

Rogers, Grahamstown by Miss Astley and Miss Harison, Cawnpore by Mrs. Clayton, who gave the lecture on it, and Miss Durnford, Japan by Miss Anderson Morshead, Miss Chute and Miss Symes Thompson. Rangoon was fortunate enough to monopolise two stalls, one managed by Miss Lathom-Browne and Miss Langton, the other by Miss Shuttleworth and Miss Rycroft. The Zenana Mission had a very attractive stall under Mrs. Lionel Clarke and Miss Vesey-Norman, and that for the Church of England Mission in North China was in the able hands of the Misses Tarleton. The Sale was open the second day till 9 p.m., and several working women came in the evening, and had very good bargains in some of the clothes left unsold.
