now but I didn't hear the rest. By that time he had his hand on the English soldier's shoulder. The English fellow went to step away. He looks on at him and utters his advice. The English fellow listens! He hears of his neighborly advice and so he. The English fellow walks away and so does he. He walks up towards the entrance of the same hall.
There were some other English soldiers there.
One soldier was being held. He was trying to get at her. He said "You Canadian brat!" I think you saw some men like and run this country, but he said you". I was following her out, & I told him (he) to forget about it. He said he'd win't forget about it & went out & at that time there was quite a few in the little alley there and it's possible was arguing what somebody told. They went outside and I followed them out.
He had a lot of someone & they appeared to be something. I turned around at that time into the same hall.
It was after midnight. 2:00 hours or a little after. I was about 12 feet from her when I saw her something.

Christ's Exam: her

By the Gods! The meeting was not with the fellow who had his hand on her. It was not a bright night. I don't think there was a man there was a little light coming out of the door.
