GOOD THINGS WANTED.

The Endeavor of Canadians to put Quality Before Price.

More than ever Canadians in all sections of the country are demanding the best goods. Quality is of more importance even than price and the various manufacturers are beginning to realize that no longer will they be able to dispose of the "cheap" product. That this is a healthy sign of the growth of the people in real artistic taste cannot be doubted. Manufacturers everywhere are feeling the competition of the well-made article and the success of such an article is causing a healthy emulation that cannot fail to raise the character of our products in the markets of the world. About two years ago a banker in the Province of Alberta purchased a very fine Goulay piano and had it shipped to his western home. Both he and his wife were delighted with it, but eight months after it arrived their house was burned down, and the piano destroyed. The rest of the story is best told in his words. Writing to the firm of Goulay, Winter & Leeming, Toronto, he said: "Ever since the fire we have been intending to purchase a duplicate as soon as possible. When I tell you that we have again chosen a Goulay, notwithstanding the fact that we have been offered any of three other models of leading pianos at manufacturers' prices, you may judge as to how we appreciate your instrument."

This gentleman stated he wanted the best, and was willing to pay extra in order to get it.

Lost, Strayed or Impounded

Below is to be found a list of impounded, lost and stray stock in Western Canada. In addition to notices otherwise received, it includes the official list of such animals reported to the Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta Governments.

This department is for the benefit of paid-up subscribers to the "Farmer's Advocate," each of whom is entitled to one free insertion of a notice not exceeding five lines. Notices exceeding five lines will be charged two cents per word for each additional word, payable in advance.

CHARGE OF THE MAD BRIGADE.

(Acknowledgements to Tennyson)

Half a block, half a block,
Half a block onward,
Packed into trolly cars
Rode the six hundred.
Maidens and matrons hale,
Tall spinsters, slim and pale,
On to the bargain sale,
Rode the six hundred.

Autos to right of them,
Hansoms to left of them,
Flying trains over them
Rattled and thundered.
Forward through all the roar,
On, through the crowd they bore,
To Price & Sellers Store
Rode the six hundred.

When at the mart of trade,
Stern-faced and not afraid,
Oh! the wild charge they made!
All the clerks wondered.
Theirs not to make reply,
Theirs not to reason why,
Theirs but to pacify
All the six hundred.

On bargains still intent,
Homeward the buyers went,
With cash and patience spent,
And friendships shattered.
What though their hats sport dents,
What though their gowns show rents,
They have saved thirty cents;
Noble six hundred.
