The Ombudsmen will mediate disputes of most natures for all members of the university community. Their office is on the third floor of the SUB and they are there every morning and afternoon of the school week, but if you are unable to locate them, then leave a message at the SUB enquiry desk, and they will find you.

Hockey-related and other research being carried out at the School of Physical Education will be featured in the intermission in this Saturday's hockey game between Boston and Toronto. Broadcast at 9 pm on CBHT-5.

What are you doing with the next two years of your life? CUSO is looking for qualified people in the fields of Health, Agriculture, Education and Technology to work in Asia, Africa, and the Caribbean and Latin America. For further information come to the CUSO office, room 216, SUB, or contact R. Hainsworth at 454-1916 after 6 pm.

Commuters, wanderers, wayfarers ... save money! share company! travel in style! ... the SUB ride board can help you locate others going your way. The board is in the SUB lobby, to the left of the main doors. A service of communications.

If you are interested in meeting and socializing with other gay women, come to the Women's Centre, 5683 Brenton Place on Wednesday evenings. Telephone 423-0643 for more information.

Pregnant? If you are interested in alternatives to abortion, then Birthright can provide counselling referrals for medical, legal, and social aid. Also available: free pregnancy tests, and assistance with housing and employment. Trained volunteers, confidential. For more information call Birthright at 422-4408.

The Halifax Youth Clinic has now moved to a permanent location at 1588 Barrington St., on the second floor. In an attempt to co-ordinate the health services, the clinic is staffed by a team which includes one full-time physician and other members with backgrounds in youth work and social work. The clinic offers medical treatment, counselling, and referral services; the emphasis is on preventive medicine. This means screening for conditions prior to them developing into serious cases, therefore preventing severe damage and diminishing the long-term effects of disease. Further, the clinic will serve as an educational resource to individuals or groups. For further information call Dr. Wayne Longmore at 422-6535 or 429-5913, or Deirdre Evans at the same numbers.

EXHIBITS/ART

Grassroots is on display at Eye Level Gallery, 5785 West St., Halifax, until March 28. This collection is of local artist's works, none of whom have had any formal training in the arts. Gallery hours are Tuesday, Wednesday and Saturday from 11 to 2 pm, and Thursday and Fridays from 4 to 7 pm. Call 425-6412 for more information.

Until April 13, the "Nova Scotian Industrial Exhibition" on display at the Nova Scotia Museum, presenting the industrial resources of the province and a display of machinery and inventions from approximately 1870-1910. Open 9-5 every day except Wednesday when it is open 9-9 pm.

Till March 30, major European works from the 19th and 20th centuries are on display in the Dal Art Gallery. Hours are Tuesday to Saturday from 1-5 pm and 7-9 pm; Sunday 2-5 pm and closed Monday. For information call 424-2403.

Cartes Postales of Nicole Gravier will be on display in the Dalhousie Art Gallery, between April 3 and April 30. Her parallel images invite the viewer to reconsider the iconic meaning of certain buildings, sculptures and paintings that have been frozen into the collective consciousness of culture, divorced from their own time. Her work is motivated by a desire to restore certain monuments that are now ossified into symbols of national or political pride to the true domain of art: the imagination of man. Free, in the Dal Art Gallery.

FILM/THEATRE

March 30: films of special interest to children, The Ride, a slapstick comedy; A Child in His Country, a fantasy of childhood; The Bear and the Mouse, a variation on Aesop's fable; Tuktu and the Clever Hands, starring Tuktu, the Inuit boy. At the Nova Scotia Museum, at 2 pm and at 3:30 pm. Free.

March 30: The True Nature of Bernadette/Vraie Nature de Bernadette, a Canadian film in French with English sub-titles. The story of Bernadette's retreat to rural Quebec and the country people's reactions to her. At 8 pm in the Rebecca Cohn Auditorium. Admission is $.50 with membership and $2.00 without membership. Membership can be purchased for $2.00.

April 4: Noh-Kyogen, the national theatres of Japan. Noh and Kyogen theatre were created at about the same time, each serving as a contrast to the other: while the subject matter of Noh theatre is the deepest sorrow of human beings, the Kyogen is high comedy. And, while Noh uses the language of the aristocracy, Kyogen uses the language of the people. Tickets are $3.00 and $2.00 for students and $4.00 and $3.00 for others. At 8:30 pm in the Rebecca Cohn Auditorium. Call 424-2298 for more information.

LECTURES/READINGS
