fact, to the present term were at Wellington Grammar School. As the two boys gave ample evidence of cricket ability more is expected from them in the future. Northants took the first innings, and scored 229. Out of his total C. J. T. Pool made 117 by beautiful cricket, though in his second men's misfortune he was missed at 15 and 81. Still, they were difficult chasers and did not detract from the spirit of the performance. Notts, of 70 old days, would soon make short work of 229, but the present-day representatives are for the nonce entirely out of luck, with Arthur Jones and George Gunn completely off color.
Notts replied to their visitors' total with 198—31 behind. In their second effort the "Cobblers" made 206 after an even display. In attempting the 38 necessary to win, Notts gave Hampshire a miserable show, being all out for 78, leaving Northampton victors. After he game some hard things were said by the home supporters at Trent bridge, and alterations in the team are expected.

Jessop's Double Century.
As if to show his contempt for the selectors of England's team for leaving him out of the Test, and to illustrate to the people of England that he is "not dead yet," Gilbert Jessop gave one of those dashing and slashing displays which have made him so famous. In the match against Hampshire, which ended in a draw, Jessop scored 161 in the first innings, and 129 in the second. It was truly a Jessopian display, with innumerable 4's and 6's, but singles were few and far between. While giving Jessop credit, it must be remembered that Hampshire are far and very far, from the Australians. In the first innings Gloster made 295, and in their second 342 for 8 wickets (declared). Hamp-shire's first knock produced but 158 of this total Captain White scored 11. It was, however, in the fourth innings of the match that Hampshire proved their worth. Set for 470 runs to make them hit up 349 for five wickets and not only averted defeat but had none the worse of the draw.

Surrey vs. Sussex.
At Horsham, a pretty Sussex town hitherto unknown to county cricket, the home team met their powerful neighbors Surrey, the result being a draw, and a fine day for the Sussex in every way. The scores were Surrey, 187 and 355; Sussex, 146 and 295 for five wickets. Tom Hayward was not among the Ovalites.

Lancaster Defeats Surrey
The County Palatine following up their brilliant victory over Sussex and Kent, administered a crushing defeat to Surrey by an innings and 35 runs. Lancaster won the toss, and on a good wicket started the match.
The commencement was promising, as 81 runs were soon booked with loss, but a sudden change took place, and four wickets were down for 67. Jack Sharp again came to the rescue, and put a different color on the game, scoring 157, a superb effort. As one writer expressed it: "Sharp cut and drove with the power of a kicking horse." Some idea of his punishing work can be gathered from the fact that Sharp's 157 represented the major portion of the 243 he was at the bat in the first innings. In the second innings of the season, and his first against Surrey. Hornby lent good assistance with 38, while Walter Brearley hit up 46 in his usual lucky style. The innings closed for 444.
Leaven-Gower took Strudwick to the wicket, a rather unusual procedure.
In Brearley's second over the Surrey captain requested that the bowler be handed and retired. Hobbs made 41 and J. N. Crawford 36, the rest giving poor support, the innings closed for 150, leaving 44 behind. Surrey were forced to follow on, and again performed out-ly being all out for 149.
Brearley batted finely in both innings, but at times was rather dangerous to the batsmen. Worley being injured in the Kent match, Blomley took his place behind the stumps, making a good first appearance. This makes the fourth time that the "Cobblers" have won, and the eighth of the season.

Gloucester Lost to Kent.
Gloucester had a sorry time in their fixture with Kent, losing by an innings and 314 runs. Surrey were against Blythe and Fielder was a paltry 61. Jessop, with 22, being the only man to reach double figures. To dis-parage the idea that the wicket was fairly, Kent ran up the colossal score of 455 for five wickets, eventually completing their innings for 192.
Humphreys claimed 200, and took 12, K. L. Hutchings 100, A. P. Day, 64, Hardinge, 56, very chief supporters. Humphreys in particular made the Gloucester bowlers look very small. He took many risks, one proving his downfall stepping out to a slow one from Bennett. Jack Boddie whipped the balls off before he could get back Gloucester performed better in their second venture, making 218. Dipper, a new man, scoring 57. Gloucester made a brave effort but in the end were badly beaten.

Managing the St. Louis Cardinals must have got Roger Bresnahan's goat. Roger is not hitting as of yore.
It seems as hard for the Boston Nationals to win as it is for the police to find a "Chink" when they want him.

There is much sorrow in the Highland camp. The Washington team has played its last game of the season in New York.
Roubach is winning games right along for the Chicago Cubs and it was said last spring that he was due for the count.

Buffalo, Providence and Baltimore are coming up and the Eastern league race promises to develop into a stirling one.

F.A.O.H. GOT 5 TO

ST. JOSEPH'S 12

In a sleep-inducing game of ball on Saturday evening, the St. Joseph's served the Fairville A. O. H. with their usual routine. There were not many kickers about the quality of the ball played, however, but few allowed it to be inflated upon them.
In four innings St. Joseph's tallied twelve times; the Fibernians, 5.
Following is the score by innings:
St. Joseph's.....4 2 4 2-12
F. A. O. H.....2 0 0 0-5 St. Joseph's to get much practice off him, but the Fairville infield played decently good ball. Keefe made a pretty stop of a scorching grounder which Riley jumped at him in the third inning, and a double play would have been worked but for Downing's muff at second. Sullivan, who caught for A. O. H. batted in fine form, his slashing clout to left field—the second bringing in two scores, and landing him on third.
Downing, too, did a pretty cut of fielding in the fourth when he hauled down with one hand a blazing liner from Barrett's bat.
The line up was:
F. A. O. H. Catcher t. Joseph's Sullivan, Pitcher Toole
Murphy First Base Barrutt Morrisey, Second Base Simpson
Downing, Short Stop, Riley
Keefe, Third Base Long

C. MERRITT

WILL RUN AT

WINNIPEG

St. John has another representative besides Strling at the Canadian championships, which are being held in Winnipeg, on the 15th and 17th.
Cecil Merritt, who is now located in Calgary, has left there for Winnipeg, and is one of the Calgary men who will run. Merritt has run for two or three years under the colors of the Algonquin Club here. He was during that time a regular contestant in the Every Day Club's sports, and showed himself able to make it interesting for the best. His form is now even better. At Winnipeg he will run in the sprints up to the 440 yards.

Larry McLean of the Cincinnati Reds is going along nicely now. A while back Larry got to walking lame from resting one of his pedals on the rail so much.

In Pittsburg's infield Abington, Miller and Barbeau are all youngsters, Wagner being the only veteran. But how these three batters full of ginger and the safety valve can go, you!
