

observe that the full statements which it was contemplated should be furnished showing the account in detail against each individual Indian have not been sent in, and in order to admit of a sufficient investigation being made by you, you will have the goodness to desire the Storekeepers to place in your hands without delay Accounts exhibiting the items furnished to each individual Indian. —

I am
 Sir
 Your obedient servant
 Hector M. Langevin
 Secretary of State