Sir Wilfrid Laurier emphasized the constitutional aspect of the matter. Highways were under the jurisdiction of the provinces and the moneys should be turned over to the provinces rather than retained by the minister of rail-ways, who had ne jurisdiction nor any staff necessary to the proper adminis-tration of the fund. He pointed out that the legislatures of Saskatchewan and Nova Scotia had protested against the measure in its original form and that " 0.14% 4.00 0.23 0.39 3.25 4.00 measure in its original form and that Sir Lomer Gouin, premier of Quebec, had given a public interview on the same lines.
