CATARRH: A NEW TREATMENT.

Perhaps the most extraordinary success that has been achieved in modern medicine has been attained by the Dixon treatment for Catarrh. Out of 2,000 patients treated during the past six months, fully ninety per cent. have been cured of this stubborn malady. This is none the less startling when it is remembered that not five per cent. of the patients presenting themselves to the regular practitioner are benefited, while the patent medicines and other advertised cures never record a cure at all. Starting from the claim now generally believed by the most scientific men that the disease is due to the presence of living parasites in the tissues, Mr. Dixon at once adapted his cure to their extermination; this accomplished, the Catarrh is practically cured, and the permanency is unquestioned, as cures effected by him four years ago are cures still. No one else has attempted to cure Catarrh in this manner, and no other treatment has ever cured Catarrh. The application of the remedy is simple and can be done at home, and the present season of the year is the most favourable for a speedy and permanent cure, the majority of cases being cured at one treatment. Sufferers should correspond with Messrs. A. H. DIXON & SON, 305 King Street, west, Toronto, Canada and enclose stamp for their treatise on Catarrh.—Montreal Star

Scientific and Useful.

TINCTURE of iodine painted on styes will cure them.

TEETHING children may be relieved of convulsions by being immersed in a warm bath, and cold water applied to the head.

GERMAN WAFFLES.—Half a pound of butter stirred to a cream, the yolks of five eggs stirred into half a pound of flour, half a pint of milk gradually stirred in, and lastly the whites of the eggs beaten to a stiff froth, and add to the butter. This recipe furnishes very rich and delicious cakes. To be baked in well-greased waffle-irons, as usual.

THE FAITH CURE.—This new theory of cure is rapidly growing in fashion, but is illogical in reason and science. Faith without works is dead. Those who have faith in Hagyard's Yellow Oil have its good works to assure their faith. It is an unfailing external and internal relief for aches, pains, lameness and soreness.

A DELICIOUS PUDDING.—Bake a common sponge cake in a flat-bottomed pudding dish; when cold cut into six or eight pieces; split and spread with butter, then return them to the dish. Make a custard with four eggs to a quart of milk, flavour and sweeten to taste; pour over the cake and bake half an hour. The cake will swell and fill the custard.

STAINS ON WHITE GOODS.—Dissolve one ounce of pure pearlash in a pint of soft water, and to this solution add a lemon peeled and cut in small slices; keep the mixture in a warm place for two days, then strain it, and bottle the clear liquid for use. A little of this poured on the stains will remove them; as soon as they disappear the cloth should be washed in clear water.

CONSUMPTION is a great national scourge, and any relief is heaven sent. In India, the virtues of the hemp plant have long been recognized for their active power in diseases of the respiratory system. In this country, only one firm make a specialty of treatment with the East India Hemp. Craddock & Co., of Philadelphia, have been dispensing these medicines for nearly thirty years, and thousands have been blessed with health and strength who otherwise would have met an untimely end.

ANOTHER GOOD PUDDING.—Stir three tablespoonfuls of corn starch into one quart of boiling milk, and let it boil about two minutes; heat the yolks of five eggs with six tablespoonfuls of sugar; flavour with lemon, and stir in the corn starch. Put the whole in a dish and bake it. Beat the whites of the eggs, and stir into them three tablespoonfuls of sugar, and when the pudding is done, spread on the top and bake a light brown.

ORANGE SNOWBALLS.—Wash well half a pound of rice, put it in plenty of water, and boil rather quickly for ten minutes. Pare four large oranges, taking care to remove the inner white skin. Spread the rice equally upon four dumping cloths, and place in each an orange. Tie the cloths very carefully and boil for one hour and a half. Turn carefully upon a dish, strew them plentifully with sifted sugar before sending them to the table.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES.—The probabilities are that we shall have much damp, chilly, sloppy weather during the coming season—just the weather to contract sudden colds. Be prepared for them by having on hand Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam, a safe, agreeable and speedy cure for colds and their consequences.

RICH COFFEE CAKE.—Two cups of butter, three of sugar, one of molasses, one of very strong coffee, one of cream or rich milk, the yolks of eight eggs, one pound each of raisins and currants, one-half pound of citron, the same of figs, and five cups of brown flour after it is stirred. Put the flour in the oven until a rich brown, being careful not to burn it. When cold sift with it three tablespoonfuls of good baking powder and a little salt. Cut the figs in long strips, dredge all the fruit with flour, beat the cake well up, and bake in a moderate oven four or five hours.
