Royal Gardens. What fancy was working in the brain of Angelique when she alluded to him may be only surmised.

The Chevalier was indignant, however, at an implied comparison between himself and the plebeian Marquis de Vandriere. He replied, with some heat,—

"The Marquis de Vandriere! How dare you mention him and me together! There's not an officer's mess in the army that receives the son of the fishmonger! Why do you mention him, Angelique? You are a perfect riddle!"

"I only thought something might happen, brother, if I should ever go to Paris! I was acting a charade in my fancy, and that was the solution of it!"

"What was? You would drive the whole Sorbonne mad with your charades and fancies! But I must leave you."

TRADE NOTES

Nothing is more satisfactory than to be able to secure honest goods at fair prices. Nothing is more satisfactory than to deal with a merchant whose guarantee on some line of goods is an absolute protection because the manufacturer of the goods stands back of the merchant. This is the case in dealing with merchants who handle Rex Flintkote Roofing.

This roofing has been on the market for many years, and it is worthy of note that the merchants who handle it and whose endorsements have appeared in these columns are all enthusiastic believers in the Rex Flintkote Roofing and in the fairness of J. A. & W. Bird & Co., the manufacturers of this celebrated prepared roofing. We advise you to ask your dealer about Rex Flintkote when you need roofing. He may tell you there are cheaper roofings; but he cannot say there are better or more durable ones.

We advise our readers to send for "Rex Flintkote" booklets to J. A. & W. Bird & Co., 21 India St., Boston, Mass., and note how this firm does business.

Passenger.—I suppose you've had some hair-breadth escapes during your sea-faring career.

Mate.—Yes, indeed! I was nearly drowned once.

Passenger.—You don't say! How did it occur?

Mate.—I went to sleep in the bath and forgot to turn off the water.

"Why do you keep your daughter practicing so incessantly on that one piece?"

"I want to be sure she can play something when our friends ask to hear her."

"But suppose they want to hear her play something more?"

"Oh, there's no danger of that."

GOSSIP

The Knight Sugar Company, of Raymond, Alberta, are having shipped to them eighteen Shire stallions, thirteen Shire mares, eight Clydesdale stallions and eight Clydesdale mares, five Suffolk stallions and fifteen Suffolk mares.

If these arrive in time for the Calgary exhibition they should make quite an addition to the horse display there.

When asked by one of those wise-acres who were convinced that in order to write good English a man must be taught to write bad Latin where his son was educated, Mr. John Dickens replied with considerable aplomb that his son—er—well his son—er—might be almost said, in a sense, to have educated himself. The street, the warehouse, Mr. Creable, an attorney's office, the reporters' gallery, and postchaise—such was the education that equipped a young man of twenty-four to preside at the banquet of literature at an unprecedented age, to make the best speeches in London, to go into the best society, to set the table in a roar, to lead every company in which he mixed, to travel, acquire French and Italian with ease, and write the most animated letters known to the modern world.

Speaking on 'Domestic Surgery' at Rayleigh, Essex, Miss Violet Dering stopped when she saw her dog yawn. She explained that he invariably accompanied her to her meetings and yawned when he thought she had spoken enough.

Louise was just four years old when one day she came to her mother and said: 'Mother dear, I'm so nervous!'

Her mother, believing the child was repeating the words she had heard some older person say, told her to run on and play; that she was too young to be nervous. But Louise insisted, and her mother finally asked her how it felt to be nervous. She answered, drawing her little shoulders up and clinching her fists tightly. 'I des feel in a hurry all over me.'

YOU NEED FEAR IT NO LONGER

Gravel Warded off and Cured by Dodd's Kidney Pills

Manitoba Man Tells How His Urinary Troubles Vanished Before the Great Canadian Kidney Remedy

Hamelik, Man., June 2 (Special).—Probably there is no disease to which man is heir that causes such a general dread as Gravel, or Stone in the Bladder. The frightful pains it brings and the terrible operations it necessitates cause a shudder of apprehension whenever it is mentioned. But there is really no reason why any man or woman should fear Gravel. It is purely and simply a Kidney disease, and as such can be either cured or guarded against by the use of Dodd's Kidney Pills. Take the case of Mr. Calvin R. Snyder, well known here. He says:—

"In the spring of 1907 I was almost laid up from a lame back and was also troubled with excessive urination. I got a box of Dodd's Kidney Pills, and used them with satisfactory results. Dodd's Kidney Pills are the best Kidney medicine I ever heard of."

If you follow Mr. Snyder's example and use Dodd's Kidney Pills for slight urinary disorders, you will never be troubled with Gravel. If you have Gravel, Dodd's Kidney Pills will cure it.
