DAN LONGLEY WINS HURDLES

Postponed Championship Event Captured Handily in 28.25 — Wants Race with Fast Outsiders.

The fair sized crowd who attended the Maritime hurdle championship race in the Victoria rink last evening, witnessed some good sport. The ice was in good condition and the time made was excellent. The hurdle race between Longley and S. Albert proved to be a keen fight, Longley winning out in the excellent time of 28.25. The half mile between the Bell boys proved to be a close contest, Murray winning over William by but a close margin. The time was 1:26.

Longley, who is showing such excellent form in the hurdles, is anxious to pit his prowess against the best in the country, and is out with a deft in any skater in Canada for a hurdle race to be skated in Victoria Rink.

AMERICAN HAS WON AT CHESS MEET IN SPAIN

San Sebastian, Feb. 28.—In the 6th round of the international chess masters' tournament today, Marshall beat Vidmar, while the games between Burn and Teichman, Terrach and Rubinstein, and Niemzowitsch and Schlechter were drawn.

ST. ANDREWS WIN FROM ST. JAMES

A lively game of basketball was played in St. Andrew's Hall last evening between the boys of St. Andrew's and St. James' churches. The St. Andrew's team put it all over their opponents the score being 27 to 3 in their favor.

MONCTON TEAM WOULD PLAY AT MONTREAL

Montreal, Feb. 28.—The Moncton Hockey Club are anxious to meet the Canadiens again and when asked if the Canadiens would be willing to meet the Moncton seven, George Kennedy said that they certainly would if satisfactory arrangements could be made as to dates, but that the locals would play only with the understanding that the winners were to take the gate receipts. There is an open date at the Arena on March 4th, but it is hardly likely the easterners could manage to get here by then.

CLIFFSIDES LOSE GAME AT NEW YORK

New York, Feb. 28.—The second of the series of five games which crack Canadian hockey teams have come to New York to play with local clubs, was an easy victory for the New York Athletic Club tonight.

AMHERST WINS FROM WOLFVILLE

Wolfville, N. S., Feb. 28.—The game here tonight between the winners of the two Nova Scotia hockey leagues, Wolfville vs. Amherst Ramblers, which resulted in a victory for the visitors by a score of 4 to 3, was the best brand of hockey seen in Wolfville this winter.

MONCTON LEADS BY 8 GOALS

Vics Punish Halifax Pros by 9-5 Score Last Night, in Rough Game—Doran Not Playing—Standing 17-8.

Moncton, Feb. 28.—The second game in the Starr trophy series between Moncton and Halifax pros took place this evening before 500 spectators. It was fairly fast in spots, but rather tame for the fans coming so soon after Saturday night's spectacular contest with the Canadiens. The game finished 9 to 5 in favor of Moncton.

Goals were shot as follows: First half—1, Scott, Moncton, 2 mins.; 2, Murphy, Halifax, 5 mins. 30 secs.; 3, Nichols, Moncton, 7 mins.; 4, Stewart, Halifax, 23 mins.; 5, Nichols, Moncton, 27 mins. 30 secs.

HERE HE IS

The mysterious man of the past two days was the one time pride of Brooklyns, Terry McGovern, king pin of the feather and light-weights. He went through both divisions like wildfire under Young Corbett's tutelage at Hartford. Since that day he has never been the same boy and at odd times during the last few years he has been in detention institutions. He is a hard-bitten now, which is better than being a never was.

On Second Thought.
To the Sporting Editor of The Standard:
Sir,—Please cancel my letter of this morning, for on second thought I have come to the conclusion that the man I mean "Terry McGovern" and not Young Corbett. Terry is now a has been as well as a corbett.

Good One Gone.
To the Sporting Editor of The Standard:
Sir,—The picture in today's Standard is Terry McGovern, one of the few real fighters we have had of recent years. He was one good fighter, but "Bat" Nelson got him just as some one else would. Terry is now a has been as well as a corbett.

Picks an Opponent.
To the Sporting Editor of The Standard:
Sir,—I think the man in today's paper is my friend Young Corbett whom I met in New York a short time ago.

DIAMOND DUST.
All the Chicago American players have signed 1911 contracts, and the team has already left for Mineral Wells, Texas, to go into training.

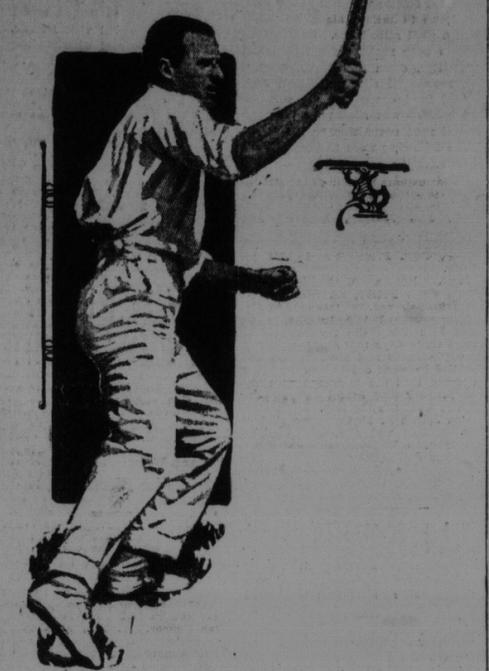

James G. Marshall, of the Riding Club, has been invited to judge harness races at the Vancouver Horse Show, April 25-29.

Exhibitors at the Fort Worth, Tex., Horse Show, March 12-18, will receive $5,000 in prizes and will pay no entry fees.

The tenth annual horse show at Mineola will be held on September 23-30, in connection with the Queens Nassau Fair.

GREAT BRITAIN SENDS CHALLENGE

Challenge issued for this cup last year, by both the United States and Great Britain but representative teams could not be secured, and the effort to regain the trophy won in England by Brooks and Wilding, the Australian players in 1907, was delayed.

Sydney, N. S. W., Feb. 27.—A challenge has been received from the Lawn Tennis Association of Great Britain for the Dwight F. Davis international lawn tennis cup. The United States National Lawn Tennis association sent a challenge for the Davis cup about three weeks ago.

OTTAWAS AND CANADIENS WIN MATCHES

Montreal, Feb. 28.—Canadiens defeated Wanderers tonight at the Arena by 3 goals to 2.
Ottawa, Feb. 28.—The Ottawas defeated Quebec by six goals to two in a National Hockey Association fixture at the Arena tonight. The match was fast and was witnessed by a crowd of 4,900.

HORSE NOTES

The London Hackney show is billed to open on Tuesday, continuing through the week. William du Pont and several other American breeders have gone over to attend the exhibition, which promises to be a notable one.

A horse show will be held in Boston April 24-29, thus conflicting with the annual exhibition of the Brooklyn Riding and Driving Club.

Richmond, Va., is to have a combined trotting meeting and horse show on May 20 and 22. W. J. Carter will manage the sporting enterprise.

Plainfield's annual horse show is to be held this year June 8-10.

Louis M. Newgass, treasurer of the Tichenor-Grand Company, is confined to his Chicago home with a broken arm.

Edward W. Kearney is taking a short vacation at Hor Springs, Va.

BOY SCOUTS TO NUMBER 10,000

Organization Now Underway in Every Province of Canada—Next St. George's Day Will be Observed.

Ottawa, Feb. 28.—It was stated at the annual meeting of the Dominion Boy Scouts that there would be 10,000 boys organized by next September. Every province but Manitoba has been organized with a provincial council and arrangements are under way here.

It was decided that the Dominion Council should in future consist of five members from each Provincial Council instead of two. The same Dominion officers were elected.
