Manufactured by MATTHEW WILSON & Co., Hamilton.

This machine has been in successful use in the East for several years, and has lately been introduced with great success in the West. Each succeeding year has added new evidence of the practicability of the Loader, and shows conclusively the necessity for pitching hay on the wagon in the field by Machinery. All other work in hay-making has been done by machinery for a long time, leaving the pitching on the wagon the only part accomplished in the same manner and with no greater speed than during the earlier period of hay-making. With the use of the Loader as much time is saved in pitching as is saved by the Mower, Horse-Rake, Horse-Fork, or Hay-Carrier, thereby making it safe for the farmer to cut at least double the amount of grass daily, knowing that he has the facilities for securing it. CROFT & CO., Montreal, Sole Proprietors. Darnley, P. E. I., Feb. 1st, 1884. Messrs. Croft & Co.—Gentlemen—I have tried your Blood Cleanser and find it superior to anything of the kind I have ever used. The horse I gave it to was very much run down, and the difference in a short time was magical. Yours truly, GEO. W. WIGGINS. The above is one of many testimonials received by us.
