

THE SATURDAY EVENING POST

The Oldest Paper in America
FOUNDED A.D. 1728
BENJAMIN FRANKLIN

A high-grade illustrated weekly magazine, equal in tone and character to the best of the monthlies. In addition to the best original matter obtainable, the Post will present each week the best in the newspapers, periodicals and books of the world. It will aim to be to contemporary literature what a Salon exhibit is to art, bringing together the choicest bits of literature from all modern sources and giving them a deserved place together, 'on the line.' We have the literary resources of the world to draw upon. The best writers of the world are practically a retained corps of contributors. It would be impossible for any magazine, no matter how boundless its wealth, to obtain, as original matter, the wealth of literature we have to offer weekly. The handsome illustrations in the Post are original.

To introduce it into your family, it will be mailed every week from now to January 1, 1899, on receipt of

Shorthorns & Clydesdales

Having recently made a large importation of Shorthorn cattle from Aberdeenshire, Scotland, I will call a public auction sale early in January, at which I will dispose of as good a lot of stock as ever passed under the hammer on this continent. Watch future numbers of the FARMER'S ADVOCATE for my special announcement, and gossip, giving full particulars, etc.
