A RECORD BREAKING STUNT AT THE BRANT

The Sum of $75,000 is Secured on Behalf of the Victory Loan Campaign; Ten Thousand Added by one Citizen to $65,000 Contributed by the Audience

Talk about your theatrical stunts and theatrical results! The greatest thing of the kind ever pulled off in this city or for that matter in Ontario, took place last night at the Brant Theatre under the auspices of the Publicity Committee of the Victory Loan Campaign.

Members of said committee occupied the boxes, not as guests, but paying the way.

After the inspiring reel, "The Maple Leaf Forever," contributed by Douglas Patbanks, had been run off the curtain was lowered and again raised upon a very prettily arranged scene.

On a screen at the back were the words "They fight; You buy Victory Bonds," and on each side of Mr. A. K. Bunnell and Mr. W. G. Raymond were seated six young ladies attired in the Red Cross military uniform.

They were Miss Hilda Hurley, Miss Mary Shuttleworth, Miss Mary Wray, Miss K. Barrett, Miss Helen Cunningham and Miss Alice Brooks.

Mr. Bunnell, after a short speech, introduced Mr. Raymond, who made an inspiring address of great eloquence.

Following this bids were asked for Victory Bonds and how they did roll in. Ten thousand was one contribution and others were for $1,000 and so on down to fifty. During the time that the young ladies passed through the audience with cards choruses were sung, led by Erlie Moulie, "Buy a Bond," "Pack All Your Troubles," and so forth.

Between singing intervals, Mr. Raymond told of a secret that he would later partially impart and the east and west sides of the house commenced to bid against each other.

Mr. Bunnell having the former and Mr. Raymond the latter. The total rose to $30,000, still W. G. held on to that secret. Then it got to $40,000. Still the secret remained intact. Finally to $50,000, when W. G. said that a gentleman whose name he could not give, would add another $10,000 to $65,000 was reached. Ultimately $64,000 was reached. Then a man in the rear of the house exclaimed, "I'll go $1,000 if any one will match it."

He promptly yelled another and the deed was accomplished amid a scene of wild enthusiasm.

Cheers were given for the King, Mr. Bunnell, Mr. Raymond, Miss Moulie, and the nurses, and the regular program then proceeded.

It was a glorious night. One in which it was indeed a privilege to participate.

The following are the complete Victory Loan returns for Brant County to November 11th, inclusive:

Table with columns: Name, Amount, Total. Includes entries for County of Brant, Canyassera and banks, Town of Paris, Township of Brantford, etc.

BRANTFORD GIRL MEETS SAD END

Passes Away in Kitchener After Taking Tablets

The Evidence Which Was Adduced at the Inquest

(Special to The Courier.) Kitchener, Nov. 13.—Phyllis Irene Thomas, aged 19, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. M. Thomas, Brant avenue, Brantford, has died here from poison self-administered, according to the evidence given this morning before a coroner's jury.

Dr. H. G. Lockner stated that he had been summoned to her bedside shortly after the girl became ill and to him she admitted that she had taken three tablets of bichloride of mercury and that did not blame anyone.

W. Grant Merrill, of the Commercial Chamber, Brantford, and also the owner of a farm seven miles south of that city, stated that he was in the commission business, Miss Thomas motored with him to Kitchener on Sunday afternoon with the consent of her parents and they registered at the Waipar House under their own names, he having room 52 and she room 53. It was a business trip as the girl was his stenographer and bookkeeper and they intended to collect a number of accounts in the neighborhood.

Yesterday at noon she called to take her to lunch and found her in a state of collapse. She denied having taken anything, but later admitted it. He at once phoned for a doctor and also got a nurse.

The announcement was made at this point that Miss Thomas had later been removed to the hospital, where she died at 8 a.m.

In the meantime Merrill had motored to Brantford and brought back her mother.

The inquest will be resumed this afternoon. Enquiry showed that none of the local druggists had sold Miss Thomas any tablets. The contents of her purse include a Victory Bond.

HOLLAND TO ALLOW WILLIAM HOHENZOLLERN TO REMAIN THERE

He Has Taken the Title of Count and is Expected to Buy an Estate—Only a Few Aged Generals Were With Him in His Flight Across Dutch Border

By Courier Leased Wire. LONDON, Nov. 12.—Holland will permit William Hohenzollern to remain on Dutch soil on the same terms of internment as other high officers of the German army.

He has taken the name of Count William Hohenzollern, and is expected to buy an estate and remain in Holland, according to an Amsterdam dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph company.

The Telegraaf of Amsterdam says that he was allowed to take only his personal property from his train, the non-personal property which was brought to Holland being confiscated as is usual in internment cases.

Recent dispatches have stated that the former Emperor had taken a carload of archives with him into Holland.

AMSTERDAM, Nov. 13.—Count von Bentinck, at whose chateau the former German Emperor is staying, told the Handelsblad today that it was only yesterday afternoon that he received a sudden request from the Dutch government, asking him to accommodate William Hohenzollern and his suite, the number in the retinue not being given.

As the party numbers about 50, the majority of its members are being lodged at two neighboring country hotels.

Amerongong Castle, where the former emperor is living, is a splendid old place with luxuriously adorned apartments. Louis XIV of France spent a night there in 1672.

A few aged generals accompanied William Hohenzollern on his flight to Holland. When they reached the frontier they were stopped by Dutch frontier guards, who sent for General Onnen, chief of the internment service, and some local authorities.

After being introduced to the former emperor, General Onnen entered the automobile which had crossed the frontier, and drove off. The bystanders hissed the German emperor. One of the generals in the party was in tears when the group drove away.

home until it is considered safe to do so.

It has been officially announced at Vienna that Emperor Charles has abdicated. This confirms cable advices received yesterday that he had given up the sceptre. The latest of the minor rulers of German states to quit his throne is Prince Heinrich XXVII of Reuss.

William Hohenzollern, the former German emperor, is now in Holland and has been visited by a representative of the Netherlands Government.

His status has not been definitely settled as yet, but it appears that he is posing as a private citizen of Germany instead of the war lord.

According to advices from Bremen the revolutionary sailors of the German navy have seized all the warships of the empire and have established their control of Heligoland.

What effect this will have on the agreement of Germany to surrender a certain number of vessels to the Allies cannot as yet be determined.

The training ship Schlesien is said to have been sunk by revolutionary warships.

Bolshevist forces in the Lake Balkan region in Siberia have been defeated by the Czech-Slovak and allied forces operating there. It is reported that Bolshevik resistance in that section has been broken.

It is reported that the new Roumanian Government has declared war on Germany.

British Headquarters in Flanders, Nov. 13.—Havas.—The German garrison in Brussels has revolted against the non-commissioned officers, according to neutrals reaching the British lines from Brussels. Several of the officers were killed.

PARIS, Nov. 13.—The Germans have begun the evacuation of Brussels. A Dunkirk dispatch to the Paris edition of The New York Herald says that King Albert and his family probably will re-enter Brussels next Friday.

IMPRESSIO IN SWEDEN. By Courier Leased Wire. LONDON, Nov. 12.—The revolution in Germany has made an impression on the Swedish people, who have manifested their sympathy for the establishment of Soldiers' and Workmen's Councils everywhere in order to establish a Socialist government, and, according to Copenhagen advices to the Exchange Telegraph Company, General demobilization of the army and an eight-hour working day are also demanded.

FEARS EXIST. By Courier Leased Wire. COPENHAGEN, Nov. 12.—The new Bavarian Government has sent a message to President Wilson through Switzerland, expressing its fears that the armistice terms will bring chaos to the disordered young republic and requesting that Great Britain and Italy be asked to punish the German autocracy and military party do not deserve mercy.

MUCH MONEY NEEDED FOR FOOD IN EUROPE

So the British Chancellor Announces on Asking for Another Large Credit; A Reduction in Loan to the Allies

By Courier Leased Wire. LONDON, Nov. 12.—In moving a vote of credit for £700,000,000 in the House of Commons today, Andrew Bonar Law, chancellor of the exchequer, said there would be a reduction in expenditure, due to the change in the military situation.

Military authorities, he said, advise, however, against reducing the amount as the allies might have to bring food to Europe. Mr. Bonar Law said that everything available in connection with the manufacture of instrumentalities of war would be turned to the production of merchant ships so that there would probably be an increased expenditure under this head.

The estimated expenditure for the 202 days to October 19, was £1,411,000, but the actual disbursements amounted to £1,851,000,000. There was a reduction in loans to the allies and Dominions of £276,000, as compared with the estimate. The increase in army expenditures was £39,000,000, while the disbursement for the navy decreased £13,500,000 because of the fact that expectations as to the building of merchant ships had not been realized. There was a reduction of £30,000,000 on munitions as compared with the estimate, owing to an over-ambitious program.

LATE DESPATCHES SEEM TO CONFIRM DEATH OF CROWN PRINCE

He Was Shot and Killed by Soldiers; The Story Lacks any Official Confirmation

By Courier Leased Wire. PARIS, Nov. 12.—Havas.—Bulletin.—The death of the crown prince is confirmed by The Hague correspondent of the German news agency at Munich, according to advices to The Matin.

LONDON, Nov. 12.—The Crown Prince Frederick William of Germany was shot and killed on Monday morning by German soldiers when trying to cross the Dutch frontier, according to Amsterdam dispatches to The Times and The Post.

THE CASE OF THE EMPEROR. LONDON, Nov. 12.—Holland's hesitancy in dealing with William Hohenzollern is ascribed to the extremely indefinite state of public opinion in Holland by the Amsterdam correspondent of The Mail. He says that German revolutionary soldiers along the Dutch frontier say that they were strictly ordered to prevent the escape of the former emperor and his family into Holland.

Saturday night and shortly after 6 o'clock on Sunday morning, he said, the sound of cannon could be heard from German territory. It was reported that a fight had taken place between evolutionist and Royalist troops, and that both sides had used artillery.

HAS REVOLTED. British Headquarters in Flanders, Nov. 13.—Havas.—The German garrison in Brussels has revolted against the non-commissioned officers, according to neutrals reaching the British lines from Brussels. Several of the officers were killed.

BEGUN EVACUATION. PARIS, Nov. 13.—The Germans have begun the evacuation of Brussels. A Dunkirk dispatch to the Paris edition of The New York Herald says that King Albert and his family probably will re-enter Brussels next Friday.

Mutineers' Threats. Amsterdam, Nov. 12.—The German troops who mutinied at the Beverloo Camp in Belgium and raised the red flag, says the Handelsblad, attacked another force, reporting the force's surrender. The force was defeated and fled to the Dutch frontier, where it was disarmed Monday.

ARRIVED AT CASTLE. By Courier Leased Wire. Amsterdam, Nov. 13.—(By the Associated Press).—William Hohenzollern, former German Emperor, arrived Monday afternoon at the Castle of Amerongong, Count von Bentinck's country seat at Maars in the Province of Utrecht.
