

CANADIAN BUSINESS SPELLER

PART II LESSON I.

abattoir	a-bat-wär'	A public slaughter-house.
abridgment	-bri:'ment	The act of shortening; a summary or abstract.
abeyance		A state of temporary suspension.
absence	.. se:is	The state of being at a distance in place; opposite of present .
abstinence	ab'stin-ens	Voluntary forbearance of any action.
abstruse	ab-strös	Difficult to be understood.
accede	ak-söd'	To yield; to agree or assent to.
accelerate	ak-sel'er-ät	To hasten; to quicken the motion of.
access	ak'ses	A coming to; means or way of approach.
accessible	ak-ses'si-bl	Capable of being easily reached; attainable.
accessory	ak-ses'so-ri	Contributing; accompanying; aiding in producing some effect.
acclimate	ak-kli'mät	To habituate to a foreign climate.
accommodate	ak-kom'mo-dät	To make suitable; to adapt; to furnish with required conveniences.
acknowledgment	ak-nol'ej-ment	Recognition; avowal; confession; a receipt for money received.
accrued	ak-kröd'	Increased; augmented.
acetylene	ak-set'i-lën	A colorless gas used for illuminating purposes.

ch, chain; ch, loch (Scotch); g, go; j, job; ñ, bon (French);
ng, sing; th, then; th, thin; w, wig; zh, azure.