

Dom. g. e. 1887, he was called by Mr. Mercier to the local Upper Chamber May 11, 1888. This position he resigned almost immediately afterwards, and was returned by acclamation, to the Assembly, for Dorchester. As a ready and forcible debater, he rendered effective assistance to Mr. Mercier; but was, with others, forced to secede from him towards the close of his Admn., owing to the scandals connected therewith. On the formation of the de Boucherville Govt., Dec., 1891, he accepted the Provl. secretaryship therein. This office he retained under Mr. Taillon, and from May, 1896 to May, 1897, was Atty.-Genl. under Mr. Flynn. He is a mem. of the R. C. Ch., and was m. Jan., 1883, to Adèle, dau. of the late R. Lelièvre, Quebec.—38 Rue des Jardins, Quebec; Union Club; Garrison Club.

PENDLETON, Mark P., Am. consular service, was b. at Islesboro, Me., 1860. Ed. at the Maine Semy., he joined the newspaper press and was employed on the Boston Transcript. Later, he became ed. and prop. of the Belfast (Me.) Age. He was for a time a mem. of the Maine Legislature, and V.-P. of the Maine Press Assn. A Dem. in politics, he was apptd. by Presdt. Cleveland consul for the U. S. at Pictou, N.S., Apl., 1893. He m. 1889, Miss M. Matthews, Bangor, Me.—Pictou, N.S.

PENHALLOW, David Pearce, ed., cationist, is the s. of Andrew Jackson Penhallow, by his wife, Mary Ann Pickering, and was b. at Kittery Point, Me., May 25, 1854. Ed. at Boston Univ. (B.Sc.), he was Prof. of Botany and Chemistry in the Imp. Coll. of Agricul., Japan, 1876-80, and since 1883 has been Prof. of Botany in McGill Univ. He is a mem. of the Botanical Soc. of Am., a Fellow of the Royal Microscop. Soc., and a Fellow of the Royal Soc. of Can., and has contributed a large number of notes and papers to the scientific press, a list of which will be found in the "Bib. of the Royal Soc. of Can." (1894). One of the most important of his more recent contributions to scientific lit. is a "Review of Can. Botany from the first settlement of New France to the 19th Century" (1896). He was one of the founders of the Montreal branch of the Am. Folk-lore Soc. In 1897 he served as V.-P. of the Botany sec. of the Brit. Assn. for the Advance. of Science. He m. May, 1876, Miss Sarah A. Dunlop.—73 McGill Coll. Ave., Montreal.

PENNY, Edward Goff, legislator, is the only s. of the late Hon. E. G. Penny, Senator, who was a native of Hornsey, London, Eng., by his wife, Eleanor Elizabeth, dau. of Oliver Smith, Montreal. B. in Montreal, 1858, he was ed. in that city, but has never adopted any profession. He is a dir. of the Royal Montreal Golf Club, a dir. of the Interl. Coal Co., a mem. of the Council of the Dom. Rifle Assn., a gov. of the Robt. Jones Conva. Hospital, and V.-P. of the St. George's Soc., Montreal. He was for some yrs. on the directorate of the Montreal Herald, a journal formerly owned and conducted by his father. Since 1894 he has sat as an ald. in the Montreal City Council, where his financial and administrative policy has called forth expressions of satisfaction. In that body he is Chairman of the City Hall Comte. At the Dom. g. e. 1896 he was returned to the Ho. of Commons for the St. Lawrence div., Montreal, defeating R. Wilson Smith, Mayor of Montreal, by a majority of 717 votes. Politically, he is a Lib. and a supporter of Sir W. Laurier; in religion, an Ang. He m. the dau. of J. Y. Gilmour, Montreal.—315 Peel St., Montreal; "Fairwater," near Georgeville, P. Q.; St. James's Club.

"The worthy son of a worthy sire."—Herald.

PENSE, Edward John Barker, journalist, is the s. of Michael Lorenzo and Harriet Grace Pense, and was b. in Kingston, Ont., June 3, 1848. Ed. at Kingston Acad., he has been for over 30 yrs. engaged in Can. journalism as ed. and prop.