

Our Book Department

IMMEDIATELY as you enter the door of the New Annex you're in the midst of our book stocks. You're at once impressed with the size of the stocks. A complete book-store. All the evidences are here of our progressive character as booksellers. The newest books; the best books—works of the great novelists, essayists, poets, historians. Everything in current literature, as issued, is found on our counters. We can but summarize from our large lists. A complete catalogue, however, of our books will be sent free on application to any one sending name and address. All books are marked at prices that are our prices without regard to publishers' notions.

The Avon 12mos.

Printed in large type upon good paper and well bound in fine cloth, with head bands and fancy linings, artistic side and back stamps, and titles stamped in gold leaf.
