

ARTICLE II.—FEES AND LIABILITY.

Each member shall pay an entrance fee of ten dollars and an annual fee of ten dollars, the latter being due on the first day of January in each year—and shall further be responsible for any additional sum that may, by the majority at a regular meeting (after notice of motion at a previous regular meeting), be considered necessary for the management of the Society.

The Secretary to give written notice to all members of such notice of motion within the space of one week after such notice is given.

Members whose fees are two years in arrear shall be considered as having resigned; which shall also be the case if a member fail to exhibit at the annual exhibitions for two successive years.

ARTICLE III.—OFFICERS.

The officers shall consist of a President, Vice-President (who shall also be Treasurer), a Secretary, and an Executive Council.

The Secretary shall be paid such salary as may from time to time be agreed upon, and the others shall be honorary.

Two Auditors shall also be appointed, who shall be entitled to such remuneration as may be deemed sufficient by the meeting at which they were elected.

The Executive Council shall consist of five members, namely: ~~Three~~ by election, and (ex officio)
