ONTARIO IS TRUE TO SIR JAMES

Political Catch-Cry is Forever Silenced by the People.

French Votes Catered to and Won by Rowell.

TORONTO, June 30.—Ontario has declined to discard the third Government of Sir James Whitney to place in office Mr. Newton Wesley Rowell and the exponents of his one-plant policy. The feverish campaign of the Liberal leader himself, the climax of the party press, and the fulminations from the pulp of those clerical men who fell for the cry of "Abolish the bar," added but a handful of members to the corporal's guard of Liberals in the Legislature for the past decade. The common sense of the electors and their gratitude for the stainless administration and progressive legislation of the present Government remained unshaken. Mr. Rowell himself received an intimation of the temper of the people in his own constituency of North Oxford, where his majority of 560 at the last general election was reduced to 125. As a result of the voting throughout the province yesterday, Sir James Whitney and his Government will have 84 members in the new Legislature. Mr. Rowell will have a following of 25, and there will be 2 Independents, including Mr. Gustave Evanturel, the Liberal, who was compelled to resign his seat in the last House because of his negotiations with the officials of the liquor men's organization, and who gained the day in a three-cornered fight in Prescott by an appeal to the racial feeling of the French electors. The second Independent, Arthur Strohme, the Liberal member, who was re-elected in East Hamilton by a substantial majority. The Government thus comes back to the Legislature with one seat more than it had after the general election of 1911. It has a majority of 59 over the Liberals, and 77 over the Liberals and Independents combined. Mr. Rowell on the other hand, boasts only three more followers than at the close of the polls on December 11, 1911. With definite returns lacking in a number of cases it was impossible last night to arrive at the Government's popular majority. But despite the fact that Mr. Rowell has a net gain of six seats, the increased majorities given to Government candidates make it evident that the Liberal leader has behind him

Ham's Majority is 340 In South Brant Riding

Features of Contest Just Closed—Mr. Brewster Fought Against Tremendous Odds, and the "Moral" Issue Was the Result of Political Machinations Here—Victory Was Soon Forgotten When the Voice of the People of Ontario Was Heard.

South Brant and North Brant yesterday took the most progressive and thoroughly honest government it ever had, and Joseph H. Ham of this city and Scott Davidson of Paris are the new representatives from this county in the Ontario Legislature. In Brantford, the biggest vote on record was polled, over 6,000 voters all told marking their ballots. The campaign was one of the most strenuous on record, and the interest in the result was intense. The result, to put it mildly, was somewhat of a surprise although it was known by Conservatives that the opposition to be encountered in Brantford, for reasons which became evident early in the fight, in conference, pulpit and Sunday school, would be of the stiffest kind. Yesterday's figures in Brantford city show that Conservatives were led away by the score by the political catch cry with which they were harpooned. While pulpits were used in Brantford for a great moral victory on behalf of the Liberal candidate, the Liberal machine was hustling and doing its utmost to line up the foreign vote, and corralled beyond doubt this vote was when voting day came. To the Conservatives who deserted their party in Brantford yesterday will doubtless come the realization that the issue was not a moral one, as was honestly supposed by those who changed their

MANY CASES WERE AIRED IN POLICE COURT

Heavy Fine for Keeper of Disorderly House—Massey-Harris Case.

There was a variety of cases, principally those adjourned from the previous week, to be dealt with by Magistrate Livingston this morning. Wm. Barton was found guilty upon a charge of seduction and was remanded a week for sentence. Mr. W. S. Brewster, who defended, and the prosecution, had a lengthy discussion on a previous case of a similar character, and although Mr. Brewster contended that it supported his argument, the magistrate held that it was a precedent upon which he based his judgment for conviction. The defendant's solicitor then asked for a stated case, and this was granted, and the point will be argued during September 15th. The Massey-Harris Affray. The charges of assaulting peasant Charles Wiley was taken up today. It originated in the affray which nearly ended in the death of Charles Clements, when he was seriously injured by having his lung pierced when he was hit by a mower guard thrown by defendant after having "a few words with each other." Mr. Charlton who defended Wiley, said that it was simply a case of the outcome of a little joke or fun. Both parties had, while working at the Massey-Harris shops, had made faces at each other and jokingly then threw pieces of iron to each other. The second piece, thrown was a mower guard, and it accidentally hit Clements, while there was no intention of it hitting him. "There was no ill-feeling," he declared, and it was a pure accident.

VIEW OF BOTH SIDES ARE GIVEN IN PRESS ON THE ELECTION RESULTS

French Papers Very Caustic Although They Made a Dead Set Effort to Help Rowell—Good Old Ontario Will Continue to be Governed Honestly—Liberal Leader Rejected Decisively

[By Special Wire to the Courier] WINNIPEG, June 30.—The Telegram says: The results in Ontario are not without their moral for the electors of Manitoba, who, eleven days hence, will be called upon to pass a verdict for or against local option. The contest in this province in that single particular is similar to the Ontario combat. Sir Rodmond Roblin stands with Sir James Whitney on the local option issue. While it is true that Mr. Norris has not pledged himself to banish the bar, that policy has been set up in opposition to the Roblin government policy of total prohibition by local option. Mr. Norris' attitude is thus notably weaker than that of Mr. Rowell. He lacks the courage of his convictions, which characterized Mr. Rowell's advocacy of the "fad."

The Flopper Speaks. Ottawa, Ont., June 30.—The Ottawa Citizen (Conservative) which supported Mr. Rowell yesterday, says "The return of the administration of Sir James Whitney to power in such a decisive manner shows conclusively that the time has not yet arrived in this country, at any rate, when the voters are willing to forsake their political issues for the endorsement of non-partisan moral issues when such are incorporated in the party platform of either of the well-managed organizations, notwithstanding appeals to their better instincts; it is an enlightening illustration of the strength of party feeling and union, that voters in themselves of the highest character, are nevertheless unable to bring themselves to endorse issues which when divorced from party association, merit their approval and commendation."

How Influential. MONTREAL, June 30.—Le Canada (Liberal) says: The Liberal party in Ontario has come out of the election with a gain of several seats, despite the gerrymander of the last session, and will present in the next legislature the most influential and numerous group. The lesson of the election undoubtedly is that the people of Ontario are not in favor of prohibition, not even partial prohibition. The result of the voting cannot be considered as a negation of the progress made by Liberals in other parts of the country, because of the introduction of the unique "abolish the bar" policy of Mr. Rowell.

Still Black With Treachery. The Hamilton Spectator (Conservative) says editorially "The verdict of yesterday means that when the temperance people of Ontario want the bar to go they want the shop to go with it. It means that they prefer a workable law thoroughly well enforced than the premature realization, in form only, of the dream of an idealist, soon to become a dead letter or a farce through lack of rigid enforcement. It means that they want no recurrence of the wide-open Ontario which distinguished the closing days of the last Liberal administration. It means that they disapprove of any attempt to turn the entire temperance sentiment of the province into the channel of one political party, that party, the one whose past is black with treachery to their cause. It means that the bulk of the laymen of Ontario are wiser than some of their unifiers, who seemed to lose their heads during the recent campaign and to fancy that in order to banish the bar they must march under one political banner."

HONESTY IS REWARDED BY THE PEOPLE

Montreal Views of the Return of Sir James Whitney to Power.

[By Special Wire to the Courier] MONTREAL, June 30.—The Daily Mail commenting on the result of the provincial elections in Ontario yesterday says: "The return of Sir James Whitney to power in Ontario, with a reduced majority, but still with strong support in the legislature, is what was generally expected. Responsible public men can count upon public gratitude for work well done. The reward of a public trust well kept is reasonably certain. "Viewing the election result from a disinterested standpoint one cannot but feel grateful that Sir James Whitney, at this late date in his public career, has received another endorsement. He has been a good public servant. He has grown old in office and has weakened in health under the strain of arduous labors. Had he been turned away, the world would have been a pathetic figure. He did not deserve that fate, and Ontario did not give it to him. Undoubtedly many temperance voters gave him their support, not because they loved temperance less, but Whitney more."

The Gazette says: "The Whitney Government has won the approval of the majority of the people of the province, in some striking ways it has deserved respect. Its leader began his career in power by cutting away from the hypocrisy that had been prominent for too long in Ontario's affairs. If he did not believe a proposition was right he said so in unmistakable words, so that everyone concerned could know what he would do. His course appealed to the manliness of the people and won him support. Then he and his colleagues sought to enforce the law and make it respected; and they made themselves respected. Their mistakes did not count against the general satisfaction with their record. They have held power for ten years. There is visible no reason why they should not hold it for ten years more."

Names Omitted.

Through an error the names of the following pupils were omitted from the Central school report of Senior 3 to Junior 4 passes: Irene Heppen 679, Reggie Hall 647, Dora Halstead 696. Other omissions were from Sen. 3 to Jun. 4, at Ryerson school: Elizabeth Brown 673, Edith Cutmore 672. Miss Plewes, of Chattanooga, Tenn. is visiting her sister, Mrs. W. L. Hughes, Lorne Crescent.

Davidson Is Elected By 46 in North Brant Riding

Traditional Liberal Riding Slipped Back by Scant Vote to the Grit Column—Mr. Westbrook's Admirable Campaign—Paris Gave Substantial Conservative Majority—Rural Districts Went Back to Liberalism.

North Brant, traditionally a Liberal stronghold, yesterday elected Scott Davidson, the Liberal candidate, by 46 majority. The fight was one of the closest in the history of the riding, which had, with one exception, always returned a Liberal to the Ontario Legislature by a very large majority. Mr. J. W. Westbrook, the popular Brantford Township farmer, put up a splendid campaign for the Conservative cause, and his defeat, while regretted generally, is by no means regarded as a permanent setback. The result of the contest was in doubt until the last minute, and from

CROWD AT COURIER ENORMOUS

How Returns Were Received—Mr. Brewster Speaks.

Enthusiasm in Spite of Local Defeat Ran High.

Local Conservatives took the outcome in the two Brants in a good humored way. They were disappointed of course, but along came the returns of a party sweep throughout the province, and their spirits naturally commenced to rise. At the Courier building, most complete arrangements by private wire and otherwise, had been made to secure prompt returns. This paper before six o'clock had a special out-announcing Mr. Ham's return, and by means of a stereoscopic machine details from here and all over were flashed on a large sheet across the way. Thousands were gathered in front of this office and cheers were hearty and numerous, as win after win for Whitney were recorded. These were especially noticeable for Sir James Whitney, Sir Adam Beck and Hon. Mr. Hanna. The big falling off in Rowell's majority in Oxford was greeted with laughter and applause. The Liberals having started a procession, headed by the Dragon band, it was flashed on the screen that the Conservatives would have one also, headed by the Dufferin Rifles band. The two passed and re-passed each other in front of the Courier, with cheers and counter-cheers, fireworks, flaming brooms and all the rest of it. The conservative parade was out to the eastern portion of the city and then back to Mr. Brewster's house. Such throngs and such good humored excitement were never before witnessed in this city, and matters were kept up until a late hour.

Speeches at Courier Office. From the Courier balcony the usual speeches were made. Mr. Harry Cockshutt first of all, addressed the multitude, followed by Mr. F. D. Reville and Mr. Hall. At the close of the latter's address, the returning Conservative procession arrived. Messrs. Brewster and W. F. Cockshutt, M.P., were loudly cheered as they alighted from the auto in which they were riding. There was another big outburst as Mr. Brewster stepped forward to speak. He thanked the good people of Brantford for all they had done for him. Their cause had been defeated this time, but the Conservative standard had always stood for right and justice and always would do so. (Applause.) Those principles would never be overthrown. In the long run South Brant would again be redeemed and placed where it properly belonged. (Loud applause.) He thanked everyone of his supporters from the bottom of his heart for their loyal work and assistance. No man ever had a better band of fighters at his back. He had been beaten, not for lack of their loyalty, but because of misrepresentations, not to say absolute falsehoods. (Cries "That's so.") He had not a word to say against the

HOW MANY ONTARIO RIDINGS VOTED IN YESTERDAY'S PROVINCIAL FIGHT

Tremendous Majorities Rolled Up Behind Government All Over—Hypocrisy Was Repudiated by the People—Ottawa Elected Liberals on Language Issue Alone

HAMILTON, June 30.—The return of Col. the Hon. J. S. Hendrie for West Hamilton was a complete vindication of the Whitney policy. Whie Allan Studholme was returned for East Hamilton, the victory for the Labor candidate was not unexpected. With forces of Grits, Labor and temperance Conservatives in East Hamilton combined against him, Controller Jutten, though a strong man had little chance.

Col. Hendrie's majority was 1,627 over Dr. Davey, the temperance Liberal, while Studholme's majority was 1,029. Col. Hendrie's majority was increased by 200 over the last election. His majority was remarkable when one considers the bitter, almost malicious, fight which was waged against him by the churches and several ministers. The vote was light as compared with the last election. The following table shows the results.

Table with 2 columns: Riding, Votes. Includes Hendrie and Davey for various ridings.

KINGSTON.

Dr. Ross' Majority the Biggest Ever Secured in Kingston. KINGSTON, June 30.—Kingston decided to support the Whitney policy yesterday when it re-elected Dr. Ross by a majority of 1,466, the largest majority ever accorded a candidate in the history of elections in this city. Ald. T. F. Harrison, the Rowell candidate was snowed under, for Dr. Ross' majority was larger than Harrison's total vote. The figures were: Ross, 2900; Harrison 1,434. The Conservative candidate received a majority in every one of the 26 polling sub-divisions, and the vote recorded was the largest polled in any provincial election. Dr. Ross thanked the people for his election, but said that he regarded it not as a tribute to himself, but to the good policy of the Whitney Government. He considered the vote as a rebuke to the men who dared to direct their fellows as to how they should vote.

The defeated candidate attributes his defeat to a large extent to Bishop Bidwell, the Anglican prelate, of Kingston, and to Principal Gordon, of Queen's University, both of whom signed the nomination papers of Dr. Ross and came out against Rowell's "banish-the-bar" policy. This action, he said, had a big effect upon a large section of people who were wavering. This evening the Conservatives celebrated their victory in the City Hall, where the returns from the province were received, and where speeches were made.

WENTWORTH.

Government Candidates Elected in Both Ridings.

HAMILTON, June 30.—The fight in the Wentworths resulted in the election of two supporters for Sir James Whitney. North Wentworth returned J. T. M. Regan, the former member, by over 500 majority over his opponent, Dr. B. E. Thompson of Stoney Creek, the Liberal candidate, and a very popular man. In the south riding the campaign was a most strenuous one, the Conservative candidate having to pull down a nominal Liberal majority against Dr. J. F. McQueen, the Liberal member for the constituency in the last Legislature. The latest returns received gave Dr. A. F. Rykert, Conservative, the seat by a majority of four.

The jubilation among the Conservatives over their success of the party yesterday, where three were elected out of four running, was immeasurably enhanced when from all parts of the province returns kept coming showing that the Government of Sir James Whitney had been returned with a most its previous majority. Hundreds of people stood in the streets in the rain from 6 o'clock until 10 to hear the results.

LONDON.

Conservatives Celebrated the Victory With a Torchlight Procession

LONDON, Ont., June 30.—The result in Western Ontario to-day was a matter of the greatest gratification to supporters of the Conservative cause, but nowhere was there greater jubilation than in London when it became known that Sir Adam Beck had been returned by a plurality of 1,496 over Dr. W. J. Stevenson, Liberal, and John D. Jacobs, the Labor representative. Sir Adam Beck last year competed in 1908, when he defeated John M. McEvoy in a campaign in which Hydro Electric power was the issue, by a majority of 1,404.

The campaign here had been quietly conducted, but the vote came out strongly, and when it became known that Sir Adam had been given such a demonstration of the confidence of the people in spite of the rather confident attitude of his opponents, enthusiasm knew no bounds. Two bands were brought out and a torchlight procession was organized, while Mr. Beck was hailed from his motor car in the parade and carried on the shoulders of his enthused supporters. Addressing the throng, he declared that the result in the province was a clear cut pronouncement of the good opinion of the electors towards the administration of Sir James Whitney. That the people in spite of the rather confident temperance legislation of Sir James Whitney, and that they are content to let the matter of prohibition rest with him, he said had been made clearly manifest.

He thanked the voters for their unwavering support, and again asserted that he would continue his battle for public rights and for his great schemes of public ownership. Dr. Stevenson, the defeated Liberal in an address, stated he was content to bow to the will of the people, and
