N.Y. WOMEN URGES MODESTY IN DRESS
New York Feb 8—Asserting the designers of women evening gowns have led fashion to the extreme limit of indecency which is having a demoralizing influence on the youth of the country, the New York City Federation of Women's Clubs at a meeting has adopted a resolution calling on women to "dress modestly" and on designers and shopkeepers to control indecency in dress. A committee was appointed to rush the war on scanty evening gowns.

The Women's Legion of England has decided to continue the training of women for the land, both with view to home service and also for the purpose of equipping women for emigration. The Legion also purposes to undertake a reformation in the conditions of household service, as regards the hours of work, recreation, and so on.

Women constitute 56 per cent of the church membership in the United States.
