DeMonto Chapter.

The regular monthly meeting of the DeMonto Chapter, I.O.O.F., was held on Wednesday. It was decided to give $50 for a bed in the Princess Patricia Convalescent Hospital at Ramsgate, England. Arrangements were made for a tea and party sale to be held on Saturday, November 4th, to raise money for the chapter's fund. A box containing socks, scarves, etc., will be sent to Lady Jellicoe for the British seamen of the Grand Fleet. Will all members desiring to contribute to this box please send in their donations before next Saturday.

VIVIAN MARTIN'S COOKING CHATTER.

Braised Beef.

While visiting at the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. Elliott Dexter recently, I decided that I would kill two birds with one stone for this department, by ascertaining the favorite meat dish of each. Elliott Dexter as you know, is the handsome leading man at the Morocco studios, while Mrs. Dexter, better known as Marie

INTERESTING CONTEST

A Coloring Contest

Don't count your chickens before they're hatched.

Marie has met with a mishap. She was just returning from milking her cows—when? Get out your best box of water-colors or crayons and see what a beautiful picture you can make out of this. You may find it easier to paste this picture on a piece of white cardboard before painting. Be sure that it is dry before you begin work. To the boy who sends in the best colored picture, I shall award a splendid Building Engine, and for the girl's best painting, I shall award a Necktie and Pendant. All entries must have the usual cover attached and reach this office by Wednesday, October 11th, addressed to Doro, is one of the Famous Players most popular stars.

"Even our tastes regarding meat are the same," laughed pretty Mrs. Dexter in answer to my inquiry. "Both Elliott and myself are very fond of braised beef, in fact we prefer this even to poultry." In accordance with my plans announced in a previous installment, braised beef is therefore elected as my next recipe.

Wipe with a damp cloth and trim six pounds rump of beef without bone. Sear brown on all sides in very hot frying-pan over hot fire. In braising-pan or iron kettle place layers of sliced onions, turnips and carrots; add bunch of sweet herbs, one teaspoon salt, one-half teaspoon pepper; on this lay meat. Add one pint boiling water (or water and stewed tomatoes.) Cover closely and cook four hours in moderate oven. If water evaporates rapidly add more. Transfer meat to hot platter. Strain, thicken and season gravy. The vegetables may be served separately if desired.

Roast Chicken With Chestnut Dressing

"Chicken, give me chicken at any time," exclaimed Colin Chase in reply to my inquiry as to his favorite meat, assuring me with a wink that he meant the kind the butcher sells, "Roast chicken with chestnut dressing, ah nothing can come up to it," added the popular Pallas actor, hence the following:

Clean chicken and run all over it soft butter, then sprinkle with salt and pepper. Place on rack in roasting pan, and cook up to it. Make basting-mixture with one half cup each of butter and water; keep hot and baste every ten or fifteen minutes. Roast about one and a half hours. Keep oven very hot.

For the chestnut stuffing take one pint bread crumbs, one pint shelled and boiled chestnuts, chopped fine, salt, pepper, and chopped parsley to season, one half cup melted butter.

Wholesome.

Baked apples are among the most wholesome and most digestible of food products. Children and invalids are seldom harmed by them, even when other fruits might not agree.

Slip your fish into a small salt bag before putting it into the water. You can then boil as long as desired without it breaking into pieces.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS.

When a box of sardines is opened, it should be drained of its oil at once and the fish turned out.

A painting hint: Take a dustpan without sides, or a cardboard, and when painting the mopboards lay tin cure skin troubles by applying ointment to the surface skin. You must reach the underlying tissues where the disease has its roots. Ordinary ointments cannot do this, and that is why the relief they give is only temporary.

YOU CAN'T

Zam-Buk, on the contrary, has such power of penetration, combined with unusual germ-destroying properties, that it reaches and destroys all germs in the underlying tissues. Then the healing essence promotes the growth of new flesh, which gradually develops until the diseased patch is entirely replaced by new, healthy tissue, and a complete and permanent cure is effected.

Zam-Buk is best for eczema, and all skin troubles, ringworm, ulcers, abscesses, salt rheum, chronic sores, blood-poisoning, boils, piles, cuts, burns, scalds and all skin injuries. All druggists, or Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, 50c. box, 3 for $1.25.

TODAY'S LITTLE JOKE.

Diplomacy.

"Here is an apple, Willie. Divide it generously with your sister."

"How shall I divide it generously, mamma?"

"Why, always give the larger part to the other person, my child."

Willie reflected for a moment; then he handed the apple to his little sister, saying, "Here, Ethel, you divide it."

BIRTHDAY GREETINGS

Uncle Dick wishes many happy returns to the following kiddies who will be celebrating their birthday during this week:

Ada West, Cole's Island.
Dorothy Hoach, 155 Lennox St.
Frieda Blair, 81 Carlton St.
Eleanor O'Leary, Richmond.

Interesting Letter From Old Member.
Back Bay, N. B.

Dear Uncle Dick:—It has been a long time since I wrote to you before, but I have been enjoying the Corner just the same. I do not try the contents because I cannot do them very good.

You must have a lot of new nieces and nephews by this time. I am going to school now. Tomorrow I am going to St. George, that is some way from home. My cousin, Horace, he brought me a dandy book, the name of it is Frank on the Prairie. I have a new play boat. I traded a knife for it. I am learning to milk now, and the cow kicked the pail, and I split it tonight. I will keep at it for a while.

A grief and gladness in the atmosphere.

Winter will soon be here, then we can have lots of fun skating and sliding. This will be fun for this time, with love to all the kiddies and a big share for yourself.

Your loving nephew,
Lloyd D. Hooper.

Having a Great Time.
St. John, N. B.

Dear Uncle Dick:—I would very much like to join the Corner. I am not entering this contest, but I will in the next one. I was out to the country last Sunday, and had a very nice time. We go out sailing on the Kennebecasis river. I am 13 years old. Well I must close as my letter is getting long. Good-bye.

From your niece,
Violet Kerr.

Writes About School.
Upper Greenwich, N. B.

Dear Uncle Dick:—I thought I would write to you. Our school is very small. We have only nine pupils, four left and three went to the city, and one went to Normal school.

Your loving niece,
Mariel.

Another New Member.
Long Reach, N. B.

Dear Uncle Dick:—I should like very much to join the Children's Corner and my friend Jessie McKeloid like me to join as she wants to get two new members. I am also sending in the contest, closing Sept. 27th, 1916.

Your loving niece,
Zaiden Gorman.

Likes Doing Fancy Work.
Millstream, N. B.

Dear Uncle Dick:—I am sending in the Question Contest and hope to win a prize, as I have never won one yet, and I like to do fancy work. I go to school every day and like my teacher fine. I like the Question Contest better than the others. As this is all I can think to write, I will close, hoping to see my letter in print.

I am your loving niece,
Maudie McKnight.

Who's Who and What's What in the Picture World and on the Stage—Favorites and What They Say and Do.

THE IMPERIAL.

A Million a Minute.

Say it quickly—It kind of takes your breath away! How would you like it to go on for, say, half an hour? It was a million a minute that Stephen Quinn, the picture play at the Imperial yesterday. This is a picture which is sure to be a very popular one. Not only are the favorites, Francis X. Bushman and Miss Beverly Bayne cast for the leading parts but the story is well told and the interest never flags. Out in the jungle the plot begins and there is a native prophecy. Stephen is the fulfillment of his heart's desire. In another part of the world an old negro mammy tells by tea leaves that to "Dagmar Lorraine" will come a hero from overseas. Steve proceeds to America and with several blows of his powerful fist, at various intervals, wins Dagmar. There are some good chases both by car and carriage. The incidents take place in Africa, down south amidst forests of trees adorned with Spanish moss, and in Paris at an ancient chateau. In the cast are also Helen Dunbar, Bob Cummings and John Davidson. There is a chauffeur, Jules, who is a prize grafter. I think you will like this picture.

Water power was the subject of the Gaumont Reel Life and this was shown in various ways from old type turbines wheels to huge electric stations and plants.

Another page was illustrated with pictures of deer, elk, bison, etc. The Universal Weekly had Ballet girls dancing at Houston, soldiers off to the front at London, and some fall fashions with most desirable furs.

Comes to Famous Players Agency. Mitchell Bernstein, who is to succeed Louis Rosenfeld, as St. John manager of the Famous Players Film Company, has arrived in the city to assume his new duties. Mr. Rosenfeld has been very successful since coming to St. John and on leaving here he will go to the Toronto office of the Famous Players where he will represent the Monarch Film Co.

The Monarch is the company through which Mary Pickford releases are being handled.

ARTHUR HOOPS DEAD.

The sudden and dramatic death of Arthur Hoops, the popular leading man in many Metro productions, who died in his automobile last week while driving to his home in Bayside, Long Island, is marked with many striking coincidences. Mr. Hoops was apparently in excellent health when he left the Famous Players studio. He had been working in some of the final scenes in "The Orchid Lady," in which Mrs. Petrova is starred, and which is now being completed under the direction of Burton King. On the previous day Mr. Hoops worked in a big scene in "The Orchid Lady," in which Mrs. Petrova is starred, and which is now being completed under the direction of Burton King.

running down a man not fifteen minutes before Mr. Hoops was found dying in his car. Along with other coincidences the man was Charles A. Taylor, the scenario expert, employed in the general offices of Metro. Mrs. Taylor was crossing Broadway when a machine suddenly came from round a corner. Mr. Taylor jumped back, and not a second too soon. The automobile came to a stop, then shot on. Mr. Taylor saw that it was Mr. Hoops in the car, and he shouted after him. There was no response, and he saw Mr. Hoops settle back as if drawing a deep sigh of relief. Fifteen minutes later he was dead.

Mr. Hoops was one of the best known leading men on the screen. He appeared in support of Mary Pickford and Marjorie Clark. In several notable screen productions, before he came to Metro. He has been in many big features with Mrs. Petrova, including "Playing with Fire," "The Soul Market," "The Eternal Question," "Extravagance," "The Weaker Sex," and "The Orchid Lady." Before going into motion pictures, Mr. Hoops was well-known on Broadway where he appeared in several stage successes. He was forty-six years old, and his home was in Milwaukee.

FAIR INES OF THE MOVIES. (With Apologies to the Shade of Head)

(By Corinne Rockwell Swain.)

O saw ye not fair ines? She's gone into the West; She left her peaceful stage career For hours of keener zest. She took her diamonds with her. The gowns that she loved best. And found a dreful destiny, As many reels attest.

I saw thee, lovely ines, Expiring on the floor, While hands of gallant gentlemen Shook their heads in sorrow.

I saw thee shot, and kidnapped, too, In crises half a score; I saw thee brave the lions' rage, The confagration's roar.

Alas, alas, fair ines! She's killed by passing trains, She's murdered by Apache scouts, And dropped from aeroplanes. She dies of thirst on desert sands, And starves in dungeons dank— But you should see the salary She's putting in the bank!

—Motion Picture Magazine.

Mrs. Irene Lee, mother of the famous Lee "kiddies," has responded to the call of the camera. Mrs. Lee has been part of the matron of the orphanage in "The Ragged Princess," June 1916, price's third production for the William Fox films.

Little Jane Lee, aged four, and Katherine, aged six, are in the same picture with their mother. While the photoplay was being screened Jane, veteran of ten films, and Katherine, who has acted in five, smiled sympathetically as Mrs. Lee was taught the few things that she had not learned about pictures in watching her daughters act.

which she is to appear with Jack Pickford. It will be remembered that Jane's chief claims to fame lay in her unlimited capacity for bread, apple sauce and sugar. If there is any thing which Miss Huff detests, it is apple sauce and the unfortunate little lady is now hard at work trying to learn to eat it without making a wry face before the camera.

Mr. Harvey Gahan who has been the first violinist at the Imperial Theatre, St. John, left for Boston yesterday, accompanied by his wife. Mr. Gahan is known in the theatrical public as "Arve the eccentric violinist," and has a long stage career, beginning at the age of five years to fulfil engagements.

He also played in motion pictures about eight years ago. Just previously to his coming to St. John, Mr. Gahan was first violinist to "The Birth of a Nation" orchestra.

VERY PERSONAL. (From Here and There.)

Mignon Anderson was born in Baltimore twenty-three years ago. She is scarcely five feet tall and weighs less than 100 pounds. Her parents were professionals, she plays ingenue leads, and she is married to Morris Foster.

Anna Q. Nilsson is married to Guy Coombes. They have just gone into Vancouver.

Plorence LaBadie was born in Montreal, and was educated there in the Convent of Notre Dame. She is not young in pictures, though she is young in years. She has blue eyes and heavy, dark eyebrows, and speaks French, German and English.

Nance O'Neil and Alfred Hickman, were married recently after an engagement of five years.

For Sherlock Holmes, William Gillette picked out the cast himself, and they were all tall men. Mr. Gillette himself is 6 feet 4 inches. Edward Fielding, who played Dr. Watson, carries 6 feet 3 inches. Marie Majars, and Ernest Maupin, who both played leading parts are also in the giant class.

CURTAIN FLASHES.

A number of scenes in the Sellis play, "The Garden of Allah," will be filmed in the walled private garden of the Santa Barbara Mission, which has never before been used by a picture company.

Grace Darmond, star in Pathe's new serial, "The Shielding Shadow," now showing at the Unique Theatre, spent several days last week at the home of her parents in Chicago. She is soon to make a tour of Canadian theatres.

Kathleen O'Reilly and John Francis O'Reilly, in spite of their extreme youth, are versatile screen players. They appear as Mexican children in "The Brand of Cowardice," the Metro-Roite photoplay starring Lionel Barrymore and Grace Valentine, and as the Capulet children in the great forthcoming screen version of "Romeo and Juliet," starring Francis X. Bushman and Beverly Bayne. Kathleen is four, and John Francis is two and a few months.
