

MRS. THOMAS EDWARDS. A.D. 1898.

Mrs. Edwards was converted in an old-fashioned Methodist camp meeting, near Smith's Falls, when she was about thirty years of age. After living a holy life for over sixty years, God called her to her reward. During her sickness she exhorted all who came in her room to get ready to meet God. As her family gathered around her bed, she bade them all good-bye, and asked them to meet her in heaven. Then raising her hands toward heaven, she shouted, "Glory! Glory! Glory!" and in a few moments was gone.

MARY ANN GILBERT. A.D. 1887.

"Jesus has come for me; Jesus has opened a place for me." To a loved one, "I'll be watching for you on the heavenly shore."

JOHN DOWN.

"Though I see death approaching, I fear him not."
