"Mr. President, and Gentlemen of His Majesty's Council:

"Mr. Speaker, and Gentlemen of the House of Assembly:

"When I called you together for the dispatch of business, I stated to you my conviction of the importance to the welfare of the Colony that a friendly and confidential intercourse should exist between the two branches of the Legislature, and earnestly recommended you, severally to adopt that temperate and conciliatory course in your deliberations, so essentially necessary to the due discharge of your public duties. It is with great reluctance I feel compelled to say that I have been disappointed. I beg, Mr. Speaker, and Gentlemen of the House of Assembly, to return you my thanks
