Victory in the War.

(Special Despatch to The New York Herald.)
Atlantic City, N. J., June 10.—Labor's attitude on world and national problems was stated today when more than 500 leaders from factories, mines and mills gathered here in the thirty-ninth annual convention of the American Federation of Labor.

The federation stamped with its unqualified approval the peace treaty and the League of Nations as "making the nearest approach to perfection that ever has been reached in international affairs" and "enthroning right and justice in place of strength and might."

The delegates showed their lack of sympathy with radicals during the address of welcome by Governor Runyon, of New Jersey. Referring to a meeting in New York last night, the Governor asserted that "these men threatened that unless things are settled their way chaos will result. I know that American labor, and this convention, have no sympathy with any ideas that are not constructive. I know you are out of harmony with destructive creeds. You think along same lines."

A burst of applause from the floor followed the Governor's remarks.
Governor Runyon paid a high tribute to the loyalty and patriotism of American labor and told the convention that by reason of what American workmen had done for the world and civilization during the war, what they did during the days of reconstruction was a matter of concern to toilers everywhere.

"Tyranny whether it be in the political or industrial life of the nation will not again be tolerated by organized labor," Samuel Gompers, president of the federation, said, and his words were approved by the convention in a prolonged shout. Labor is not demanding more than its fair share of the fruits of reconstruction and readjustment is at hand. A new concept of right has been reached the words have gone through a great change.

Hereafter the relations between nations and the relations between men, whether they be employers, skilled mechanics or ditch diggers will be looked at in a different light. The workers of the world are determined to have a voice in settling construction problems that affect them.

"Employers, too, have come to see the light of the new concept of right and they are accepting the new order of things; that is, most of them are.
There are others who, like the Bourgeoisie, never forget anything because they never learned anything.

"Men and women have given their blood for principles and ideals not only for the period of the war, but for the period of all time. In making sacrifices, it was not their intention that the principles for which they contended should be lost sight of when the war was won. They sacrifice themselves by letting their blood flow and never regret it. They are determined never, whether it be in political or industrial life, shall be no more. The day for that has passed. But, as I say, there are others who employers who have not yet seen the light. Right now there is a concern in Toledo that resolved point blank even to reconsider their action in increasing hours of labor which they set for their employes.

"Let me tell you this: If any employer believes that industrial autocracy is going to prevail in America he is counting without his host."

Executive Committee Reports.

James Duncan, vice president of the Federation, read the report of the Executive Committee, having special reference on labor's approval of the League of Nations and the peace treaty.
The hope and expectation of labor that as a result of the war governments would be placed on a higher plane is justified by the treaty, the report stated. It sets a new standard in the relations of nations and gives to government a purpose that has been lacking.

"Prussian ideals, defeated on the field of battle, are now forever made obsolete by the treaty of peace submitted to the German envoys," the report stated. Under guiding principles laid down as standard conduct for all nations the peoples of the world may go forward in security and freedom to work out their own ideals of freedom."

"We declare our endorsement of the triumph of freedom and justice and democracy as exemplified in the covenant of the League of Nations." The introduction of nine specific labor clauses in the peace treaty declares that the well-being, physical and moral, of industrial wage earners is of supreme international importance.

"No such declaration has ever been written into international law through any previous treaty of peace, and it is due to the efforts of the American labor movement more than to any other single factor that it appears in this emphatic form in the present treaty.

"The labor section of the treaty as it appears in its final form is, of course, a compromise. It must, however, be a source of the deepest satisfaction to American working people to know that the American position as presented for insertion in the treaty ranked above all others in point of progress measures and in point of the actual practical applications in the lives of working people. Whatever compromise appears, was made because of the claim that other nations of the world could not pledge themselves to an immediate and definite acceptance.
