

COUNTRYMAN BEATEN AND STABBED IN EFFORT TO GET AT HIS POCKETBOOK.

York Point the Scene of a Daring Piece of Business at Noon
Wednesday—Dennis Stevens of Alma Followed, Attacked,
But Beat Off His Assailants.

A brace of York Point thugs and a confiding country gentleman were the principals in an assault case at York Point late Wednesday morning. The assailants are still at liberty, while their victim, with a knife thrust in his arm and only cuts on hand and fingers, took the afternoon train for his home, after recounting what befell him to the railway station police.

His name is Dennis Stevens, and he belongs at Alma, Albert county.

Wednesday night he and his brother arrived in the city, the object of the trip being that the brother might receive treatment at the hospital for a serious inward ailment. He saw the sick man into the institution, then sought a hotel.

The next morning he called at the hospital, noted his brother's condition, and having several hours leisure before train time, hastened to see whatever sights St. John had to offer.

He entered a York Point saloon, ordered a glass of ale and while enjoying it, saw a couple of strange young men regarding him with glances significant of a desire for an introduction.

He paid for his drinks out of a fat pocket book, and was about to wander on when the strange youths beckoned to him and hinted amiably that he would be doing a graceful act if he'd just order up a couple of "schooners" for their benefit.

The man from Alma again produced his capricious pocket book, paid his 10 cents and was courteously bowed out of the establishment by the worthies whom he had befriended.

It was between 11 and 12 o'clock and as he walked on, he noticed a man in a dark suit and hat, who he recalled the fact that proofs of the city's progress could be seen around the I. C. R. terminus, so accordingly trotted toward that locality—brought with a couple of evil-eyed, "trusty" looking citizens slinking in his rear.

LOCAL AND PROVINCIAL.

The 2,000 emigrants who are to sail from Liverpool shortly to settle in the Northwest will land in St. John.

The electric semaphore at Union Station has been in use for several days and is giving excellent satisfaction.

The new tugboat Kitchener may be ready for launching in a week or two. Captain Stevens will be master of the Kitchener.

Rev. A. J. O'Neill, of St. Joseph's church, Silver Falls, will move into his new residence in a day or two. The house is a modern one in every detail of architecture. The house is being furnished.

About 11 o'clock Sunday night Father Michael's funeral, for St. Butoch was discovered on fire, and but for the timely assistance of the crowd which gathered around the church, the building would have been destroyed. The fire was thought to have been caused by the chimney. It did considerable damage.

Mrs. Mary Pierce Rafferty, or as she was better known, Lillian, died Thursday at the General Public Hospital. She was 80 years of age. She was a native of Ireland and had resided in this city for many years.

The following are the young ladies who have undergone examination to qualify for entrance into the General Public Hospital. The list is as follows: Carrie Irwin, Frances O'Keefe, Emily Mason, Nellie Colwell, Eva Pinder, Ethel M. Manning, Mary McLeod, Lucy Sullivan, Annie McLeod, Nellie J. Dalton, Katherine R. Shea, Bessie R. Scott, Alice M. Dalton.

The S. P. C. A. has devised a means by which small suffering animals may be put out of existence painlessly. The place is in connection with the water department warehouse on Wentworth street, and the city is paying the cost of fitting the room. A box is being built in with connections from the gas mains, and animals which are to be killed will be asphyxiated, being put in this box and the jets opened.

A monument will not be erected to Thomas Williams, who died at Skagway, Alaska, in 1898. When the report in the local papers that the monument was to be erected, the people of St. John, who were the majority of the directors of the monument fund, decided to erect a monument to the memory of the man who had been a resident of St. John for many years.

Dr. George Hetherington, superintendent of the Provincial Lunatic Asylum, has been elected to the position of medical officer at the institution the other evening. Supper was served in the gymnasium, which was prettily decorated for the occasion, and the nurses waited on the guests and assisted in their entertainment.

Dr. Hetherington gave a general address on insanity and will read a paper on this subject before the Medical Society tonight.

At a meeting of the directors of the Exhibition Association Tuesday, in the board of trade rooms, the following were added to the directorate: J. M. Johnson, H. M. Campbell, Henry Gallagher, Robert Maxwell, Thomas Hyndard, W. F. Bunzliff, George A. Kimball, C. B. Allan, John Sealy and H. B. Schofield. After the election the meeting adjourned. There were present President R. B. Emerson, R. O'Brien, A. O. Skinner, W. M. Jarvis, Colonel Mackenzie, R. B. Patchell, S. S. Hall, C. A. Everett, T. H. Estabrook and the acting secretary, John F. Gleason.

The Boston Transcript, referring to the fire at the Dominion Atlantic wharf on Monday, says that the steamers Prince Arthur and Bonaparte are damaged only $1,000 but the salvage claims of the two ships which rescued the two steamers must be taken into consideration, however. Both ships had only steam enough to work dry engines, and but for the prompt action of harbor tugs must have burned at the dock. The Prince Arthur cost about $500,000 to build, and the Bonaparte about $200,000. Both have of course depreciated in value, and the proportion of their worth to be allowed in salvage has to be determined by the courts in the absence of settlement. There is no doubt, however, that the tugs put in a very profitable morning's work.

HARDWARE MEN DINE.

Function Wednesday Evening at the Union Club.

The annual meeting Wednesday of the St. John Hardware Association, at the Union Club, was an exceptionally successful function.

The dining room decorations and table appointments were such as to command much commendation, very favorable to Steward Wilson and his corps of assistants. The table was graced with an abundance of flowers from the hot house of Mr. Pedersen. The following gentlemen were present: A. M. Rowan, president; John Keefe, vice-president; W. H. Thorne, J. G. Harrison, J. T. Dibley, Woodstock; J. A. Addison, D. L. Nobles, B. Boyd, Fred Secord, J. P. Macintyre, Geo. Ketchum, Charles McDonald, Thomas Moore, Wm. Kerr, Jas. Pender, T. R. Robinson, M. E. Agar, W. Campbell, Geo. Weldon, H. Coates, W. A. Nas, J. J. Barry, F. H. Barr, G. McKinnon, J. A. McAvity, T. McA. Stewart, Wm. Greig, J. J. Foote, J. Beveridge, H. Rogers, H. H. McAvity, T. McAvity, A. G. Bowman, E. Perkins, A. Macintyre, R. B. Emerson, W. S. Fisher, C. L. Markham, J. J. McGill, Montreal; J. H. Duddy, B. J. Morris, Mayor White.

When the toast list was reached the King was honored. Then the toast of Our Association was responded to by W. H. Thorne. The toast of Our Sister Association was honored by Messrs. T. McAvity, R. B. Emerson and J. J. Foote.

The City of St. John brought replies from Mayor White, T. B. Robinson and W. M. Jarvis.

The Iron and Hardware Association toast was responded to by T. McAvity, E. Perkins, Jas. Pender and J. A. McAvity and that to the Ladies, H. H. McAvity, J. G. Harrison, J. P. Foote and J. Addison.

The menu card was strikingly original and appropriate. It was in the form of a folded ruler, on the face of which read: "St. John Iron and Hardware Association Annual Dinner, Union Club, January 23, 1908." The rule when unfolded revealed the names of the association's officers and the dinner's dainties.

MR. CONNOLLY IN TOWN.

Talks of His Suit Against the City—Repairs for the Dredge.

M. Connolly, the contractor, arrived from Montreal last evening. Speaking to a Telegraph reporter relative to his suit against the city for balance he claims for dredging work at the McLeod wharf, Mr. Connolly said the position simply was that he had presented his bill as due him and looked to the city for payment.

This was his first visit here since November and he had no knowledge of the result of any recent conference between city representatives and his attorney, Geo. V. Macintyre.

Mr. Connolly said the object of his visit here was to look after the overhauling of his dredge, the Intern, which he laid up here now and will remain until spring comes and it will be safe to move her to the Gulf of St. Lawrence, where there is work to be done.

This was not the time of year for big contract work, Mr. Connolly said, but there appeared to be a possibility of his getting the contract for the new railway line across the continent. Asked if he was interested in any of these projects, Mr. Connolly replied that he was not directly interested in any. He probably will not be in St. John longer than today.

DIDN'T KEEP FAITH WITH COURT AND NOW GOES TO PENITENTIARY.

Judge Forbes Sends John McGlone Up the Line.

Pleaded Guilty to Stealing in May Last, But Was Let Go to Get Out of Town and Lead a Better Life—Was in Trouble Recently and the Old Charge Comes Back—Other Court News.

Yesterday afternoon Judge Forbes, under the speedy trials act, sentenced John McGlone to three years in Dorchester penitentiary with hard labor for stealing.

McGlone was arrested in May, 1901, and when brought before Judge Forbes pleaded guilty to the charge. He was sentenced to the penitentiary, but sentence was suspended on his agreeing to leave the province and endeavor to lead a better life elsewhere.

McGlone, however, returned and was recently arrested for drunkenness and also for assault. Judge Forbes sentenced him to the penitentiary for the latter offence. He was the first prisoner in his experience that had ever broken faith in an agreement of this kind.

HERE'S A CHANCE FOR A SHOOTING MATCH.

Mr. Connell Asserts That He Can Make Mr. Rundle Closely Resemble Six Nickels.

To the Editor of the Advocate:

Dear Sir: I understand that Mr. Jas. Rundle, a Rabbit Shot of some reputation, has been blowing considerably lately of his prowess at this style of game. I am not given very much to egotism, but when it comes to the above mentioned sport, I think I can make your Champion look like "thirty cents" on a day's shoot, and to show that I mean business, I enclose a challenge for a match with him. I have three medals which I have won as a Rabbit Shot, and I understand he has a mug which he won in a similar contest at some time or other (probably Canada). Now, I will not make any boast of my prowess, but I am sure that I can make your Champion look like "thirty cents" on a day's shoot, and to show that I mean business, I enclose a challenge for a match with him. I have three medals which I have won as a Rabbit Shot, and I understand he has a mug which he won in a similar contest at some time or other (probably Canada).
